INDIAN CHIEFS PREPARE MEMORIAL TO MONARCH

(Journal Special Service.)

Kamloops, B. C., April 14.—Representative Indians of the Nanaimo, Comox, Ramloops, B. C., April 14.—Representative Indians of the Nanaimo, Comox, Beschelt, Sla-Am and other tribes of British Columbia are gathering here for a great potlatch or conference. A large number are already here and many more are expected within a day or two. After discussing various matters, such as the readjustment of reserves, the chiefs will prepare a memorial to King Edward, which will be presented by one of their number selected to make the trip to England. The Indians will ask for treaties similar to those made with the tribes in other parts of the dominion. They claim that year by year their freedom is being more restricted by the enforcement of game laws, fishing regulations, etc., and they want a treaty made confirming them in their rights.

Hints Are Going the Rounds That Berger and O'Brien Will Be Next.

BOXING PROMOTERS ARE SETTLING DIFFERENCES

Berger Has Not Made Many Friends Through His Demands to Receive Champion's Bit of the Purses-Commercial View of the Business

As an outcome of much stonewalling and the voting some of the members of the San Francisco fight trust are in a muttering mood. One of the rumors in circulation is that the deadlock at present existing will soon be broken—if not by mutual consent, then by other means—and that next month will see a resumption of Queensberry pastimes in this city, says W. W. Naughton.

The broadest of hints are thrown out that the May attraction will be a heavy-weight contest, of which the principals will be Sam Berger and Philadelphis Jack O'Brien.

The fact that Berger has gone to the country with Jimmy Britt to begin putting himself is condition for

The fact that Berger has gone to the country with Jimmy Britt to begin putting himself in condition for ring work is regarded as evidence that the O'Brien-Berger match is at least half made, and the further fact that Jack Cribben, O'Brien's local representative, is in frequent consultation with some of the promoters is also considered proof that quent consultation with some of the promoters is also considered proof that arrangements for the event in question are in promising shape.

"The most hopeful sign of all, probably, in connection with the O'Brien-Berger affair is that Berger hasn't hastened to deny any of the reports which made it appear that the contest is imminent. Neither have the matchmakers in the recent past abused Berger for a fellow given to shilly-shallying.

Berger, whether through his own fault or not, has been placed in a bad light. It has been said that while claiming to possess all the pure notions and innocence of a bona fide amateur he has in reality displayed the mercenary spirit of a battle-scarred professional with many years of mixed experiences behind him.

The majority of puglistic novices—

years of mixed experiences behind him.

The majority of pugilistic novices—
especially when they harbor the belief that they are destined to become world's champions—are all too eager to be given the chance to show their mettle.

Jeffries, for that matter—and he had graduated from the novice class at that time—allowed Fitzsimmons to take 75 per cent of the prize money rather than miss the chance of meeting the conueror of Jim Corbett at Coney Island.

Berger, according to the gossips of sportdom, is asking for that so much on the side which has come to be known as "the champion's hit" before he will consent to engage in his first professional fight. If such is really the case it serves to show what a purely commercial business boxing has become.

Sam defends himself naively. He says he has not made a specific demand, let alone an inordinate demand, from anyone.

alone an inordinate demand, from anyone.

"The matter in a nutshell is this," says Berger. "I am not aching to become a professional pugilist. I have been approached on the subject at various times, and I have said that unless it could be shown to me there was a prospect of making good money at it I would prefer to avoid the stigma which attaches to prisefighting and confine myself to some more peaceful pursuit."

Well, from the looks of things they have proven to Bam that there is "good money" in prizefighting. If there should be any further misunderstanding on the subject, though, Berger should come out flat footed and tell the public just what his intentions are.

If he has made up his mind to keep out of the game, let him say so unequivocally.

out of the game, let him say so unequivocally.

If he is anxious to fight and does not like the terms submitted, let us know just where the shoe pinches.

Whether he fight or keeps aloof from the ring it will not help him to be known as a fellow who delights in stringing the public.

Proof of the Pudding!

In the New York Herald's authentic table of the sales of Motor Vehicles of every make and motive power between January 1 and July 1, 1906, in ten Eastern states, the CADILLAC is shown to have sold 381 cars more than its nearest competitor -1,131 Cadillacs in all.

444 of These Were Sold in New York Alone—140 More Than the Nearest Competitor.

These ten states are the automobile sales barometer. The Cadillac is ahead in sales west as well as east. This remarkable showing is the result of just one thing-such absolute superior merit in the construction, operation and inexpensive maintenance of Cadillacs. There certainly is no car at or near the price of a CADILLAC the equal of a CADIL-
