

SOCIETY is now living on the feast that is to come, and from all sides come announcements of after-Easter functions. Nothing of note is happening now, but the announcements of future events are so many that some must even postpone their dates to find room. The Old Ladies' home tea at the Hobart-Curtis, Easter Monday afternoon, with prominent society matrons in charge of the refreshment tables; the charity ball given by the Trinity young folk the following week; the Irvington Tennis club dance the Friday after Lent; a Scottish Rite ball in the near future, and the Trinity Guild tea shortly after the charity ball, to which it has given precedence, are the principal events of a semi-public nature that are now interesting society. A number of hostesses have announced their intention of entertaining at home at this time be-

Manion, Dr. Mary Thompson, Dr. Lola Johnson, Dr. Mae H. Cardwell, Dr. Viola M. Coe, Dr. Egert, Dr. Edna Timms, Dr. Sarah Whitfield, Dr. Amelia Ziegler, Dr. Myra Tynan-Brown, Dr. Katherine C. Manion, Dr. C. Gertrude French, Dr. Jessie M. McGavin, Dr. Ella H. Schaeffer, Dr. Kittle P. Gray, Dr. Mary MacLachlan, Dr. E. Eleanor VanAlstine, Mrs. O. D. Babcock, Miss Aletha Tyler, Miss Minnie Burden, Miss Emma Maki, Miss Anna Regan, Miss Ruby Archambault, Miss Blanche Darow, Miss Ravina Spurrier and Mrs. Clara Roames.

Larowe read an interesting account of Stephen G. Foster, author of "Way Down Upon the Suwanee River." Miss Carrie Seal sang "Resignation" (Caro Roma) and Mrs. George C. Flanders sang "Face to Face" (Johnson). "Suwanee River" was then sung by the chorus. The program was followed by refreshments served by the hostess and Mrs. Abendroth Jr. Mrs. Nina Larowe will entertain the department next week at Larowe hall, Twenty-third and Kearney streets.

The Misses Felling returned Monday night from a long visit in the east. The officers of the Woman's Exchange are glad to welcome their president back, and there will be a business meeting of the board tomorrow. The exchange has been popular during the spring shopping season. Friends have met there in small luncheon parties at the noon hour. The excellent service, the good cooking and the fresh appearance of the rooms add much to the attractiveness of the place, and the fact that this is a worthy charity and that society girls volunteer their help in the daily service and that some prominent matrons in charge each day, does its share toward drawing desirable patronage.

Another of the delightful programs given by the Ladies Aid Literary club of the First Congregational church took place Wednesday afternoon. An excellent program of vocal and instrumental music was given. Mrs. George Hoady sang "Sing Me to Sleep" so acceptably that she had to respond to an encore. Mrs. E. G. Hall followed with a piano number and Miss Petronella Connolly sang the little Scotch air, "My Ain Folk." and "Were I a Star." Judge Northrup gave personal reminiscences of "The Song of '61-'65." Delicate refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Northrup, Mrs. Nothnagel, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Frohn, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Rapp, Mrs. McFarland, Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Shanks.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Tomasi entertained Tuesday evening at their home on Hancock street. Five hundred was the game played and prizes were won by C. Lee Boss and Mrs. W. L. Straugh. The rooms were beautifully decorated with green and white for the occasion, a profusion of potted palms, carnations and Oregon grapes being used. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. Lee Boss, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Straugh, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus J. DeLahun, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Runyon, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Knudson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Bee, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Branch, Mrs. E. Weaver, Mrs. Moore, Miss Margaret Rogers and Miss Nellie Ha.

The next of the Irvington club dances has been set for Friday, April 20. This will be the last of a series of three subscription dances, which have proved popular. They were discontinued in February till after the close of Lent. The patronesses are: Mrs. George E. Chamberlain, Mrs. John W. Goss, Mrs. William Kerr Scott, Mrs. R. L. Sabin, Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur, Mrs. Frank D. Gibbs, Mrs. A. E. McFarland, Mrs. Walter M. Cook, Mrs. W. F. Woodward, Mrs. C. H. Leadbetter, Mrs. F. J. Raley, Mrs. J. M. Fox, Mrs. Charles W. King, Mrs. Sam P. Lockwood, Mrs. Percy H. Blyth, Mrs. F. S. Doernbecher and Mrs. W. I. Northrup.

Mrs. Charles L. Boss has issued cards for a six-handed euchre party at the Irvington club, Tuesday afternoon, April 17, in honor of her mother, Mrs. B. F. Weaver. Two hundred invitations have been sent out. Mrs. Boss has recently made her home in Portland, having formerly lived in Omaha, where she and her mother gave such other clubhouses party for 400 guests, which was a most successful affair.

The next of the Patton home teas will be given Tuesday afternoon, April 17, at 2 o'clock. The program will be in charge of Miss Mae Belle Names and the King's Daughters of Trinity church, will be given by her own pupils, the violin numbers by those of William Wallace Graham and the vocal numbers by those of John Claire Monteith, assisted by Miss Copeland. The program will be an interesting one.

Mrs. E. Robinson entertained Wednesday afternoon with an informal tea at her home, 474 Park street. The rooms were fragrant with Oregon grapes and fruit. Mrs. J. P. Hootman presided and poured the tea. The guests were Mrs. J. F. Bruce, Mrs. A. J. Little, Mrs. S. C. Armitage, Miss White, Mrs. W. H. Laidlaw, Mrs. M. Wamsley, Mrs. Mackie, Mrs. W. H. Barrett, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Brierly, Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Napper.

Mrs. Samuel Connell entertained the Ladies Aid society of Taylor Street Methodist Episcopal church at her home in Irvington last Monday afternoon. Plans were made for the annual bazaar to be given next November and the members will commence at once to make the articles for sale. Mrs. Irene McKenney assisted her daughter, the hostess, in serving.

The Trinity Guild tea which was to have been given the week after Lent has been postponed on account of the charity ball following immediately upon Easter. Mrs. A. A. Morrison, who has been working zealously in the guild during Lent, has been spending the week at Mrs. W. C. Alvord's home in search of rest from her routine duties.

Mrs. W. D. Washburn left for her home in Minneapolis Wednesday after a visit of several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Henry E. Jones. Mr. Washburn, who had expected to arrive shortly before her return to take the trip back with her, was delayed and could not come.

Miss Kate Randall gave a trossseau shower and thimble party yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Lillie Bandfield, whose marriage takes place April 15. The decorations were in pink and white and besides the gifts from the friends each one hemmed a napkin for the bride.

Mrs. Flanders and her two daughters returned Friday morning after a winter spent abroad. They were accompanied by the Holt Wisons, who returned more than a week ago, coming home immediately after landing, while for the hot weather is at hand, and the season promises to be a lively one. Dr. Esther Pohl's reception for Dr. Anna Shaw, Tuesday evening, was one of the largest affairs of the week, and called together a notable assemblage of bright medical women. The brides-elect were the recipients of a few small entertainments, and a number of card parties complete the list of the week's doings.

Dr. Esther C. Pohl's reception Tuesday evening to Rev. Anna Shaw, D. D., at her home, 392 Williams avenue, was given for the women of the medical profession and was an elaborate affair. About 50 guests were present, including besides the women physicians in town and the women students of the medical college, the national and state officers of the suffrage movement. Dr. Shaw studied medicine before she entered the ministry.

The house was beautifully decorated, the gold of the suffrage association coloring the decorations. Large clusters of Oregon grape with its yellow blossoms surmounted the doorways and the windows. Yellow ribbons were festooned from corner to corner, and at the end of the tea table was a large bowl of yellow tulips. Dr. Pohl was assisted in receiving by Dr. Shaw and Mrs. Abigail Scott Dunaway. Dr. Shaw wore black lace over silk, touched with white lace. Mrs. Dunaway also was in black lace and silk, and Dr. Pohl wore white lace with blue garnitures.

In the dining-room Dr. Mae Cardwell, in champagne etamine with ecrú applique, served the tea, and Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe (Dr. Viola M. Coe) poured coffee. She wore a Paris gown of black net spangled with green over white silk. Mrs. A. H. Breyman, in white lace over white silk, Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, in black satin, and Mrs. George E. Pettinger, in white silk were parlor hostesses. The Misses Gaffney assisted in serving. Dr. Shaw, Miss Gail Laughlin, Mrs. Clara Bewick Colby and Mrs. Dunaway gave brief talks, and Mrs. E. E. Covert sang.

The guests present were Dr. Anna Shaw, Miss Mary Anthony, Miss Kate Gordon, Miss Laura Clay, Miss Laura Gregg, Mrs. Ida Porter-Boyer, Mrs. Clara Bewick Colby, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Abigail Scott Dunaway, Mrs. A. H. Breyman, Mrs. Puffer, Mrs. French, Mrs. Stapleton, Mrs. E. E. Covert, Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, Mrs. George H. Pettinger, the Misses Gaffney, Dr. Clara L. Darr, Dr. Margaret N. Quigley, Dr. Callie B.

the society formed the decorations. A large number of out of town guests attended, among whom were the following from Portland: Mr. and Mrs. Zera Snow, Mrs. W. D. Fenton, Mrs. David Rafferty, Mrs. H. W. Goidard, Miss Dorothy Moore, Miss Marietta Upton, Miss Ethel Clarke, Miss Mary Gray, C. E. Murray (Cornell), Ernest Wells U. C. '05), W. V. Tomlinson (U. C. '05), Harold Howzer, from Oregon City: Mrs. C. D. Latourette, Miss Beale Kelly and Miss Edna Daulton. From Salem: Mrs. C. B. Moores and Miss Helen Calbraith. From Albany: Mrs. H. A. Nelson, Miss Frances Nelson, and Mrs. E. E. Mason. The patronesses were: Mrs. William D. Fenton, Mrs. C. D. Latourette, Mrs. David Rafferty, Mrs. T. G. Hendricks (Eugene), Mrs. Minnie Washburn (Eugene), Mrs. H. A. Nelson, Mrs. Zera Snow, Mrs. C. B. Moores, Mrs. R. H. Dearborn (Eugene) and Mrs. H. W. Goidard.

After the Lenten quiet the coming charity ball, given under the auspices of the King's Daughters of Trinity church, at the Scottish Rite temple, Friday evening, April 27, is looked forward to with great pleasure, as it will be the first this season. Parsons' orchestra of 12 pieces has been engaged and a well-known caterer will have charge of the supper. Tickets are already much in demand and a brilliant assemblage is predicted as well as a large financial gain to the Daughter's treasury. The proceeds from the ball will help towards furnishing a cottage at the Open Air sanatorium; also will supply clothing and linen used by the District Nurses' association, will aid in hospital and alum work and will augment the monthly subscriptions for the Day Nursery and other worthy charities. A full list of patronesses, which numbers some of the most popular society matrons of the city, will be given out next week, as well as the names of prominent young men who have volunteered to act as floor managers.

The musical department of the Woman's club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Hubert, 563 East Main street, by Mrs. Carl Abendroth, Thursday afternoon. The rooms were beautifully decorated with masses of cherry blossoms. The chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Hamilton, rehearsed "The Lost Chord" (Arthur S. Sullivan). The chairman of the department, Mrs. F. M. Branch, is the soloist. Mrs. Nina
