POLITICAL LEADER DIES IN DUBLIN

Michael Davitt, Father of Land League, Succumbs After Operation in Hospital.
MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT AND WRITER OF ABILITY
Opposed Charles Stewart Parnell and Took an Active Interest in Political Matters Up to Time of His Death—Imprisonment Failed to Discourage considered only a severe toothache.

Michael Davitt was born in County Mayo, March 25, 1846. His family being evicted from his birthplace, went to Haslingden, Lancashire, in 1851. Davitt became interested in the Fenian movement in 1866, and for participation therein was sentenced in 1870 to serve 15 years in prison. He was liberated in 1877, and with funds supplied from the United States began his anti-landlord movement, which later resulted in the formation of the Irish Land League on October 21, 1879. His collisions with the government thereafter became frequent and in 1881 he was imprisoned for breaking his ticket of leave. He was again liberated in 1882. He preserved an active interest in politics up to the time of his death.

RUNAWAY STREETCAR DASHES DOWN HILL, CAUSING DAMAGE

A runaway car dashed down the steep hill on Chapman street last night, jumped across the turntable at Jefferson street, cut a telephone pole down, tore across the sidewalk, smashed a high board fence, narrowly missed wrecking a candy store and brought up in a private yard.
The car, No. 12 of the Portland Consolidated line, was standing at the entrance to the barn on Chapman street. There was no conductor or motorman on it and fortunately no passengers. Suddenly the car became possessed with a desire to move. The grade down the hill is heavy and in a moment the unrestrained car was tearing down the track at a record-breaking pace. The conductor and motorman saw the runaway as it started on its wild career and gave chase, but were left hopelessly in the rear.

Tom Word is Favored

The following pupils were the graduates: Walter Lewis, Laurence Lewis, Hubert Miller, Cecilley Starr, Anna Johnson, George Altman and Bertha Pollock. R. F. Robinson, county school superintendent, delivered an address to the graduating class. He complimented the principal, Professor G. R. Dinwiddie, and the staff of teachers upon the character of work done during the past year. There were 140 pupils enrolled during the year. Teachers for the ensuing year will be elected next Saturday at a meeting of the school board.

WHAT THE PEOPLE ARE DOING ACROSS THE RIPPLING RIVER

The banquet that was to have been given tonight by the Montavilla Improvement League and board of trade to the Portland city officials has been postponed until after the election. It was found that the political engagements of some of the city officials of Portland would prevent their attendance and the committee in charge of the banquet decided to postpone it until such time as a full attendance could be had.

WHAT THE PEOPLE ARE DOING ACROSS THE RIPPLING RIVER

The city engineer has finished the survey of East Twenty-sixth street to the north line of Brush's addition, near Tibbets street. In his report to the board the engineer recommends a 60-foot street.
The Russellville school on the Base Line road has closed for the year. The graduating exercises of the eighth grade were held Friday evening, May 18.

GROWING ACRES AND PAID

Mrs. Josie Sumner, Bremond, Tex., writes, April 18, 1902: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for three years. I would not be without it in the house. I have used it on my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frost bitten feet, with good success. It is the best liniment ever used." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Woodard, Clark & Co.

Along the Section Line road, all the way to Powell's valley, the cards are also missing. Stevens' cards, on the other hand, remain untouched.

Along the Section Line road, all the way to Powell's valley, the cards are also missing. Stevens' cards, on the other hand, remain untouched. Tearing down election cards is a thing that hardly comes under a violation of the law. Fraudulent voting, however, is different. The sheriff's friends firmly believe that there will be attempts to vote illegal registration duplicates in the north-end districts of the city. Attempts are made to tear down with a heavy hand. The first man who attempted to tear down a card was arrested. He was locked up. Stevens' cards are not a Tom Word card left hanging. Merden today.

Oregon Life
OF PORTLAND, OREGON.
A magnificent organization. Every policyholder is an owner in the company. Clean Life Insurance conservatively and economically managed, is furnished to the policyholder at actual cost; price is less than he can buy it for elsewhere. Perfection in Life Insurance.

N. N. Hall, a well-known resident of Fairview and a brother of W. E. Hall of East Portland, died at his home near Fairview last night of heart disease. The funeral will probably take place in Portland. Mr. Hall had been a resident of Portland and vicinity for more than 30 years. He came to this city in 1875 and was well and favorably known here. He was for a number of years a partner in the hardware business of Hall Bros., but his health failing about 12 years ago, he retired from business and took up his residence on a farm near Fairview, where he has since resided. Mr. Hall was for a long time one of the school directors of Fairview district. He was a member of Calvary Baptist church. He leaves a wife, two sons and two daughters. Arrangements for the funeral will not be announced until after the arrival of his son.
