1. LEANDER: "By Jove, I've been standing in line for over an hour, but it's worth it. Lulu can't help comparing me favorably with these other would-be husbands. No doubt she thinks I make them all look like thirty cents."
LULU: "How happy and proud Leander seems."

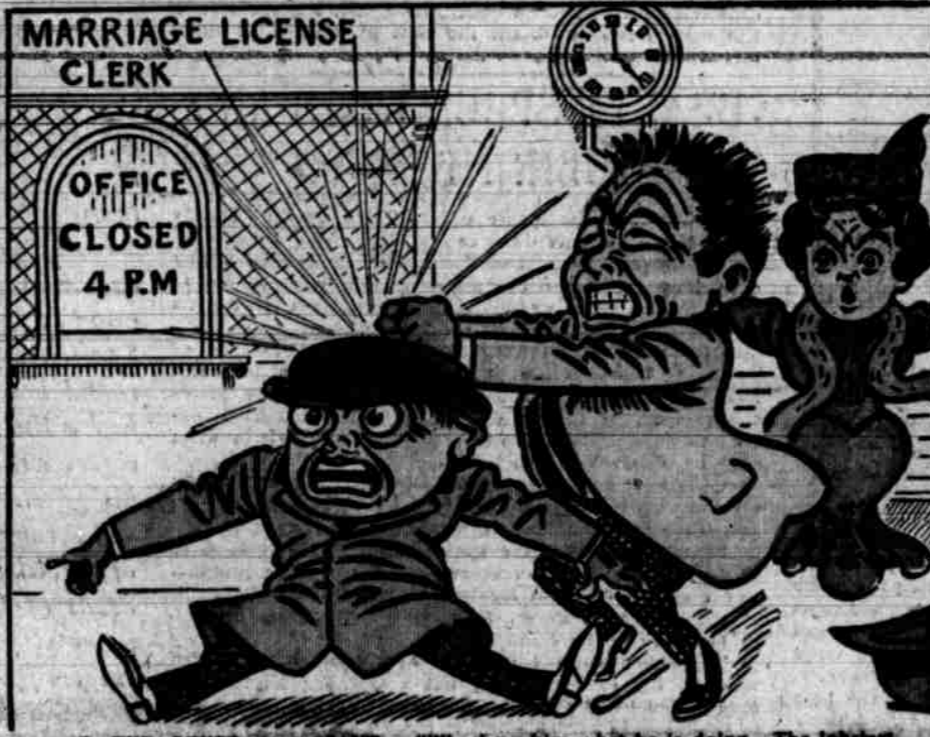

2. LEANDER: "Ha, another move nearer the goal. By ginger when I feel that our marriage day is as good as settled I can hardly retain myself."
THE OTHER APPLICANT: "WEOW! He's labbed me!"
LULU: "Oh, Leander, just see what you have done!"

3. LEANDER: "Oh, my dear sir, I most humbly beg your pardon. In my joy and enthusiasm over my approaching marriage I forgot myself. Pray forgive me."
THE OTHER APPLICANT: "Well, I'll let it go this time. I can't blame you for being happy. I'm going to get married myself."
LULU: "Oh, isn't he a kind and forgiving man!"

4. LEANDER: "Hoop la! I'm next! I'm next! I get my marriage license to-day. No bad luck can prevent it."
THE OTHER APPLICANT: "There he goes again, and on my other cheek! Ye gods! This is too much!"
LULU: "Leander! LEANDER! See what you are doing to that poor man."

5. THE OTHER APPLICANT: "I'll show him what he is doing. The lobster! Try to puncture me, eh? Take THAT!"
LEANDER: "I I I I x x I I I"
LULU: "It serves him right. Leander, THERE! now the office is closed and we will not get our license to-day. Now our wedding will have to be postponed again."

6. THE OTHER APPLICANT: "And I wanted to get married to-night. I pity that poor girl. It's a shame for her to tie herself up to such a sap-headed chump!"
LULU: "Did you hear what that poor man said? Well, I'm commencing to think the same thing myself."
LEANDER: "Ye gods! I'll eat a pound of dynamite and jump off a roof!"
