AT THE THEATRES.

Matinee at the Heilig Tomorrow.

Tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon at the Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, the Kirke La Shelle company will present Paul Armstrong's comedy-drama, "The Heir to the Hoorah." Curtain at 2:15 o'clock. Special prices will prevail. The last performance will be given tomorrow night. Seats are now selling at the box office of the Heilig.

Seats Selling for "Babes in Toyland."

"Babes in Toyland," a musical extravaganza, the libretto of which was furnished by Glen MacDonough, the music by Victor Herbert, and which was staged by Julian Mitchell, is to be seen at the Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, next Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, April 12, 13 and 14, with a special-price matinee Saturday. In the matter of scenic display and gorgeous costuming, it is said that the "Babes" quite surpasses anything yet attempted in America. Seats are now selling at the box office of the theatre. Phone Main 1.

Creston Clarke in "Beaucaire."

It has been known for some time that a date has been arranged for a visit to the Heilig theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday nights, April 15, 16 and 17, by Creston Clarke in his big artistic and financial success of last season, "Beaucaire," the beautiful Booth Tarkington comedy romance, but the definite announcement is causing unusual demand for seats. Advance sale Friday.

Cherry Blossoms.

Baker patrons now are enjoying an unusually bright and pretty attraction this week in the production given by the Cherry Blossoms Burlesque company. This company presents a clean, lively and attractive bill, including two screaming farce comedies, the "Wrong Count Tobasco" and "The Quarrelsome Neighbors," together with all the bright and clever chorus numbers by a score of pretty girls and a vaudeville olio containing some of the most interesting acts that have been seen in Portland this season. The regular bargain day matinee is due tomorrow at 2:15 p. m.

"The Fatal Wedding" at Empire.

Another popular and well-known attraction is at the Empire this week. This is the great melodrama, one of the most successful of all, "The Fatal Wedding." It tells a story of great strength. "The Fatal Wedding" will be at the Empire all the week, with the women's and children's matinee Saturday.

VAUDEVILLE AND STOCK.

At the Star.

Musical Nalon and his instruments are a hit this week at the Star. His instruments are almost as entertaining as he is. Drew and Dean are singers, dancers and comedians. Charles Morgan, the new illustrated song singer, has one of the best voices ever heard here. Miss Isabelle Jensen sings three songs. Leslie and Ashmore have a comedy sketch. The Stroods have a society playlet with a sensational finish. The Staroscope shows the life of the newsboy.

At the Lyric.

"Down in New Hampshire," as offered by the Lyric stock company this week, is entitled to much praise. It is a comedy-drama in five acts, embracing many thrilling situations. The opening night started with a packed house.

Loop the Gap at Grand.

"Daredevil" Castellane loops the gap at the Grand this week. After a performance of comedy cycling, Castellane strips to tights and then makes his hair-raising ride. Among the others are such entertainers as Austin, king of the wire; Stoddard and Wilson, in a sketch called "The Rat Catcher"; Miss Ella Wilson and company, in "What Happened to Brown"; Barth and Beach, comedians; Mary Maddern, comedienne, and others.

WALLA WALLA TO CLEAN HOUSE NEXT THURSDAY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Walla Walla, Wash., April 10.—Next Thursday afternoon Walla Walla is to clean house. Mayor Hunt has issued a proclamation merging Arbor day with the "cleaning up day" inaugurated by the Fifty Thousand club and Thursday has been selected for the two events. A half holiday will be given all school children in order that they may assist and merchants will probably close their stores for a half day so that employes may take a hand in the cleaning up process. The city has been divided into wards and prominent business men and society women have been commissioned delegates to superintend the work.

PORTLAND WOMAN ON A SIXTY-MILE TRAMP

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Eugene, Or., April 10.—Miss Sue Dorris, a well-known photographer of this city, and Miss Smith, an osteopath of Portland, who is visiting here, left yesterday on foot for Foley Springs, 60 miles distant in the Cascade mountains, expecting to walk every mile of the way. They expect to make the trip in about three days, stopping at night at settlers' houses along the road. This is probably the first time that a woman has made this trip afoot.

LINN PRIMARY BALLOT CONTAINS MANY NAMES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Albany, Or., April 10.—County Clerk B. M. Payne has completed the primary nominating election ballot. It contains the names of 37 Republicans and 40 Democrats, making a total of 137 candidates anxious to serve the public in the state, district and county. With the declarations of the various candidates attached the ticket is the longest ever got out in the county.

Torn carpets are always ready to trip the light, fantastic toe.
