FRENCH SHIP CRILLON IN WITH CONSIGNMENT

Cargo of Sixteen Thousand Barrels Will Be but Drop in Bucket, However—Irrington Sewer Tied Up by Non-Arrival of Material by Train.

Because of the scarcity of cement in the Pacific coast market, local contractors are in danger of an increase in price and a shortage of brick...

Already, it is said, efforts are being made to corner all the brick available. Last night the French ship Crillon arrived at Astoria with a cargo of 16,000 barrels of Antwerp cement...

"Our consignment," said Mr. London of the firm, "will, of course, give some temporary relief. Some of the cement has been sold and practically all of the remainder has been spoken for."

The Nottingham company did not receive its consignment of California cement which was expected to arrive by rail today. This was to be used principally on the Irvington sewer...
