BIG BOOM IN GAMBLING AT EUROPEAN RESORTS

Rush of Business at the Riviera, Monte Carlo and Cannes Forces New Casinos.

(Journal Special Service.)

Nice, France, March 26.—Never before has the mania for gambling reached such a pitch on the Riviera. Nightly the play at baccarat at the Grand Circle here is for stakes as high as at Monte Carlo. To such proportions has the fever risen that extensive arrangements are being made for affording the hosts of players with vastly enlarged facilities next season.

A magnificent new casino is building at Monte Carlo. Another splendid new casino is to be erected here on the Avenue Massena, and a syndicate has also bought the beautiful Parc Chambrun, outside of Nice, where it is proposed to erect still another huge gambling-house, to rival that at Monte Carlo.

At Cannes, too, a syndicate is busy constructing a palatial casino. Rich Americans are contributing largely, though involuntarily, to the building funds for the new casinos.

CLAM CANNERY BEGINS WORK AT ABERDEEN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Aberdeen, Wash., March 26.—The Sea Beach Clam cannery, at the foot of G street, is now under full operation, and is giving employment to 30 hands here, while about 25 more are employed at the beach, digging the clams and sending them here. This industry gives lucrative employment to a good class of women and girls, and the number will be largely increased after the first of April, when the busy season begins in earnest. The demand for clams is steadily increasing, and the industry promises to grow into a business of large proportions.

AT THE THEATRES.

"Piff! Paff! Pouf!" Tonight.

This most gorgeous musical production direct from its phenomenal run of eight months at the New York Casino, where it broke all records and ran to an exceptionally large business, is the offering at the Marquam Grand theatre tonight, tomorrow and Wednesday nights, with a special-price matinee Wednesday. It is full of tuneful music, catchy songs of the whistling kind, unique dances, bright dialogue, and is presented by a cast comprising nearly 100 favorites of stageland. Fred Mace assumes Eddie Foy's former part as Peter Pouffle, the sandman, and Robert E. Graham, a comedian of ability, enacts the character of August Melon, and the widow falls to Katheryn Osterman. Others in the cast will be Dorothy Maynard, James Devlin, Lulu McConnell, Walter H. Clinton, Eveleen Dunmore, Harry Stuart, Marie Ellwood, Lee Roce and Lisle Bloodgood. Seats are now selling for the four performances.

George Primerose's Minstrels Coming

George Primrose and his big minstrel company will hold high carnival at the Marquam Grand theatre next Friday and Saturday nights, March 30 and 31, with a special matinee Saturday. Mr. Primrose himself heads the organization and has taken particular pains to surround himself with a company of comedians, singers, dancers and musicians of the first order. Advance sale opens next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

VAUDEVILLE AND STOCK.

The Armstrongs at Grand.

An all-feature show is billed for the Grand this week. The big attraction is the act of the three Armstrongs, the greatest trick bicycle riders in the world. The Zeraldas are premier equilibrists. Miss Marie Laurens is an operatic vocalist. Jack Connelly and company play "Wooing a Widow," which is clever and diverting, with a laugh in every line. The Bell trio have a refined singing act. John J. Welch is a monologist who tells new stories in a new way. Harold Hoff contributes an illustrated ballad and the Grandiscope flashes Edison's latest pictures.

Star's New Bill.

Today the Star presents a matchless vaudeville entertainment, at the head of the bill being the Fowler brothers, two of the best hand-to-hand balancers on the stage. They have a remarkable muscular development in the arms. Riley and Lavigne are comedians, with a string of patter and brisk parodies. Dick and Effie Guise offer a sketchlet, entitled "A Financial Embarrassment." Fairfield and Morton are a refined comedy team and Will C. Hoyt sings "Starlight," the latest song hit. The Starascope has new pictures.

IS KILLED IN PULPIT BY BOLT OF LIGHTNING

(Journal Special Service.)

Carson, Iowa, March 26.—In the midst of religious services, while the Rev. J. B. Lents was preaching a sermon yesterday at the Church of the Latter-Day Saints, a bolt of lightning fatally injured the minister, stunned and burned many of the congregation, caused a panic and set the building on fire. Lentz died within an hour without regaining consciousness. The bolt came through the roof, struck and played about the chandelier directly over the head of the preacher. He fell to the floor of the platform as if shot. Those in the forward seats were stunned and severely scorched, but none seriously hurt.

There was a rush from the rear for the doors and it was not until nearly all, except the cooler heads, had left that the minister was picked up and carried from the church. Lentz had a wife and two children.
