Jontie and Walter Write Concerning the News of Their Respective Situations-Bert Kerrigan Left This Morning for Athens.

Dear Editor: I read your story about daries in Sunday's paper and while I admit your figures are correct, I want to notify you that the judge is mighty perturbed over the announcement. He called up his subsidized press agent at once and gave him the long talk about denying the charge, which his honorable denying the charge, which is do with-plane logs vainly attempted to do with-out success. I am glad you got a rise out of the gang. If there was no truth in your statement, they would have passed it by without comment. Truth truth will always prevail. No

He began to shoot when he was 11, and at the grange, in Hampshire, his bags have been phenomenally heavy. The best was in 1877, when he shot 11,000 partridges. In 1895 more than 23,000 head of game were killed by him. On one November were killed by him. On one November day he killed 730 brace of partridges. ### WRESTLING AND BOXING AT MULTNOMAH CLUB

Chairman Edgar Frank has completed arrangements for the dual boxing and westling competition that will be held between the Seattle Athletic club and the Multnomah club in this city on May 30. Considerable interest is being taken in the coming events by members of both clubs, and the winged "M" followers are especially anxious to give their brothers from Seattle a few hard falls.

HOT WEATHER TELLS ON THE OVERFED MEN

Jim O'Rourke, in the Harness for Thirty-three Years, Advises All Ball Players to Drink Milk Always Instead of Beer.

Overfeeding kills off more ball play-ers than accidents or hard work on the ball field. The Fletcher system should be taken up by the veteran ball players without delay. In fact, the rules of cating should be laid down by he management of every club.
The late Harry Wright was about the first baseball man to keep a close watch over the players during meal-time, and constantly insisted that they indulge lightly before dressing for an afternoon on the ball field. "Just a plate of soup. That's plenty," would be Mr. Wright's cry as the players filed into the dining-room for lunch

The greatest athletic performances of the field have been accomplished of practically empty stomachs, says Tim

Murnane in the Roston Globe.

As the players grow older they show up and fail to enthuse over the early training until their ball playing is af-fected and the fans soon size up the trouble. When the hot weather comes trouble. When the hot weather comes and the players fall to drinking beer too freely it's plain to see them allow up and grow disgusted when they have any leather chasing to perform.

Then it's 2 to 1 the same player will, wake up and work like a sallor to get into fast company when it's too late. The two big leagues are full of just such players right now, and nine tenths of the ambitionless gentlemen are booked for the trolley cars and a change of climate.

The manager who does not pay especial attention to this end of the player's life must lose out, for his team will be unable to keep up a fast clip very long after the boys commence to take on flesh as the result of overfeeding and drinking.

Two Others Fail in Supreme Court and Must Expiate Their Crimes on Gallows.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Helena, Mont., March 20.—The su-preme court today handed down de-cisions in three appealed murder cases. In one of these a new trial was granted because of faulty indictment or informa-tion, while in the other two the convic-tions with resulting death sentences were affirmed.

F. W. Beeskove, better known as "Coyote Bill," who killed William Bur-rig in a quarrel over lands in Missoula county, was the fortunate one of the trio, being granted a new trial. Miles Fuller, & Montana ploneer, who murdered an old associate near Butte, and who was awaiting execution, must explate his crime, the court finding no errors in the proceedings in the lower Lu Sing, a Bozeman Chinaman, must also suffer the death penalty, the court flinding no ground for reversal or a new trial. Sing killed a fellow countryman last fall. The court also affirmed the sentence of 10 years given Nellie Kre-mer, convicted in Butte on a grand larceny charge.

SHOT TO DEATH FOR GOING WITH ANOTHERS WIFE

sin Remarks I hat He Glad That He Committed the Crime.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Helena, Mont., March 20.—Word was received here today of a shooting affair at Cut Bank, Montana, in which a man named McDonald, a cattleman, was shot and killed by a man named Arnold. McDonald had just sat down to a lunch counter to eat when Arnold stepped up to the window outside and shot him in the back.

The weapon used was a double-bar-reled shotgun, loaded with buckshot. McDonald was immediately picked up by a Western Union operator who was present, and McDonald remarked:
"I know all about it. Mac did it. I've been with his wife."
He lived but a few minutes after he was shot. Arnoid gave himself up to the authorities, and was taken on the first train to the county jail at Chouteau. He stated to the sheriff that he was glad that he killed McDonsid.
