

THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL
AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER
C. S. JACKSON - Publisher
Published every evening (except Sunday) and every Sunday morning...

and voted for McKinley or Palmer or stayed at home because they did not believe in free silver. Some of them are Republicans today; some came back to the Democratic party.

SMALL CHANGE
Teddy hasn't wigwagged a word.
A week from today tells the tale.

OREGON CAMPAIGN PRESS COMMENT
A Risky Experiment.
Oregon City Courier (Dem.).
The general election of Dr. Withycombe's public life indicates that he would be a rather risky experiment as governor...

THE PLAY
There's a thrill in every line of "Hands Across the Sea" but the thing is to get it out. The Baker stock company yesterday did not get it out.

A LITTLE NONSENSE NOW AND THEN
Thought is Anonymous.
From the American Spectator.
A certain congressman from Virginia had long retained in his employ a colored man by the name of Ezekiel...

LET US HAVE THE TRUTH.
WHEN ONCE JAMES WITHYCOMBE takes a thing for granted not even official records can convince him that he is in error.

IT HAS BEEN stated in several Willamette valley papers that Mr. Withycombe is opposed to municipal ownership of street railways, telephone lines, gas plants, electric light plants, even water systems...

PORTLAND AND COOS BAY.
RECENT EVENTS have served to bring Portland into closer touch and sympathy with the people of southwestern Oregon and the basis has been established for a commercial intercourse which will be of the greatest value to both.

DEMOCRATS AND INDEPENDENT VOTING.
IT IS BEING insisted with a good deal of reiteration these days that although The Journal opposes hide-bound partisanship, it and other independent state papers, and Democratic papers, urge the Democrats to vote solidly together...

Americans Will Pay.
For their money, however, patrons of this performance will see Ellen Terry herself, her sister and brother, Marion and Fred Terry, and other members of the Terry family in one act of "Much Ado About Nothing" and a special performance of "A Trial By Jury" in which the author himself, W. G. Gilbert, will enact one of the roles.

Would Go Halves.
Father—Can you support her in the manner to which she is accustomed?
Sister—Yes, sir; if you will raise an equal amount.

A Sensible Question.
From Frank Set.
Bob—Don't you think love is a species of insanity?
Ethel—Sometimes. Who has been falling in love with you?

OREGON SIDELIGHTS
Alfalfa's the thing for dairy farms.
Big watermelon crop in Irrigon expected.
Great strawberry crop in Douglas county.

OUR MISGUIDED HEROES.
By James J. Montague.
(Secretary Shaw says there is no future for a boy who works for Uncle Sam.)

Curious Habits of Foxes.
From the Washington Star.
The animals on which the fox usually preys are often left untouched around his own home, and it is even asserted that nothing is killed on the side of the hill in which that home is made.

Still at It.
From the Chicago News.
Gunner—What became of Hon. Timothy Crankon, who went to the legislature and tried to put down free lunch in the saloons? Did he succeed?
Gunner—No, but he is succeeding now.

Stoves in Japan.
The fuel in Japan is charcoal, wood, coal, coke and kerosene oil. The Japanese cooking apparatus is of two kinds—one of the "whisking," a small portable construction of metal or earthenware, costing from 25 cents to $1.25, and heated by means of charcoal; the other, the "kamado," a kind of stationary furnace, built of brick and mortar.

LEWIS AND CLARK.
On the Clearwater river, in Idaho.
May 28.—This morning the Indian is able to use his arms; he feels better, and eat up during the greater part of the day. We went to the village of Tonnachmootool for bread and roots, and a party of our hunters set out to hunt up a creek (American river), about eight miles above us.

STORIES AND TALES.
A Little Nonsense Now and Then.
Thought is Anonymous.
From the American Spectator.
A certain congressman from Virginia had long retained in his employ a colored man by the name of Ezekiel...

OUR MISGUIDED HEROES.
By James J. Montague.
(Secretary Shaw says there is no future for a boy who works for Uncle Sam.)

Curious Habits of Foxes.
From the Washington Star.
The animals on which the fox usually preys are often left untouched around his own home, and it is even asserted that nothing is killed on the side of the hill in which that home is made.

Still at It.
From the Chicago News.
Gunner—What became of Hon. Timothy Crankon, who went to the legislature and tried to put down free lunch in the saloons? Did he succeed?
Gunner—No, but he is succeeding now.

Stoves in Japan.
The fuel in Japan is charcoal, wood, coal, coke and kerosene oil. The Japanese cooking apparatus is of two kinds—one of the "whisking," a small portable construction of metal or earthenware, costing from 25 cents to $1.25, and heated by means of charcoal; the other, the "kamado," a kind of stationary furnace, built of brick and mortar.

LEWIS AND CLARK.
On the Clearwater river, in Idaho.
May 28.—This morning the Indian is able to use his arms; he feels better, and eat up during the greater part of the day. We went to the village of Tonnachmootool for bread and roots, and a party of our hunters set out to hunt up a creek (American river), about eight miles above us.

STORIES AND TALES.
A Little Nonsense Now and Then.
Thought is Anonymous.
From the American Spectator.
A certain congressman from Virginia had long retained in his employ a colored man by the name of Ezekiel...

STORIES AND TALES.
A Little Nonsense Now and Then.
Thought is Anonymous.
From the American Spectator.
A certain congressman from Virginia had long retained in his employ a colored man by the name of Ezekiel...