

ALBINA GANG HAS HAD ITS DAY

Business Men Tire of Recent Outrages and Prepare to Settle Accounts.

REVIVAL ONLY THING TO PREVENT DRAMA

Frolicsome Youths Who Break Windows and Assault Defenseless Victims to Be Treated to Something More Potential Than Kind Words.

The east side office of the Journal is in the store of J. M. C. Miller, 90 East Morrison street. Telephone East 275.

A revival of religion is believed to be about the only thing that will prevent a tragedy or two occurring in lower Albina and the crowd of rowdy boys that used to throw mud at the teacher and drop cats down smoking chimneys it has developed into a crew of well-grown boys and young men whose resorts are the dining back rooms of lower Albina saloons and whose amusement ranges from beating up a Chinaman to thrashing the fellow who resents their insults.

Police protection throughout the entire district is slight. The patrolmen have long beats and it is easy for the gang to avoid the solitary watchman and raise a neighborhood with some piece of devilment an hour before the patrolman is due to frudge by. Owing to the amount of territory and the general quiet of the district, except for the gang, there is slight reason to suppose that additional police protection will soon be given or that the gang's activity will be curbed by other than local influences.

Business men in the Albinas are frank to admit that they fear this crew that always escapes arrest, or if arrested escapes sentence to return and wreck the property of the informer. Plate-glass windows cost money, and physical assault is not enjoyable even in prospect, and both of these are favorite tokens of the crew's playful mood. But while dialking to stir up trouble or act as peace officers, the residents of the district, after several of the gang's recent outrages, have come to the conclusion that now is a good time to go after the offenders. One gloomy night a frolicsome youth or two will be carried to a nearby drug store and several ounces of bird shot extracted from his epidermis, after which peace is expected to settle in earnest over Albina.

St. Johns Boys Can't Play Pool, Shoot at Marks or Knock Down Tompkins.

THE ST. JOHNS COUNCIL IS CARING FOR THE YOUTH OF THE TOWN IN A MANNER THAT HAS PROVED THE OPPOSITION OF THE PROPRIETORS OF THE PLACES OF PUBLIC AMUSEMENT.

The St. Johns council is caring for the youth of the town in a manner that has provoked the opposition of the proprietors of the places of public amusement. The council has taken upon itself to content himself with home pursuits these days. Recently an ordinance was passed not only keeping boys out of saloons but making it a misdemeanor for minors under 18 to frequent bowling alleys, billiard halls, shooting galleries or card rooms. Not only is it unlawful for boys to frequent such places but they cannot under any pretext enter such resorts, cannot visit them, cannot drop in while passing. If found in one, the minor and the proprietor are held equally guilty and liable to the same punishment, the maximum being a fine of $25 and 10 days' imprisonment.

EIGHTH WARD LINES UP.

Republicans Organize and Candidates Outline Their Platforms.

A large attendance of voters and candidates organized the Eighth Ward Republican club last night at a mass meeting held in the east side justice court under a body politic that is expected to unite the factions of the ward was started on its work. Councilman Dan Kellaher fathered the movement and was chosen president. E. L. Lockwood was made vice-president. J. Beveridge, secretary, and A. D. Keenan treasurer. Another session will be held next Monday evening when the constitution committee will present a plan of organization to the club which will be formally created.

BIG MISSION CAMPAIGN.

Continuing until April 2, a missionary church extension revival campaign, which began last Thursday, will be conducted in the East Portland district of the Methodist Episcopal church and every minister in the district and the chief laymen of the city churches will address afternoon and evening audiences. The East Portland district does include all the east side Methodist churches, Woodlawn, Central, Patton and St. Johns not being in the list, but the district does include most of the east side Methodist congregations besides extending to towns as far as Corvallis and Salem. Services and speakers in east side churches are as follows: Montavilla, March 19, C. H. Campbell, R. C. Blackwell, B. F. Rowland, A. Thompson, T. Maxwell, C. A. Lewis; Trinity, March 20, W. B. Moore.

DRUG FACTS

When a member of your family is ill, you never call a certain doctor because he makes a visit cheaper than others, do you? Do you not send for Doctor So-and-So because you have faith in him, and believe in his ability? Then is it not fully as important that the directions of your physician be carried out as he intended in order to obtain the results you are both working for? Of course it is, but unless your prescriptions are filled with drugs of standard strength, and fresh, you cannot hope to get the best results.

We are the largest buyers and sellers of drugs and chemicals on the Pacific Coast, and we have but one kind—first quality—and we dispense them as your doctor orders. We are bending every effort to merit your confidence, in the drug way, and no expense is curtailed to improve even our modern store, and the excellence of our service.

If it's only a dose of Epsom Salts or a Quinine Pill, you want it to be RIGHT. Half a century's record stands back of our kind and they are right—all right.
