

GOOD EVENING

THE WEATHER.

Fair and warmer tonight and Sunday; north to east winds.

Oregon Daily Journal

Journal Circulation Yesterday 26,180 Was 26,180

VOL. V. NO. 52.

PORTLAND, OREGON, SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 6, 1906.—SIXTEEN PAGES.

PRICE TWO CENTS. ON TRAINS AND NEWS STALLS, FIVE CENTS

NO STRIKE IN THE ANTHRACITE FIELDS; MINERS VOTE TO ACCEPT OLD SCALE

Miners' Convention Votes to Accept for the Three Ensuing Years Award Made by the Federal Commission Appointed by President Roosevelt Three Years Ago After a Speech by John Mitchell Urging Peaceable Action.

Workers Who Have Been Out Since April Second Will at Once Return to Work After Abandoning Claims for Eight Hour Day—Success Now Looked For.

(Journal Special Service.) Scranton, Pa., May 5.—The anthracite miners' convention this morning adopted a resolution accepting the award of the strike commission for another three years. This means that there will be no strike in the anthracite coal regions and that the men will return to work Monday.

firm and long enough, I should advise you to strike and remain out, but from information which we have I am fearful that our people are not inclined to strike. "It would be a strike which many of our people are not in sympathy with."

Through its immense stores of coal held for use in case of a walkout, the anthracite coal trust has escaped a strike. President John Mitchell's likeness appears in the upper corner.

BABY KANGAROO TO BE NAMED BY THE CHILDREN

In the City Park zoo a little baby kangaroo has arrived, and it is the cutest little thing that can be imagined. Very few persons have seen it but in a month it will be hopping around the cage. Mike, the father kangaroo, wants a name for the baby and he has asked the boys and girls of The Sunday Journal to suggest a name.

BRIDAL TOUR UP YUKON

Y. M. C. A. Secretary Will Wed Miss Sehlbrede of Coos Bay and Take Her Seven Thousand Miles in Launch.

A little trip along the crystal waters of the Yukon, little exploration voyages up the tiny tributaries of the frozen river of the north, delightful climbs to the snow-capped peaks of interior Alaska; all this to be done from a specially designed gasoline launch of goodly proportions and furnished with quarters of dainty comfort—would not this be a wedding tour fit to make the blood rush joyfully through the veins of any romantically inclined maiden?

NO USE TO CRY, SAID CHILD

Little Newsboy, After Patient Search of Two Weeks, Learns That Parents Lie in Unmarked Grave.

(Journal Special Service.) Oakland, May 5.—Willie Kohler, a newsboy 15 years old, has searched patiently for two weeks for news of his parents, whom he lost on the day of the earthquake disaster at 1525 California street, San Francisco. Willie, during his spare moments, has searched about the streets of San Francisco, walked through all the relief camps and questioned every passerby for whereabouts of his parents. He saw them last on the fatal morning when their home was shaken into ruins and the occupants all died in fear.

CEMENT KILN FIRE CAUSES FATHER KILLS HIS BABE

Application Is Made for a Receiver for the Traders' Insurance Company—Suffered From Disaster.

(Journal Special Service.) Chicago, May 5.—Application for a receiver for the Traders' insurance company was filed in the circuit court today. The company suffered heavily in the San Francisco disaster. It is estimated the total loss is $3,000,000. The company had risks of $150,000,000 and assets of $500,000.

INDICTMENT HAS SEVERAL MEN FOR FRAUD IN LANDS

Most Important Yet Returned by Grand Jury—Names Withheld for Present Jury and Members Are Dismissed. Improvements for Jury Room.

One more formidable indictment for land frauds in Oregon, the most important of all that have been returned by the federal grand jury, was presented at 2 o'clock this afternoon and the jurors were thereupon discharged. The names of the indicted persons were not disclosed, but it is known that among them are many prominent residents of Oregon and California. Among the Oregonians are several citizens of Portland.

ment papers in the offices of the attorney for the United States and find that there is at present absolutely no protection whatever for such documentary evidence and papers, and we respectfully recommend the construction of a proper fireproof vault. "We have further investigated and inquired into the matter of ventilation of the third floor of the federal courthouse building, and we respectfully recommend that means be provided for the proper ventilation of the grand jury room of this court and for the hall leading therefrom and for the offices of the United States attorney in said building."

HEAVY SHAKE SINCE THE DISASTROUS ONE OF THE EIGHTEENTH

Many Walls Are Tumbled In.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, May 5.—The most severe earthquake shock felt here since the main shock on April 18 occurred this morning at 10:30 o'clock, causing considerable damage. The interior walls of the Hall of Justice tumbled and the wall of the Mutual Life building fell. Workmen in many places were endangered by the falling bricks, but no casualties are reported. Minor shocks are so frequent that they attract no more than a passing interest.

TAGGED SAME AS BAGGAGE

Youthful Girl Refugees Traveling From San Francisco to Olympia Without Adult Protection.

Tagged like so much freight, two little girls wearing long blue coats will arrive in Portland from San Francisco Monday morning. They have been consigned to Mrs. L. M. Leighton of Olympia, Washington, and Chief of Police Gritzmacher has been requested to have a policeman meet them when they arrive here, have their trunks checked and see that they are placed safely aboard the steamer for their destination.

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Three.)

(Continued on Page Three.)

(Continued on Page Three.)

(Continued on Page Three.)

(Continued on Page Three.)