At a meeting of the Portland Admen's league last evening at the Multinomah club a tender of the chamber of commerce as a meeting place was accepted and a resolution of thanks to the Multinomah club for its hospitality was adopted. The made-in-Oregon committee of the league will meet this evening in the chamber. Committees reported that upword of $4,000 had been subscribed for the made in Oregon exposition. Speeches were made by W. P. Olds, H. C. Whittier, S. H. Friedlander, Tom Richardson, E. L. Thompson, R. M. Hall, C. A. Foster and B. E. Van Voorheis.

At a hearing before Frank E. Vaughn, special commissioner in cases involving rights of way sought by rival railroad companies on the north bank of the Columbia river, efforts yesterday to compel E. M. Randa, right-of-way agent for the Columbia Valley road, to state the names of that line's financial backers again falled. The witness took the stand and said he did not know who the backers of the road were, nor whether they had money or assets. He said all he knew was that the financial support for carrying on his work came from President L. Gerlinger.

Fire destroyed a residence at the corner of East Twelfth and Failing streets early yesterday morning. Two dogs were burned to death and property valued at about $1,290 was destroyed. The house was occupied by two brothers named Wecks. They were away from home when the flames started in the rear of the house. Neighbors heard the yelping of the dogs, but were unable to rescue them. About $500 insurance was carried on the place. The home of J. H. Johnson at East Belmont and Forty-sixth street was slightly damaged by fire Sunday.

Other Reasons Why Charles A. Johns Will be Nominated for Governor.

He has been tried and found true. With Hons. H. W. Scott, Wm. Ladd and Wm. Colvig and President P. L. Campbell, and under the Daly law, he was appointed a member of the State School Board Text Commission.

It was this commission, acting under this law, that drove the American Book Company, and its then notorious management, out of business in the State of Oregon. The methods of that company under its then management are well known to the people of this state.

This commission, appointed by Governor Geer and afterward reappointed by Governor Chamberlain, was equal to the occasion and gave the people a square deal. Johns is a man of conviction and executive ability, would be a valuable member of the State Land Board and can always be relied upon to protect the interests of the people.

Office of Coroner.

Over the signature of Edward Holman, there appeared in the Oregonian of April 16 a series of statements false in con-ception and false in fact. Previous to ception and false in fact. Previous to my incumbency as Coroner, the office was at Holman's undertaking establish-ment. My predecessor was a doctor. It cost Multnomah County $4,056 per year to run the office. Under my administra-tion it cost $2.813 per year, a saving of $1,243 a year under my management. The Coroner has not collected one cent from the county for removing bodies to the morgue, the undertaker performing this necessary service has been paid. this necessary service has been paid.

The work of the Coroner's office has increased during my incumbency over 20 per cent, and the cost has been reduced over 30 per cent, a saving to the fax-payers of many thousands of dollars. When elected I promised economy, and the records of the county show whether I kept my word good. For years before my term of office Edward Holman controlled the Coroner's office and the resultant business. He does not control now, not can he while I am Coroner, hence his almost superhuman efforts to encompass my defeat. The votes accorded me in the past testify as to my honesty and competency.

HEILIG BENEFIT ADDS $1,000

Theatre Crowded Last Night and Many Tickets Are Sold Twice.

The firemen's fund will be enriched by from $500 to $1,000 by the benefit given last night at the Heilig theatre, when Creston Clark appeared for that purpose in Booth Tarkington's "Mon-sieur Beaucaire" at the solicitation of Calvin Heilig. The benefit performance was in every way a success. The house was filled and never was Cres-ton Clark seen to better advantage. Many floral pieces were presented.

The firemen's percentage for the perormance last night was $593.25. In ddition to this many tickets were sold addition to this many tickets were sold twice by the firemen and numbers of those purchasing tickets did not appear to claim a seat, in which event the entire price of the ticket goes to the fund. Some of the tickets will be presented today, however, for the performance tonight, and these will be honored by the theatre. Tickets amounting to $1.312.50 were sold by the firemen and police. There is also a percentage to go to the fund from the souvenir program, and this will bring the total amount of the benefit near the $1,000 mark.

the benefit near the $1,000 mark.

Chief Campbell was present at the performance and afterward expressed ager of the Creston Clark company. "I wish to convey on behalf of the fire department our sincere thanks to Mr. Heilig, Creston Clark and the mem-bers of his capable company in thus so splendidly assisting the relief fund for sick and incapacitated firemen and po-lice. We also wish to thank every one who assisted the cause by purchasing tickets and giving cash donations."

The thanks of the firemen and police were also conveyed to the Musicians' Mutual association for their kindness in allowing 50 musicians to appear on the allowing 50 musicians to appear on the streets at noon yesterday in parade.

COMMANDANT OF FORT YELLOWSTONE IS HERE

Major John Pitcher, commandant at Fort Yellowstone, in the Yellowstone National park, is in the city, accompanied by his wife, daughter and Miss Alice Stewart. They arrived from southern California last night, after having spent several weeks sightseeing in the California country. They are now on their way back to the fort to be there when the season for summer in the California country. They are now on their way back to the fort to be there when the season for summer travel opens.

"Everything is frozen up in the park now," said Major Pitcher, "and I usually get out for a trip around the country about this season. We have had a most pleasant visit in California, and while there I ran over and visited the Grand canyon of the Colorado so that I might compare it with the Grand canyon of the Yellowstone. The former is, of course, on a grander scale, but I do not believe it is as beautiful as our canyon in color effects."

Major Pitcher states that last season there were more than 25,000 persons in the park. This, he states, is more than twice the largest number ever seen there before in a season. "I believe there will be almost if not quite as large a crowd this season, both in the park and on the Pacific coast. Every indication in the east is that traffic toward the coast will be just as great as it was last year. The people want to see this country, and the rates that have been offered will bring them out."
