EARTHQUAKE STOPS DEMAND FOR POTATOES

Strawberry Supplies to Come Forward—Car Los Angeles Cabbage Due Tomorrow—Salmon Advances on Account of Scarcity.

Front Street, April 19.—The principal features of the Portland wholesale markets today are:

Egg market holding steady. No demand whatever for potatoes. Onions market is quite dead. Salmon prices advance today. Receipts are quite small, considering the size of the demand, and prices printed by the Journal are very readily paid by the retail trade.

JOURNAL'S DAILY TIPS ON MARKETS

By Bell & Co. The attention of the trade is largely diverted to the terrible calamity which befell San Francisco and California yesterday. Market prices here are about the same as for several days past. Berries are coming by express more freely, although receipts are light as yet; price about $3 per crate of 15 pounds, but will soon be cheaper.

You Cannot Buy Purer Whiskey

than HAYNER, no matter how much you pay or where you get it. We have been distilling whiskey for 39 years. We have one of the most modern and best equipped distilleries in the world. We know of nothing that would improve our product. Perfection in the distiller's art has been reached in HAYNER WHISKEY, which goes direct from our distillery to YOU, with all of its original purity, strength, richness and flavor. It doesn't pass through the hands of any dealer or middleman to adulterate. You thus save the dealers' big profits. You buy at the distiller's price, at first cost. Don't you see the economy in buying HAYNER WHISKEY, as well as the certainty of getting absolutely pure whiskey?

United States Senate, Washington, D. C. "I have used HAYNER WHISKEY for medicinal purposes in my family and have found it very satisfactory. I believe it to be a number-one medicinal whiskey." Thomas S. Martin, U. S. Senator from Virginia.

Office of Coroner.

Four years ago Mr. Finley stated through the newspapers that if elected coroner he would remove bodies to the morgue only when they were absolutely necessary, and no bill would be presented to the county. Let us see how faithfully he has kept his promise. According to the books and records of the county auditor there has been collected during the county up to the 1st of April, 1906, for hauling bodies to the morgue, $1,873.90. How is this? Which goes to show that he has not missed anything where it was coming his way.

Brandes, County Auditor.

With a record of efficient, honest and economical service as county auditor, Carl A. Brandes is practically assured as nominee for another term. He is supported staunchly by Republicans and those best acquainted with his past record in the rendition of his duties most strongly advocate and expect his re-nomination. His ability is unquestioned, his faithfulness-proved and these are essential qualifications.

Libak for Constable.
