

GOOD EVENING

THE WEATHER. Showers tonight and Tuesday; southwesterly winds.

Oregon Daily Journal

Journal Circulation Sunday Was 23,608

VOL. V. NO. 71.

PORTLAND, OREGON, MONDAY EVENING, MAY 28, 1906.—FOURTEEN PAGES.

PRICE TWO CENTS. ON TRADES AND NEWS PAPERS, FIVE CENTS

STARTLING EXPOSURES OF BEEF TRUST METHODS

Government Inspector's Report Shows Unsanitary Conditions in Packing Houses

TRIALS OF MINERS TO COMMENCE

Accused Western Federation Officials Begin Battle for Freedom Tomorrow

Every Effort Being Put Forth by Defense and Prosecution—Change of Venue Asked for by Accused, Who Claim Cannot Get Fair Hearing in Idaho.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Boise, Idaho, May 28.—Notice was served on the prosecution today by the defendants' attorneys that Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone must be present when court opens at Caldwell tomorrow morning.

In addition to the motion for a change of venue, an effort will be made to secure a change of the presiding judge. A motion has been prepared covering many typewritten pages, which sets out numerous reasons why Judge Smith is disqualified from presiding at the trials. It alleges that he is personally prejudiced against the defendants.

WOMAN ATTACKED AS WITCH

Four Hundred Italians Mob Sicilian Girl Because No Children Have Been Born in Colony Since Her Arrival.

(Journal Special Service.) Bristol, Conn., May 28.—Witchcraft has come back after a lapse of 250 years, or else there are 400 badly mistaken residents of this city, constituting the Italian colony.

FOUR-YEAR-OLD BOY GETS BRONZE MEDAL FOR SAVING A LIFE

(Journal Special Service.) Boston, Mass., May 28.—Clarence Osborne of Winchester, only four years old, has been awarded a bronze medal by the Massachusetts Humane society for the heroic rescue from drowning of his cousin, Joseph Mullen, of the same age, on January 8.

The Steamer George W. Elder on the Drydock, Showing Great Hole in Her Hull Made by Rock on Which She Hung for More Than a Year.

AFTER AWFUL FIVE DAYS' EXISTENCE IN THE WOODS BESSIE BAUER IS FOUND

After spending five days and four nights in the woods and underbrush of the west bank of the Willamette river without food or shelter, enduring cold and rain; seeing and realizing that her distracted family and parties of friends were scouring the brush day and night in search of her, yet crawling upon her hands and knees through brambles to hide herself from human eyes, Bessie M. Bauer was discovered at the southern end of Riverview cemetery.

Girl Is Discovered by Party of Boys Searching the Country for Her Everywhere

She was notified and the girl was rescued. The police and the family of the girl were both notified. Fred Bauer, a brother of the girl, rowed across the river from his home and took his sister back to their house, where she is now under the care of Dr. A. M. Webster.

No Place for Bourne in Republican Party

The Oregonian never questioned the honesty of Mr. Bourne's motives. Oregonian, May 25, 1906. Oh, no. It merely thought that he was capable of the blackest treachery. Listen:

Girl Is Discovered by Party of Boys Searching the Country for Her Everywhere

When she is asked why she went away from home and why she wanted to hide herself from every one, the girl makes some reply irrelevant to the point. Nothing has been gotten from her to throw any light on the cause of her strange conduct, her relatives and physician declare.

WAS KILLED FOR SOME REASON

It is learned from the physician that she had been ill for some time. Her condition recently became such that she was forced to give up a good position in a store in the city and take a trip to Washington. She seemed to improve for a time but had a relapse and returned home in a worse state of health than before.

CRUISER COLUMBIA TO PREVENT REVOLUTION

Washington, May 28.—The cruiser Columbia with 400 marines has arrived at Colon, where she will remain until after the elections are held, in order to prevent the revolution which is threatened there.

Girl Is Discovered by Party of Boys Searching the Country for Her Everywhere

When she is asked why she went away from home and why she wanted to hide herself from every one, the girl makes some reply irrelevant to the point. Nothing has been gotten from her to throw any light on the cause of her strange conduct, her relatives and physician declare.

WAS KILLED FOR SOME REASON

It is learned from the physician that she had been ill for some time. Her condition recently became such that she was forced to give up a good position in a store in the city and take a trip to Washington. She seemed to improve for a time but had a relapse and returned home in a worse state of health than before.

CRUISER COLUMBIA TO PREVENT REVOLUTION

Washington, May 28.—The cruiser Columbia with 400 marines has arrived at Colon, where she will remain until after the elections are held, in order to prevent the revolution which is threatened there.

OLD MEAT MADE NEW AND SOLD FOR FRESH BY AID OF CHEMICALS

EIGHT ARE KILLED, OVER TWENTY HURT IN KENTUCKY WRECK

Louisville, May 28.—A broken flange on a Louisville & Nashville passenger coach caused a wreck this morning in which at least eight lives were lost and over twenty persons injured.

GIVE OVATION TONIGHT

Governor Chamberlain Received With Enthusiasm by People of Grants Pass, Who Promise Majority.

SENATOR GEARIN REPORTS FAVORING PENSION BILL

Washington, May 28.—Senator Gearin reported favorably today before the committee on pensions the bill increasing the pensions of Indian war veterans from $3 to $10 a month.

OFFICERS ON TRIAL FOR GROUNDING BATTLESHIP

Norfolk, Va., May 28.—A court-martial was convened today with Rear Admiral Sigbee as president, for trial of Captain Perry Garst and Lieutenant-Commander Edward T. Witherspoon on a charge of grounding the battleship Rhode Island.

INCIPIENT REVOLT REPORTED IN KOREA

Tokyo, May 28.—An incipient revolt has been inaugurated at Hongju, Korea, the rebels holding the town. Japanese troops are en route to the scene of the disorder.

CRIME DUE TO LACK OF FOOD

New York, May 28.—A simple method of abolishing vice and crime in New York and other large cities is announced by Professor Alexander Haig, a distinguished English physiologist and physician, in the Metropolitan hospital in London.

Lard Made From Hogs Which Die of Cholera—Refuse Is Sold in America—Oil From Sick Porcines—Potted Chicken is Bob Veal—Leaf Lard Is Cotton Seed Oil—Many Adulterations

(Journal Special Service.) Chicago, May 28.—The report on the packing-houses and stock industry made by Government Inspector Charles P. Neill and James R. Reynolds to President Roosevelt contains startling and sensational exposures of the unsanitary conditions prevailing in Chicago plants operated by the trust and goes into details concerning the habitual sale of unclean and contaminated meats.

trichonosis are butchered and sold in the country. So called "potted chicken" is not chicken at all, but is composed of the flesh of "bob veal."

SENATOR GEARIN REPORTS FAVORING PENSION BILL

Washington, May 28.—Senator Gearin reported favorably today before the committee on pensions the bill increasing the pensions of Indian war veterans from $3 to $10 a month.

LIVED FOR NINE MONTHS WITH BROKEN NECK

New York, May 28.—After living nine months with complete paralysis of the body from the neck down, owing to a fracture of his seventh cervical vertebra, William Kessler, 25 years old, died yesterday in Bellevue hospital.

OFFICERS ON TRIAL FOR GROUNDING BATTLESHIP

Norfolk, Va., May 28.—A court-martial was convened today with Rear Admiral Sigbee as president, for trial of Captain Perry Garst and Lieutenant-Commander Edward T. Witherspoon on a charge of grounding the battleship Rhode Island.

CRIME DUE TO LACK OF FOOD

New York, May 28.—A simple method of abolishing vice and crime in New York and other large cities is announced by Professor Alexander Haig, a distinguished English physiologist and physician, in the Metropolitan hospital in London.

HAUNTED MILLIONAIRE KILLED IN SAME WAY AS BURGLAR HE SHOT

Pittsburg, Pa., May 28.—Haunted almost three years by the face of a man killed while prowling around his house, Archibald Duff, one of the wealthiest and most prominent men in Clatsop, a suburb of this city, has met death at the hands of his son-in-law, M. A. Burt, exactly in the same place and manner.

HAUNTED MILLIONAIRE KILLED IN SAME WAY AS BURGLAR HE SHOT

Pittsburg, Pa., May 28.—Haunted almost three years by the face of a man killed while prowling around his house, Archibald Duff, one of the wealthiest and most prominent men in Clatsop, a suburb of this city, has met death at the hands of his son-in-law, M. A. Burt, exactly in the same place and manner.