

SHOTGUN AFFAIR SOLIDIFIED TO OBSTACLE

East Side Residents Startled by Fusillade of Shots About Midnight. WOMAN'S SCREAM CLEARLY HEARD GRAVE-DIGGERS MAKE CAPTURE IN CEMETERY

Mystery surrounds a shooting affair which occurred last night in the vicinity of East Burnside and East Thirtieth streets. Seven distinct pistol shots were heard.

Numerous Reports of Affair Made to Police, but Officers Fail to Solve the Mystery—Investigation Will Be Made Immediately.

Mystery surrounds a shooting affair which occurred last night in the vicinity of East Burnside and East Thirtieth streets. Seven distinct pistol shots were heard.

MISMATCHED COUPLES FREED BY COURT

Emma A. Albers was legally separated yesterday from George W. Albers, who she testified had tried to get her sent to the insane asylum about two weeks ago.

BENEFIT PERFORMANCE BY THE TELEGRAPHERS

A benefit performance will be given at the Helix theatre under the auspices of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America.

ROCKEFELLER'S REPUTED FATHER PASSES AWAY

Freeport, Ill., May 12.—Dr. William Livingston, aged 86, died last night. His portrait was published in McClure's magazine as John D. Rockefeller's father.

WHITE PAPER TRUST GOES OUT OF BUSINESS

Chicago, May 12.—The General Paper company has advised its paper mills that it has withdrawn as a selling agent. The trade will be supplied direct. Contracts will be filled by individual mills.

Kelso's New Superintendent

Kelso, Wash., May 12.—At the recent meeting of the school board Professor R. W. Smith of Grand Rapids, Minnesota, was elected superintendent of the city schools.

PASTOR'S NOT DISBURSED

Local Presbyterians Not Worried Over Statements of Dr. Carter. DISMISS MATTER WITH FEW WORDS

The pastors of the Presbyterian churches in Portland are in no wise disturbed or disconcerted over the agitation in the east regarding the public declarations of Dr. Samuel T. Carter on the truth of the Westminster confession of faith.

Outbreak of Noted Easterner Against Westminster Confession of Faith Calls Forth Only Pity and Not Angry Condemnation.

Occasionally, a man gets such ideas in his head and goes off on a tangent. In his head Mr. Pratt, pastor of the Presbyterian church, said: "I do not believe there is a tendency either here or elsewhere to discard or amend the Westminster confession of faith."

NEIGHBORHOOD TOO STRENUOUS FOR HIM

Al Steffens announced to Municipal Court Clerk Frank Hennessey this morning that he was determined to dispose of his property at Shaver and Commercial streets for almost anything he could get.

WOULD STOP WORK ON NEW BUILDING

Before Judge Cleland today was argued the injunction against Mr. Matilda M. Gearin to stop the work of excavating the site for the new building to be erected by the defendant on the southeast corner of Third and Commercial streets.

TUG TOWS HELPLESS STEAMER INTO PORT

San Francisco, May 12.—Adrift off Point Reyes in a stormy sea with a broken piston and other serious troubles, the tug steamer, which was towing the tug Dautless and towed to port.

REVOLUTION BREWING IN BLACK REPUBLIC

Washington, D. C., May 12.—Advice indicates that a revolution of great magnitude is brewing in Santo Domingo. The Jimenes party is preparing to seize the government.

BLOOD MONEY HAS NOT BEEN PAID

Judge Ryan States That Intention is to Give All Present at Killing a Slice. ALL CLAIMS ARE NOW BEING INVESTIGATED

Those whose names were left out of original list are being added as fast as proof is received that they are entitled to a share.

The names of those who were left out of the original list are being added as fast as proof is received that they are entitled to a share.

The names of those who were left out of the original list are being added as fast as proof is received that they are entitled to a share.

BRIBERY EVIDENCE IS OFFERED AGAINST TRUST

Chicago, May 12.—Evidence charges state and county officials in all parts of the country was tendered to the interstate commission by Monnet in the Standard Oil hearing.

CASTLE ROCK DEBATERS VICTORIOUS AT KALAMA

Castle Rock, Wash., May 12.—The second debate between the Castle Rock and Kalama high schools was held at Kalama last night and resulted in another victory for Castle Rock.

IRON WORKS MAN IS IN PORTLAND

G. R. Fields, contracting engineer for the Riedon Iron Works of San Francisco, arrived at the Portland this morning. He is here on business for his firm.

FORMER EXILE ELECTED DOUMA'S VICE-PREIDENT

Douma, May 12.—Prince Peter Dolgoroukoff and Professor Gardoukoff were elected vice-presidents by the douma today.

EAGLES TO ESTABLISH TENTS FOR MEMBERS

San Francisco, May 12.—The executive committee of the local series of Eagles met this morning and arranged for the establishing of tents for members of the order.

Lady Warwick's example of training girls who have to work for a living in the trade of gardening has been followed by Lord Wolsley's only daughter and heiress to the viscounty.

BRUIN DENIES HE TO TAKE WEALTH FROM SANDS

Captain of Detectives Declares He Did Not Masquerade to Catch McGinnis. CASE MAY CLOSE THIS AFTERNOON

Mrs. Dornisfe Creates Interest by Alleging She Was Threatened With Death If She Gave Testimony During the Trial.

Declaring that her life had been threatened, that people had said they would cut her heart out if she testified in the case, Mrs. Hattie Dornisfe was an unwilling witness yesterday.

Captain Steyer was the first witness to testify this morning. He said that when McGinnis was arrested the patrolman said: "I know I have violated police rules, but I have done nothing criminal."

JURY FINDS MILLER NOT GUILTY OF MURDER

Special Dispatch to The Journal. Prineville, Or., May 12.—After being out 108 hours, the jury in the case of George Miller returned a verdict of not guilty.

PARADE AND TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION

Elaborate Preparations Being Made for Governor's Reception at Baker City. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

DOG POISONER AROUSES EAST SIDE RESIDENTS

Another malicious dog poisoner has made his appearance in the vicinity of East Eighth and Belmont and last night succeeded in killing Prince, a valuable cocker spaniel belonging to J. D. Wolff.

JEFFRIES MAY ENTER THE BASEBALL ARENA

Los Angeles, May 12.—The announcement is made that if Manager Morley of the Los Angeles Baseball club decides to accept the offer, Jeffries will take the management if he can get the franchise at a reasonable price.

ENFORCE MIDNIGHT CLOSING ORDINANCE

Woodburn, Or., May 12.—Two saloonkeepers of Woodburn have been fined $25 each for having their places open after 1 o'clock a. m. It is Mayor Pomeroy's intention to enforce the ordinance relative to saloons, especially as to Sunday traffic.

JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE RAPIDLY NEARING END

Chicago, May 12.—John Alexander Dowie is said to be nearing death. His strength is falling rapidly and dropsy is said to have extended to the region about the heart.

Imbler to Have Park. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) The Grande, Or., May 12.—Imbler, the enterprising little town situated about 16 miles from this city, is to have a park.