

The latter, however, brings smiles of delight to at least three persons in every instance, and the third is the so-cial chronicler. This year is no exception; the number of engagements announced the past week or two has reached startling proportions and many of these concern people very prominent in social life. June promises to have many brides this year, and May is con-

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Steel. equently a month of many showers sioned considerable entertaining, among the prettiest affairs being Mrs. Bur-rell's dance, Mrs. Ladd's luncheon and Miss Dolph's luncheon. The Luchesi benefit Wednesday night was attended by a fashionable crowd and was quite with rows of Japanese lanterns fes-tooned on the stone terraces. Rugs and white carnations in the library and red

dornments to give room for dencing

The Tuesday Afternoon club gave an evening for the men last Tuesday night, which was a departure from the customary entertainment, and was voted a a dressy affair.

marked | very pleasing and artistic. Streamers in the remainder of the evening was spent, trailing vines and branches of climbing roses were used effectively for decoration. Cards and other games, conversation and an informal musical program helped to pass the time pleasantly until a late hour. Among the musical numbers were Mrs. G. C. Esheiman's plano numbers and songs by Mrs. A. Crofton and Mrs. E. E. Miller.

The following is a list of those present: Mrs. Warren S. White, Mrs. F. M. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Balley, Mr. and Mrs. George Boynton, Mr. and Mrs. E. Chipman, Mr. and Mrs. George Dunham, Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Esheiman, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. J.

Mrs. Robert Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stiles, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller, Mrs. A. Crofton, Mrs. G. M. Gilnes, Mrs. Otto Hirsch, Mrs. Florence E. Stallings, Mrs. Charles Crogster, Mrs. O. P. M. Jamison, Mrs. H. J. Jackson, Mrs. Robert Lutke, Mrs. F. A. Schornes Home. Jamison Schoppe, Homer Jamison, Harold Pugh, Scott Jackson, Master Charles Stallings, Master Lloyd Glines.

dent of the Portia club, who gave a beautiful and elaborate evening reception Friday to the members of the club and their husbands. The hall was a mass of Scotch broom and palms, the reception rooms in green and red with palms, popples and smilax, and the dining-room had a deep red glow from in-candescents and American Beauty

Interest centered very largely last week in the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burrell in honor of their guest, Miss Katharine Brown of San Mrs. I. B. Hosford sang "Just a-Wearyln" for You" (Carrie Jacobs Bond), and Mrs. G. B. Cellars "After-

Francisco Thursday evening. The Burrell home at Hawthorne Park with its beautiful terraces is perhaps the handsomest home on the east side and one of the most beautiful of Portland. It was especially attractive that night was especially attractive that night rows of Japanese lanterns festers, prize was a beautiful bonbon dish with rows of Japanese lanterns festored a consolation prize. Mrs. Cellawn chairs were placed on the stone and about the large, sloping lawn. Indoors, everything was light and color.
Red and white was the general color scheme throughout the rooms. In the reception rooms there were rhodendrons

Hood River strawberries on the loc cream.

This initial evening reception was one of the most charming affairs the club and white peoples in the dining-room. has had this season.

Everywhere were hanging haskets of white snowballs on the walls, since most of the decorations had to be wall Miss Brown, her honor guest, her cousins, the Misses Effle and Claire mother, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, and sister, Miss Montgomery, and her guest, Miss Bull. Mrs. Burrell were a very Houghton, who have spent the past week with her. Her guests numbered 26 and they were seated at four tables, making a lovely picture of varying color. Mrs. Ladd herself presided at the large table where there were eight young married people. Mrs. Couch handsome white brocade gown with gar-nitures of hand-made lace and maline trimmings. Miss Montgomery was also in white brocade trimmed with Venetian lace. Miss Brown wore pink lib-erty silk, Miss Montgomery white chif-fon velvet with silver spangles, and Flanders sat at her right. Her table was in lavender with rich clusters of Miss Bull pale blue chiffon trimmed Effic Houghton's table was in pink with lace. Dancing continued till 11 pale carnations and scated at her right o'clock, when small tables were brought was Miss Katharine Brown of San wistoria for the centerpiece. was Miss Katharine Brown of San Francisco Miss Claire's table was yelin and supper served. After supper Francisco Miss Claire's table was yel-dancing was begun again. There were low and Spanish iris were the flowers. five tables of bridge in the library for those who did not dance. Parsons' or-chestra played. The guests numbered Miss May Failing presided at the re-maining table, which was green and Miss Brown will probably remain with Mrs. Burrell till the end of the month. She has been informally entertained by a number of friends including Miss Dolph, who gave a charming luncheon for her tions, white with white peonies. Miss Bull was the guest at her right. The avors were dainty Japanese fans tied with tulic, the color of the lable decorayesterday, Miss Grace Warren plans to entertain for her at cards next Wed-

Mrs. Alexander Kerr and Mrs. Samuel Kerr entertained with five hundred Fri-day afternoon at the former's home. There were 10 tables and Miss Frankle Richet, whose marriage to Dr. Frank Walker will take place June s, was the walker will take place June 5, was the tomary entertainment, and was voted a decided success in every particular. The feast was spread at the home of one of the members and the reception and entertainment given at the home of another.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Glines, 942 East Everett street, the spacious parlors had been transformed into a banquet hall, and here early in the evening 44 members and their guests assembled. The table was arranged in the form of a T, the appointmenta being the form of a T, the appo honor guest. Mrs. H. Maguire won the first prize, a hand-painted plate; Miss Morris secured the ring. Miss Eula Bennett added to the enjoyment of the afternoon with several delightful songs.

A delightful informal affair was the A delightful informal affair was the reception at the home of Miss Henryette Lauer, on Everett street for the members of the newly organized Portland Association of University of Oregon alumnae. The living-room and library presented a pretty scene with Oregon pennants and flags of jardinieres of Oregon grape, the college flower. College pictures and trophies were on the tables. Miss Lauer wore a pretty gown of eyelet embroldered linen over pale blue. Dr. Katherine linen over pale blue. Dr. Katherine Manion, in handsome white and blue satin foulard with ecru lace trimmings. and Miss Alice Benson in pink flowered white silk assisted in receiving. An white silk assisted in receiving. An informal musical program was much enjoyed. Mrs. J. R. Krausse, a member of the association, gave several piano numbers and Miss Mary Gray, another member, sang. Miss Edwina Mastick and Miss Mildred Meyer also sang, with Miss Amy May accompanying. Refreshments were served late in the evening. It is understood that the association is prenaring for a large affair to be given the first part of June.

fair to be given the first part of June that the Portland Tuesday afternoon to the volunteer teachers of sewing at the Neighborhood house in South Portland. There were 16 in the party and the table was beautiful with pink roses and fern and smilax. An elaborate menu was served and a pleasant afternoon enjoyed. Mrs. Selling has charge of the sewing department at the Guild house, which is conducted by the Council of Jewish women, and excellent work is done in her department and with a number of helpers to instruct the children who come every Monday afternoon to learn to ply the needle. The teachers making up the party were, besides the hostess: Mrs. Henry Taubonhelmer, Mrs. Alexander Bernstein, Mrs. Felix Friedlander, Mrs. Eda Hirsch, Mrs. Lillie Fuller, Miss Cella Friendly, Miss Carrie Harris, Miss Cella Friendly, Miss Carrie Harris, Miss Celia Friendly, Miss Carrie Harris, Miss Clementine Hirsch, Miss Hilda Hexter, Miss Florence Taubenheimer, Miss Frances Jacobs, Miss Cora Marx, Miss Emily Hirstel, Miss Florence Kohn and Miss Sylvia Salomon

The Victoria day celebration, May 24. at the armory, given by the five British societies of Portland, will be one of note. The splendid program will be followed by refreshments served by the wives of members of the society. R. W. Black-wood, president of the British Benevo-lent society, will preside, and British Consul James Laidiaw, will make a short Consul James Laidlaw, will make a short address. There will be some of the national dances by children, and the musical program will be given by Mrs. Walter Reed. Mrs. Anne Beatrice Sheldon. Miss Kathleen Lawler and W. T. Crowther, all of whom will sing old Scotch, English and Irish airs. The societies participating are the British-Benevolent society, R. W. Blackwood, president; St. Andrew's society. A. H. Birrell, president; Clan Macleay, John Paterson, president; Caledoinians, A. T. Smith, president Caledoinians, A. T. terson, president; Caledoinians, A. T. Smith, president; Canadian society, Dr. K. A. J. Mackenzle, president. The general committee consists of K. K. Baxter, Frank F. Seely, D. G. Duncan and A. T.

No formal opening of the Concordia club took place because of the recent disaster at San Francisco, but last Thursday evening there was a delight-ful informal evening for the women connected with the club. Thursday has been appointed ladies' day at the club and this was the first time. A very large number was present and there was dancing and eard playing. The guests were shown first into the beautiful red reception room with its dark furnishings and went from there to the ones of the club rooms upstairs and re-freshments were served in the cafe. Mr. and Mrs. M. Fleischner and Mr. and Mrs. Julius L. Meler received. There were palms and flowers in decoration.

The young people are looking forward with pleasure to the dance to be given by the Alpha club of Trinity church next Saturday evening at the Oregon Yacht club. Preparations are being made by make this a delightful spring party and stready they have begun petitioning for good weather. The Oaks management has agreed to light up the entire grounds for that evening in honor of the club's entertainment, though the resort will not be open to the public till sev-eral days later. Parsons orchestra is to furnish the music. The patronesses will be Mrs. George F, Russell, Mrs. J. Couch Flanders, Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. J. W. Cook. Mrs. Robert Lewis and Mrs. F. D. Chamberlain, who is the leader of the club.

One of the most prominent June weddings will be that of Miss Etta Honeyman and David Chambers Lewis, which is set for Wednesday, June 20. marriage will take place in the evening at the First Presbyterian church and will be quite a large affair. Miss Honeyman is one of the cleverest and most popular girls of the young set and has received many attentions in the way of entertaining since the announcement of her engagement at Miss Fanny Brown's card party some time since. She is the daughter of Mrs. William Honeyman of Kings Heights. Mr. Lewis is one of the C. H. Lewis fam-

There is much interest shown in the approaching marriage of Miss Georgia McBride Giltner to Pink Charles Patknown to exist for some time but the announcement has just been publicly made and the date of the marriage set for June 7. Miss Giltner is a niece of ex-Senator George McBride.

* * The luncheon given by Miss Hazel Dolph yesterday was pretty and delightful. Covers were laid for 12 and her honor guests were Miss Katharine Brown, the guest of Mrs. Walter Bur-

The Spitzner Philharmonic The Spitzner Philharmonic society will give its last recital of this season Friday, May 25, at the Heilig theatra. Orchestra of 80 pieces, Spitzner-Konrad string quartet, trios and violin solos. "Rienzi," "La Boheme," "Sel. Folkeinae-ger" march and compositions by Weber, The Haydn, Vieuxtemps, Chaminade, will be rendered.

Oregon Made Special!

IMPORTED and NEW YORK

Pattern Hats At Half Price

Monday and Tuesday Only.

Millinery Workroom

Which is under the supervision of an experienced and competent high class designer, who will give all the information and assistance desired.

Infants' Wear

We make a specialty of Babies' Wear, and have the most complete assortment to fulfill their needs in the city. Dresses of all kinds, hoods, stockings, bootees, caps, coats and sweaters. Everything any baby

Children's

Our department for Children is most complete; everything any little girl needs; everything of the best and everything at the lowest prices.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

Graduating Dresses

We have the most beautiful line of new White Dresses for graduating wear in the city, which not necessarily means high prices, as all our dresses are priced within the easy reach of all.

The Woman's Store Leading Furriers dies Outfittors

4th and Morrison

Mammoth Suit Sale CONTINUES

The great sale of high class tailor-made Suits that crowded our store all last week will continue Monday. This is an event that no one should miss, as there are many smart styles to select from made of the finest materials by expert tailors

Suits Up to $32.50 at $22.75 Stunning Suits made of fine broadcloth,

French flannels, imported mixtures, Panamas and voiles, in all the smart new designs; values up to $32.50..... Suits Up to $22.75 at $16.75

Stylish Suits made of fine materials, in fancy mixtures, broadcloth, Panamas, etc., in all colors, in either Eton, plain tailor-made or Pony Jacket styles; values $16.75 up to $22.75......$

NOW is the TIME TO STORE

In our cold storage vaults they keep fresh, retain color and life; constant attention keeps them free from moths. Remodeling and repairing of furs at greatly reduced prices. Any fur garment remodeled during summer.

Stored Free of Charge

"MADE IN OREGON"

nations were the table decoration and the place cards presented a clever idea. Her guests beside Miss Brown and Miss Houghton were Miss Montgomery and her guest, Miss Bull, Miss Nan Wood, Miss Susie Stott, Miss Rhoda Failing, Miss Grace Warren, Miss Etta Honeyman, Miss Vida Nichols and Miss Genevieve Thompson vieve Thompson.

Miss Gage, state secretary of the Y. W. C. A., whose home is in Portland, was delightfully entertained while in Eugene. Thursday afternoon a week ago Mrs. W. W. Calkins gave a reception for her and in the evening Professor and Mrs. F. G. Young received the college girls to meet her.

Mrs. C. S. Jackson returned last week Mrs. C. S. Jackson returned task week from southern California, where she was making a short visit with her mother, Mrs. M. B. Clopton, who spent the winter there. Miss Ida Boyd, Mrs.
Clopton's sister, returned with them
and went on to her home in Pendleton.

A pretty feature of the intended was
Webber, Miss Garretson, Miss L. Ponne
ga, Allen McDonell,
Jack McDonell,
Gotted silk mull, trimmed in lace. She Clurg, L. Thornton, J. B. Garretson, O.
Clurg, L. Thornton, J. B. Garretson, O.
Dranga, Mr. and Mrs. Penne and Miss Wetzler.

A pretty feature of the intended was
Webber, Miss Garretson, Miss L. Ponne
ga, Allen McDonell,
dotted silk mull, trimmed in lace. She Clurg, L. Thornton, J. B. Garretson, O.
Clurg, L. Thornton, J. B. Garretson, Miss L. Ponne
day, Allen McDonell,
Mrs. L. Roumaine, Mrs. M. Meman, Mrs. M. Meman, Mrs. L. Roumaine, Mrs. M. Meman, Mrs. Mrs. M. Meman, Mrs. L. Roumaine

tea yesterday afternoon at her home on Kearney street in honor of her mother, Mrs. Leona Thompson of Pendleton. Mrs. Thompson will remain with her daughter till the end of the week.

There was a pleasant theatre party at the Baker Tuesday evening in compli-ment to Howard Russell, a member of the company. About 25 of the guesta of the Carleton were in the party. Supper at the Oregon followed.

The Whist club met with Mrs. H Metzgar Friday and prizes were won by Mrs. A. Meier, Mrs. I. N. Pleischner, Mrs. Sigmund Frank and Mrs. Charles

Miss Katherine Ball has been spend ing the entire week at the country home of Mrs. P. F. Morey at Oswego. She will leave this evening for her home in

Mrs. F. S. Morris and Miss Morris of King's Heights have sent out invitatione for two afternoon Friday and Saturday.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Anchor Council, Knights and Ladie of Security, gave a surprise party for T. C. Miner, a week ago Wednesday. The attendance was large and a pleasant social evening was enjoyed. ant social evening was enjoyed. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Bhankland, Mr. and Mrs. Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Butchers, Mr. and Mrs. Lombard, Misses Ada and Dulcia. Woodman, Nellie Farnsworth and Jennie Shankland, Mr. King, Mr. Graham, Mr. Arnspiger, Mr. Cavender, Lloyd Caven-der and Melvin Shankland.

rell, and Miss Effie Houghton, the guest of Mrs. Wesley Ladd. Red carnations were the table decoration and the principal decorative motif. The table was done exclusively in corn buckers, a large bowl of these formed, kindorff, Mrs. M. A. Penny, the Misses of the same flowers. A large bowl of these formed, kindorff, Mrs. M. A. Penny, the Misses alice Berner, C. Buchegger, Katherine Buchegger, Lena and Tilda Jacobson, A. Her guests beside Miss Brown and Miss the centerpièce which was complemented by tall vases of the same flowers at the E. A. Nelson, Charles Backerson, Henry her guest Miss Bull, Miss Nan Wood. four corners. An overhanging basket of daisies and cornflowers, from which garlands of wild roses extended to the garlands of wild roses extended to the four corners of the room, completed the decorative scheme, Besides the guest of honor, those seated about the table were her mother, Mrs. George Beatty; Professor E. A. Milner, principal of Woodlawn school; Mrs. Milner, Miss Cecil Williams, Miss M. E. Wilson, Mrs. J. A. George, and the Misses Kate Protzman, Margaret Protzman, Dunham, Margaret Protzman, Dunha which was presented in a neat little speech by 7-year-old Doris Covell, Miss Beatty will be married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Beatty, at 594 Raleigh street, on Wednesday evening at 8:20 o'clock, and will leave immediately for a wedding journey to the East. W. Gifford Nash presented his pupil, Miss Opie Bartlett, last Wednesday eve ning in piano recital at Ellers Acolian hall. She was assisted by Miss Jessie Park, contralto, a pupil of Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer. There was a good attendance and the program, which was well given, was much enjoyed. The or-

(b) Sonata op 10 No. 2 Beethoven
Allegro—Allegretto—Presto,
Mins Barilett,
Songs—(a) I Do Not Ask. Neidlinger
(b) Als Die Alte Mutter. Dyorak

(c) First Primrose Grieg Miss Park.
Papillons—Miss Bartlett.....Schumanr

Songs-(a) Birth of Morn ...

Schubert-Tausig

The Portland chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy celebrated Tennessee day last Thursday evening in the committee-room of the city hall. About 80 guests were present and were greeted by the hostess from Tennessee, Mrs. W. Boyd Hamilton, Mrs. D. C. Rogers, Mrs. S. G. Allen and Miss. see, Mrs. W. Boyd Hamilton, Mrs. D. C. Rogers, Mrs. S. G. Allen and Miss Ethel Lee. The musical part of the program was ably conducted by Mrs. Hamilton. The paper on the state history, read by the president, Mrs. Elizabeth Craig, carried with it both sentiment and instruction. Mrs. George Stovall, the historian of the chapter, read a paper on the heroes of Tennessee. Miss Hilda Craig read "The Bonnie Southern Girl," and Mrs. Clark, "Laska." A few remarks by Judge Moreland added to the interest of the program as they related to the early days of his state. The social hour following was delightful. The next meeting will be Texas day and will be at a private home, the place to be announced later. All southerners are welcome.

Mrs. Landor Penne and Miss Gertrude Wetsler gave a pretty shower for Miss Esther Vuilleumier and her flance, Jack Cassou, last Wednesday evening at Mrs. Penne's home, 83 % West Park street. There was a handkerchief shower for the bride-elect and a trousseau shower for Mr. Cassou. About 20 friends were there and joined in playing cards. Refreshments were served at the card tables. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. treshments were served at the card tables. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. Wetzler, Mr. and Mrs. A. Vuilleumier, Mr. and Mrs. F. Bourgoise, Mrs. Pickett, Mrs. I. Roumaine, Mrs. M. Heman, Miss

Mrs. C. V. Hare gave a very pleasant dinner at her home on East Thirty-fourth street, Sunnyside, Thursday evening, May 10, in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Ethel Marie Roberts and Mr. Raymond Dale Bolendor of this city. The pretty home was tastefully decorated. The colors were pink and green, the table decorations being long-stemmed carnations and maidenhair ferns. Covers were laid for 14. The ferns. Covers were laid for 14. The favors were American beauty roses. Toasts were given by C. V. Hare, F. P. responded to by Miss Roberts and Mr. Bolendor. During the evening music was enjoyed, Miss Roberts and Mr. Baumgartner rendering solos in a very pleasing manner.

The monthly dance at Larowe hall took place Wednesday evening and was well attended. About 60 couple were present and Parsons' orchestra furnished good music. Lemonade was served in the dining-room. The closing party will

The annual election of officers of the Illinois Study club will take place Wednesday at the home of Mrs. W. C. Jones, 259 Bain street. A full attendance of members is desired. Take Upper Al-

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Sheldon announce the engagement of their daughter Cor-inne Louise to Arthur N. Derby. The wedding will be celebrated June 14. No

The engagement of Miss Ethel Marie Roberts and Raymond Dale Bolendor of this city is announced.

WEDDINGS.

Mrs. Lombard, Misses Ada and Dulchis Woodman, Nollie Farseworth and Jennis Standing, William Carried with it both sentinent and instruction. Mrs. George Mrs. Cavender, Lloyd Cavender and Melvin Shankland.

The Boise (Idaho) Statesman gives the following mention of a Portland Stouthern Girl." and drs. Aark, Ask and the Coloring mention of a Portland Southern Girl." and drs. Aark, Ask and the Coloring mention of a Portland Southern Girl." and drs. Aark, Ask and the Coloring mention of a Portland Southern Girl." and drs. Aark, Ask and the Southern Girl." and drs. Aark, Ask and the

WEDDING AND VISITING CARDS

W. G. SMITH & Co.

Webber's Studio

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Clarence True Wilson of Grace Methodist church. Afterwards an elaborate supper was served in the dining room. The tables formed an "L" and long stemmed carnations and graceful ferns made an effective center piece, while a profusion of the blossoms were scattered the entire length of the tables. In another room also decorated with pink and green, the gifts were displayed, and and green, the gifts were displayed, and delicious punch was served by the Misses Muriel Smith and Madge Thomas. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Freda Hawker. In the bride's cake were two gold hearts with the date. May 16, 1905, engraved. The finders were Miss Daisy Cutler and Roy Leavens.

There were about sixty guests present, many of whom were from out of town. Mesdames F. P. Baumgartner, C. V. Hare and E. Blew received. Mrs. Baumgartner was attired in black and white grensdine, hand embroidered; Mrs. Blew was gowned in allover white embroidery; and Mrs. Hare in pink organdy.

The Face Should Be Fair

The Old May Be Young And the young remain so. We dismiss the haggard appearance and cause beauty to bloom upon that decaying countenance. All facial blemishes are removed, warts, meles, pimples, rashes, scrotious affections and ecsema of the scalp exterminated.

FREE SAMPLES OF COMPLEXION CREAM

MME. WYSS-McDONALD MADAME ARA HOLMES-RIBBEORE

Oriental Beauty Parlors