

TWO NEW BANKS START SOON

United Railways Company Will Open Institution in Old Post-office Building.

LUMBERMAN'S SAVINGS BANK SECOND VENTURE

Will Have Two Hundred Thousand Dollars Capital, Most of Which Is Subscribed - Several Financial Houses Will Move.

Two new banks are to be opened in Portland within the next six months, and several of the present institutions are to move into more commodious quarters.

The larger of the two new institutions is to be located in the old post-office building by the United Railways company, which recently bought the Chamber of Commerce building for $200,000.

The second bank will be more of a Portland and Oregon institution. Its officers will come largely from outside of this city, while much of the capital stock will be subscribed here.

D. C. Pelton, for a number of years interested in the logging business at Goble, is to be president. J. A. Keating, who has offices in the Falling building and who has been largely instrumental in the stock subscription, is slated to be one of the vice-presidents.

at the corner of First and Washington streets.

Across the street from the Lumbermen's Savings bank in the Brook-Glass building, now nearing completion, will be located the Canadian Bank of Commerce, which is to move from its present quarters on Washington street, near Second street.

The ground floor of the Vial building, corner of Sixth and Washington streets, now being remodeled, is to be occupied by the Oregon Savings bank, which now does business at the corner of Seventh and Morrison streets.

CATE SAYS HOGEBOOM DID NOT APOLOGIZE

Charges against Police Sergeant Hogeboom alleging insubordination were investigated by the police committee of the city executive board yesterday afternoon.

The sergeant was also charged with apologizing to R. L. Cate for having arrested a porter employed by the latter on orders from Captain Bruhn.

The case was taken under advisement and a decision will be reached before the next meeting of the city executive board.

Patrolman L. R. Evans was before the committee charged with neglect in patrolling his beat. He was caught in a hallway while on duty.

GOODBYE SOCIETY; THIS IS LENT

Today is Ash Wednesday, First Day of Forty Days of Fast and Prayer.

ARCHBISHOP ISSUES RULES FOR CATHOLICS

Fresh Meat Allowed at Every Meal on Sunday and at One Meal on Week Days, Except Friday and Wednesday, With Some Exceptions

This is Ash Wednesday, the first day of the Lenten season. For the next 39 days Episcopalians and Roman Catholics throughout the civilized world will observe the period by special forms of worship, which end with Easter.

Archbishop Alexander Christie of Portland and Bishop O'Reilly of Baker City have issued the following Lenten regulations for the government and guidance of Roman Catholics:

"Lent begins February 23. All the faithful not legitimately dispensed are obliged in conscience to observe the laws of the church concerning the Lenten fast.

"First—The use of flesh meats is allowed at every meal on Sundays, as well as the principal meal on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, Saturdays of the Ember days and holy week excepted.

"Second—The use of fish, milk, butter and eggs is permitted on all days of Lent at the evening collation and at the principal meals on those days on which the use of flesh meats is forbidden.

"Third—In the morning a small piece of bread is allowed with a cup of coffee, tea, chocolate or some similar drink.

"Fourth—When the principal meal cannot be taken before noon, the order may be inverted and the collation taken in the morning and the dinner in the evening.

"Fifth—Lard or grease may be used in preparing the lawful viands.

"Sixth—Those of the faith who are exempt from the obligation of fasting can, on the days when the use of flesh meats is permitted to all of the faithful, be allowed to use it several times a day, as on the Sundays of Lent, when the obligation is not binding. The use of both flesh meat and fish together at the same meal is strictly forbidden during the whole of Lent.

"The following persons are exempt from fasting: All those who have not attained their 21st year or who have passed their 60th; those whose weak health or condition otherwise may demand the full amount of nourishment, and all those whose occupations are of a laborious and exhausting nature.

"Those who are excused from fasting, on account of age or hard labor, may use flesh meat more than once on the days on which it is allowed.

"It is eminently in accordance with the spirit of the church that all those who use the dispensations from the fast and abstinence, should supply, in part, the spirit of penance, by prayer, and almsdeeds; by avoiding all public shows, parties and amusements, and by abstaining from all intoxicating beverages.

"The time for making the Easter communion extends from Ash Wednesday to Trinity Sunday, inclusive. All the faithful are hereby warned that all those who neglect to make the Easter communion violate a law of the church which binds under pain of mortal sin. The transgressors of the law are, moreover, subject to excommunication, and should they die, deprivation of Christian burial.

"Parents have to answer to God for their children. Let them, therefore, remember that they are obliged in conscience to see that their children and others under their charge receive Easter communion.

"The reverend rectors are requested to have special Lenten devotions on

MARSHALL FIELD THIRD IS THROWN FROM HORSE

(Journal Special Service.) Chicago, Feb. 28.—Marshall Field III, heir to the vast estate of the late Marshall Field Sr., was yesterday thrown from a horse at Lakewood, New Jersey in an accident similar to that which nearly caused his death three years ago.

In the probate court Mrs. Field Jr. was appointed guardian of her children and the trustees of the estate decided to allow her $75,000 annually for their education. It is understood their education will be completed entirely in the United States, the trustees opposing the mother's desire to send them to a foreign university.
