 SEE THE BABY PICTURES IN THE SUNDAY JOURNAL

There are hosts of mothers in Oregon and Washington who recognize the indisputable beauty of their babes, judging from the numbers of pictures that have come to the Haby Contest Editor's deak, which looks like a children's food exhibit at a world's fair.

A man must be brave to undertake to select the prettiest babe in two states. And yet that is what The Journal judges propose to do after June 30, when no more pictures will be received.

Your baby, madam, has as good a chance for the $20 prize that is to be given away as any other infant. Send in the best picture you have of the little ones, if he or she is under 6 years. The $20 deposit will be made in the name of the child winning the first place. For the next three there will be silver mugs.

All you need to do is to send the child's picture to the Baby Contest Editor, Sunday Journal, with the name, age and address. The contest closes June 30, and shortly after that the awards will be announced.

Many of the contestants appear in the splendid magazine section of The Journal next Sunday.

he started again, and again met with success, until his health failed him in 1882. He then moved to Portland and within 24 hours after his arrival had opened a millinery business in this city. He continued in that business continuously until a year ago, when he was forced to retire because of failing health.

While in Chicago he was a member of several hunting clubs and an enthusiastic member of the Turn Verein.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at the family residence, 162 North Twenty-second street. The services will be under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias, of which order he was a member for 22 years.

"Dear Sir—In accordance with your request I respectfully submit the following as my opinion and position on the proposed amendment to the local option law.

"First—I believe it repeals all of the local option law adopted by the people in 1904 except section 1. The title of the proposed new law amends section 1 and expressly repeals all the other sections of the old law; the title also states that certain sections shall be added to the old law, but does not state that the added sections are an amendment. Under our constitution I believe nothing can be added to a law unless it is stated in the title that such addition is an amendment. I do not
