

ASK CANONIZATION OF COLUMBUS

Four Hundredth Anniversary of Discoverer's Death Is Observed in Europe.

REVIVAL OF MOVEMENT TO MAKE MEMORY HOLY

Bishop of Turin and Other Ecclesiastics Would Have Explorer Placed in Catalogue of Saints as Instrument of Providence.

(Journal Special Service.) Rome, May 19.—Tomorrow will be the 400th anniversary of the death of Christopher Columbus. It was on May 20, 1492, that the discoverer of the new world breathed his last in the town of Valladolid, Spain, after partaking of the holy sacrament and uttering these words: "Into thy hands, O Lord, I commit my spirit."

With the approach of this anniversary has come a revival of the movement to place the name of Columbus in the catalogue of saints, or, in other words, to canonize him. This movement began in earnest in 1892, the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America, at which time great pressure was brought to bear on the college of cardinals to induce them to take action in the matter. A petition signed by several millions of people in nearly every civilized country, and including many of the highest dignitaries of the church, was presented to the sacred college.

Now the movement has been revived by the archbishop of Turin and other Italian ecclesiastics, who have asked for the reconsideration of the case. There are good prospects that the movement will meet with success in the course of time. The strongest argument in favor of the admission of Columbus to the calendar of saints is that he was an instrument of providence in opening the western hemisphere to civilization.

WITHCOMBE FAILS TO EVOKE ENTHUSIASM

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Baker City, Or., May 19.—The Republican campaign opened last night with a procession and grand rally at the Elks' auditorium. The crowd was too large for the small hall and an open air meeting was held by Dunwoody on the outside. The parade was not up to the standard established by the Democrats at the reception of the governor Chamberlain and there was an absence of the spontaneous enthusiasm evinced upon that event. Withcombe, Calk and Dunwoody were the speakers of the evening and introduced by Mayor Johns. Withcombe and Dunwoody went to Ontario, where a rally will be held tonight. Calk and Geer go to Sumpter, where they address the Republicans this evening.

CENTRALIA IS SCENE OF FREIGHT WRECK

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Centralia, Wash., May 19.—A small wreck occurred in the east end of Centralia yesterday noon. A freight train, No. 258 west, Conductor Nee, Engineer Cavanaugh, ran into a switch engine, demolishing one car loaded with lumber and knocking off the pilot and damaging the frame of engine 123. Brakeman Conrad was slightly injured.

KLAMATH DOCTOR DEAD OF HEART DISEASE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Klamath Falls, Or., May 19.—Dr. H. H. Hargis, the physician of longest residence here, while returning from a drive with his family last evening, stepped into Chitwood's drug store, was seized with palpitation of the heart and died at midnight.

Candidates for the United States senate in Kentucky have asked the Democratic state executive committee to order a direct primary for the purpose of expressing a preference as between applicants.

Women Who Know From Experience

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will cure ailments of the stomach and assist nature in the proper performance of its functions. It is a safe and reliable remedy for all ailments of the stomach and bowels.

ROYAL Baking Powder

A Grape Cream of Tartar Powder Absolutely Pure

Royal makes the most delicious and healthful hot-breads, biscuit and cake.

For safety sake, use only a baking powder whose label shows it is made with cream of tartar.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Alum baking powders are considered so injurious to health, and their promiscuous sale a source of such danger, that their use is universally condemned by physicians and health officers. In many States the law requires that they shall be branded to warn consumers that they contain alum.

In the District of Columbia, under the laws of Congress, the use of alum in bread, biscuit, cake and other food is a misdemeanor.

Alum baking powders may be known by their price. Powders sold from ten to twenty-five cents a pound, or twenty-five ounces for twenty-five cents, are not made of cream of tartar.

GRAND LODGE TO MEET TUESDAY

Odd Fellows of State Will Gather in Portland for Annual Session.

GRAND ENCAMPMENT WILL ALSO CONVENE

Rebekahs Will Hold Annual Session at Same Time—Officers of Three Departments to Be Elected During the Meeting.

The grand lodge of Odd Fellows, the grand encampment of the same order and the grand assembly of Rebekahs will meet in annual session in this city next week. The grand lodge will convene Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in the Artisans' hall in the Abington building. The Rebekahs will meet at 9 o'clock the same morning in the "Odd Fellows" temple at First and Alder streets and the grand lodge will be called to order at 2 o'clock a. m. Wednesday in the K. of P. hall at Eleventh and Alder streets. The encampment will only be in session one day. The grand lodge will hold meetings for two days and the Rebekahs will continue their meeting for three days. Each of the three divisions of the order will also elect officers at these meetings.

The retiring officers, who will preside at these meetings are: Grand lodge—Grand master, W. H. Hobson, Stayton; D. G. M., W. A. Carter, Gold Hill; grand warden, Richard Scott, Milwaukie; grand secretary, E. E. Shanon, Portland; treasurer, C. P. Doane, The Dalles; representatives, Joseph Miceli and J. A. Mills; marshal, P. A. Hanz, Baker City; conductor, George H. Riches, Silverton; guardian, George W. Welch, Clatskanie; herald, C. W. Moore, Grass Valley; chaplain, A. LeRoy, Portland.

Grand encampment—Patriarch, Claud Gatch, Salem; high priest, W. I. Vawter, Medford; senior warden, H. M. Beckwith, Portland; scribe, E. E. Shanon, Portland; treasurer, W. W. Francis, Albany; junior warden, E. J. Seeley, Albany; representatives, Thomas F. Ryan, Oregon City, and W. J. Greene, Eugene; marshals, M. Hazard, Coquille; sentinel, R. Robertson, Roseburg; outer grand sentinel, W. O. Gregg, Canyon City.

$169,555.59. The total amount paid out for relief was $35,114.

SIX OF ONE FAMILY DOWN WITH MEASLES

Six children down with measles in one house at the same time. That's the state of affairs at 605 Hood street. The six Monroe children all have the measles. The youngest is Evelyn, aged 17 months; then there is Thomas, aged 3; Norman, aged 5; Irene, aged 8; Lucy, aged 10, and James, aged 11 years. A report of the six cases was made to the health office this morning.

SAYS DEBATE WAS REALLY WON BY SUFFRAGISTS

Dr. Wilson Victorious Because Audience Was Prejudiced, Says Mrs. Coe.

Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe, one of the active leaders in the cause of woman suffrage, contends that the debate between Dr. Broucher and Dr. Wilson last night on the suffrage question was a victory for the suffragists despite the fact that by a majority of three the audience voted that there are enough voters without the women. She intimates that the audience was prejudiced because it was composed mostly of members of Dr. Wilson's congregation and he had the opposition side of the question. In discussing the debate she said: "Dr. Clarence True Wilson is looked upon by us as the most active opponent among the men of woman suffrage. He has been carrying on an active campaign against us for many months. It has been difficult to get some women and men out to hear anything upon the subject, and we urged anti-suffragists to go out and hear their own side of the question, feeling that Dr. Broucher would have the best of the argument. "This debate occurred in the church of Dr. Wilson and an admission fee was charged therefor, and the people there were largely his own people. I saw there only two or three suffragists who are known to me to be active workers for the cause. Notwithstanding, in a vote of 349, the opposition had but a majority of three against us. This presages better for us than we had hoped for, although we have expected and do expect to carry the measure in the state by at least 20,000 majority."

WIRES MUST GO UNDER WALKS

Councilman Annand Preparing Ordinance to Make This Compulsory.

WILL PREVENT ALL DISORDER IN STREETS

Believed to Be Solution of Electric Wire Problem—Open Space Beneath Sidewalks Would Be Utilized for the Purpose.

All telephone and telegraph wires not already under ground, gas mains and electric light lines are to go into a huge conduit under the sidewalks of the city by the provisions of an ordinance now being prepared and which will be introduced to the council by Councilman Annand within a short time.

While the proposal of placing all electric wires about the city under the streets has been discussed, and some conduits are already in use, the under-sidewalk proposition is new. According to the framers of the ordinance it is not the plan to construct a tube, but to provide for an open space five or six feet from the curb of the street, this space to be taken in most instances from the basements of buildings whose owners encroach upon the property occupied by the sidewalk, and which is in reality owned by the city and not by the property owners.

"It will be a great saving to the owners of the wires and also to the city," said Mr. Annand today. "Look at Stark street—no sooner had the city got through tearing up the street than the Home Telephone company began to lay a conduit, and I suppose it will be the same way with Washington street, as soon as the sewer there is laid. The consequence is that the streets down town are being torn up all the time."

SIGNS OF ERUPTION OF A SUBMARINE VOLCANO

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) San Francisco, May 19.—For nearly 200 miles large pieces of pumice stone were passed by the bark St. Katherine, which arrived Friday from the Hawaiian Islands. They were seen on Washington street and the Home Telephone company is cutting up a number of streets for the same purpose, as required in its franchise ordinance.

RATE BILL PASSED BY SENATE

Strong Criticism Made of Measure by Democrats Because of Allison Amendment.

ONLY THREE VOTES ON RECORD AGAINST BILL

Tillman Pays Tribute to Roosevelt—La Follette and Others Vote for the Measure on the Ground That It Is an Advance.

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, May 19.—The senate passed the rate bill at 5 o'clock last evening by a vote of 71 to 3, the negative votes being cast by Foraker, Republican, and Morgan and Pettus, Democrats of Alabama. No manifestations attended the announcement of the result. The debate on the measure has lasted 70 days, except during the last 10 days the debate has been devoid of personality.

Just before the balloting was reached yesterday Senator Rayner of Maryland caustically arraigned the president for his changes of mind during the controversy. In his speech Rayner said:

Rayner's Boast. "There is no telling but what in a few days some new Chancellor of fortune may get possession of the president and get him back to the original terminus. The president's course on court review has resembled a kaleidoscope. This is a great cause for natural disturbances. The president seems jealous of earthquakes and volcanoes. He goes tearing through space oblivious of where he came from and with no conception of where he is going. The president may have a united party in the senate, but he has divided the people."

Rayner declared that Allison's court review amendment had destroyed the bill and he deplored the president's interference. "I deplore the fact," said Rayner, "of the president's interference. I regret it with all my heart, and I am sorry for it. He has debilitated and mutilated the measure, while, if he had only persisted in his purpose a few days longer, a united senate, in response to the voice of a united people, would have put upon the statute books a law that gratified their expectations and responded to the exigencies of the hour."

Dolliver's Defense. Dolliver took the floor in defense of the president and predicted that the measure would meet with popular approval. Dolliver stated that whatever might be said the president came out in the fight with every proposition he has advanced written in plain terms in the statute books of the United States. He contended that the bill is a perfect response to the president's recommendation.

"Whatever may be said of the president," he concluded, "he will be remembered as the fearless leader who, without regard to personal comfort or regard for consequences, has taken up these great questions and secured their enactment into law."

La Follette's Support. Tillman stated that in his opinion the amended bill was much better than when the measure came to the senate. Foraker stated that he did not vote for the measure because he thought it unconstitutional. Bailey announced his conviction that the bill was a vast improvement over the existing law, while not perfect, could be amended. Newlands stated the measure was incomplete and fragmentary, but an advance on the present law.

La Follette concurred with Dolliver, stating that the bill was not a compliance with the president's recommendations and asserting that it did not contain provisions that would enable the interstate commerce commission to ascertain what are either just or reasonable rates. He deprecated the idea of trying to make the rate bill a party question, stating that you could not divide the people on the question whether the railroads shall serve the people equitably and justly. He stated that his own amendments were voted down by his Republican colleagues under the leadership of the New England senators. He argued against over-capitalization and said that so long as it was permitted the question would remain a live issue.

Tillman's Tribute. Tillman announced his intention of voting for the bill as the best he could do under the present condition and concluded with the following tribute to the president:

"But for the work of Theodore Roosevelt in bringing this matter to the attention of the country, we would not have this bill laid out. It is true that the demand was not his, and that the demand for the legislation was made in three Democratic platforms; nevertheless, he acted upon the idea, and the success of the issue is largely due to his advocacy. I can't congratulate him upon his victory, for I think we should have had a better bill."

FINED FOR SWEARING AT PATROL DRIVER

R. A. Stienegger, a motorman on a Broadway car, was fined $10 in the municipal court this morning for abusive language used to Patrol Driver I. E. Isaacs Thursday night, at Third and Yamhill streets. Isaacs was answering a hurry call with the wagon, accompanied by Jailer H. C. Parker. As the car passed Third and Third streets, Isaacs Stienegger swung his car around the curve regardless of the clanging of the patrol wagon gong. The horses of the wagon were crowded to the sidewalk but for the presence of a man on the part of their driver a serious accident might have resulted. Parker spoke to the motorman, who resented the interference, and when Isaacs came to the side of the car profane language was used toward him by Stienegger. Patrolman W. E. Robson arrested the motorman on a warrant issued yesterday by order of Chief of Police Griggsmaier.

Portland Academy Wins. Portland academy beat Allen's Preparatory school this morning by a score of 14 to 3. The batteries were: Allen, Boss and Parish; Portland academy, McPherson and Corbett.

