AMERICANS IN CANAHEA ARE IN GREAT PERIL

STATE DEPARTMENT HOLDS TROOPS ON THE BORDER

Between Forty-Five and Two Hundred and Fifty Persons Have Been Killed in Fight

Colonel Greene Among Those Shot Down by Mexicans and the Situation is Regarded as Very Serious—American Soldiers Rushed to Border.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Washington, D. C., June 2.—A special from Bisbee, Arizona, says that Colonel Greene was killed at Cananea last night. Governor Yzabel is on the scene with Mexican troops but the shooting continues from both sides. It is believed that about 60 Americans have thus far been killed and several times that number of Mexicans. The American consul has sent out a call for aid which is in the hands of the state department. Four hundred armed men from Arizona have formed into a battalion for the purpose of rescuing the Americans. They left Bisbee last night to join the soldiers under the governor of Sonora who is en route from Hermosillo.

Major Watts, in command of the United States troops at Bisbee, reports to the war department that he started troops toward the Mexican border to aid the Americans who have been attacked by Mexican strikers at Cananea, Mexico, and requests that further instructions be forwarded him as soon as possible. Varying reports have been received concerning the number of Americans killed and one of these is to the effect that 50 persons have been shot, including members of the Mexican police.

Situation Serious. Mexico is putting forward every effort to release the foreigners. The settlement was set afire by the reckless Mexicans, who are defying the authorities.

Demand was made by the miners for an increase from $3.50 to $5 a day. Colonel Greene addressed them in an effort to induce reasonable consideration of their claims and possible adjustment of the difficulty, but without avail. Their attitude is said to be entirely unreasoning and at 5 o'clock they began firing on the Americans, many of whom were killed. Colonel Greene at once wired to Bisbee for armed protection.

War Department Halted. The war department has sent a message to Fort Huachuca ordering the recall to the border of any American soldiers that may have proceeded into Mexican territory. Secretary Root believing the United States cannot send troops into Mexico. The government has requested the Mexican government to authorize the use of the American troops in quelling the riots. Mexico is asked to protect American citizens.

Consul-General Galbraith sent the following to the state department under date of Naco, Arizona: "Send assistance immediately to Cananea. American citizens are being murdered and property dynamited; we must have help."

ARMED MEN TO RESCUE.

Large Party Under Captain Bynning Joins Governor Yzabel. (Journal Special Service.) Douglas, Ariz., June 2.—Governor Yzabel of Sonora arrived at Naco at 7:30 this morning and gave orders permitting the armed Americans to accompany him to Cananea. Under Captain Tom Bynning 450 men left on a special with Yzabel.

STATE ISSUES WARNING AGAINST SETTING FIRES

ELECTRIC LINES ARE ASSURED

Construction on Two Roads Between Portland and Salem Will Commence Within Fifteen Days—No Further Delay

Within 15 days construction of two interurban electric railroads between Portland and Salem will be under way with all the energy of two strong companies, well equipped and directed by men thoroughly experienced in electric railway construction. The roads will follow different routes, entirely independent of each other and relying upon local business developed. They will tap districts ranking among the richest sections in Oregon.

Ready to Go Ahead. While it has seemed at times that the United Railways company was impatient over the delays, we are glad that we have not given up the project, and we are now ready to go ahead with all possible speed under the terms of the franchise. As soon as the franchise becomes effective we will begin construction work. The surveys have

TALKS TO PORTLAND AUDIENCE

Candidate Withycombe Is Given Warm Greeting by the East Side Republicans

He Tells His Audience That the Office of State Land Agent Is Superfluous and Expresses His Disapproval of Public Ownership of Public Utilities.

James Withycombe, Republican candidate for governor, was given an enthusiastic reception last evening by East Portland Republicans. Burkhardt's hall was filled, but many who attended were disappointed because they got only about five minutes of Mr. Withycombe and more than an hour of T. T. Gear.

City Treasurer J. B. Werlein acted as chairman. Robert G. Morrow, the first of the speakers, predicted victory for woman's suffrage, after which he urged the claims of Judge Robert Eakin, candidate for supreme judge, and Alfred Sears Jr., candidate for circuit judge.

That Land Office Matter. "I want to speak of a matter in regard to which I have been badly misquoted. I have said that the office of land agent should be abolished. I favor this because I have found two men at Salem doing one man's work. I think the clerk of the land office can do the work. I know he can, for I have investigated the matter. As to the statement that the land thieves share my views I want to say that if I am elected I will be as much of a terror to land thieves as many in the state of Oregon.

Applause to Liberal. The speech of Mr. Withycombe was liberally applauded. At its close, Mrs. Fred L. Olson sang two solos that delighted the crowd. Robert L. Stevens, candidate for sheriff, was then introduced. He declared that if elected he would do his duty, and added: "I am

"RED TICKET" MEN COME OUT AGAINST TOM WORD

Sheriff Tom Word, Against Whom the Liquor Dealers Are Actively Campaigning.

ALBINA CHEERS HIS NAME

Democrats and Republicans Unite in Giving Enthusiastic Ovation to State's Chief Executive at Gomez Hall

Albina accorded Governor Chamberlain a flattering reception last night. Though the fact that Chamberlain would be there had not been widely advertised, there was standing room only when the governor stepped upon the platform of Gomez hall. He was greeted by prolonged cheering by Democrats and Republicans alike and when, during his address, he declared that his Republican friends had proved as loyal as his Democratic friends a large man in the rear of the hall cried:

On Remittance of Taxes. "If I am," said he, "I promise you that there will be no cancellation of taxes of corporations as there have been in the past."

Adams the First Speaker. The meeting was called to order by Chairman J. W. Farmer. J. C. Adams, candidate for justice of the peace of East Portland, was the first speaker.

Continuing, Mr. Adams referred to a statement published in an organ of the opposition to the effect that two-thirds of the Republican legislative ticket are not in favor of statement No. 1.

Oglesby Young, candidate for circuit judge, next took the rostrum. He introduced himself by stating that the present one was his first offense in running for office. He had been on the legislative ticket before, but had never really

Liquor Dealers Furnish Proof of Interest in Candidacy of Robert L. Stevens for Sheriff

Distribute Card Advising Followers to Support Their Favorite, to Vote No on Woman's Suffrage, Yes on Local Option Amendment, Etc.

Because refused permission to use the Marquam Grand theatre the Traveling Men's Tom Word rally tonight in the open air, on Seventh street between Morrison and Alder. The meeting will be no less of a success on this account and none of the previously advertised features will be eliminated. The band will play, the quartet will sing and the advertised speakers will address the crowd from a carriage on the street.

The "red ticket" men are lining up their forces for Robert L. Stevens for sheriff, and are using every means in their power to defeat Tom Word. Evidence of this is furnished by the distribution of a card advising the voter who receives it to cast his ballot for Stevens, to support the local option amendment, to oppose woman's suffrage and to vote for saloons in the Multnomah county districts in which local option has been invoked at this election.

This year's printed advice from the liquor dealers reads as follows: "Put this card in your pocket until you vote. Then vote for these Republicans on the ballot: 120, 303, 304, 323."

That is all. No names or measures are mentioned, but it is well to know the following facts: 120 is the ballot number of Robert L. Stevens.

303 is "No" on woman's suffrage. 304 is "Yes" on the liquor dealers' amendment to the local option law. 323 is "No" in every district where voters are asked the question: "Shall the saloons be closed?"

The little card is being industriously circulated, but there is no lack of evidence that it is going to prove a boomerang. Sheriff Word is gaining votes every day. Only Republicans were in the past week give a fair idea of the strength of Sheriff Word among Republicans. Only Republicans were asked to express their preference, and this was the result:

Central East Side—Thirty voters polled, Word 11, Stevens 12. Bellview and vicinity—Twenty voters polled, Word 11, Stevens 7. University Park and vicinity—Nineteen voters polled, Word 11, Stevens 4. South Mount Tabor and vicinity—Twenty voters polled; Word 12, Stevens 8.

Total, 89 Republican voters polled; Word 53, Stevens 36. In nearly every instance the vote polled explained his reason for not supporting Stevens by saying: "Word has made good. He has enforced the laws."

On election day these Republicans will express by their ballots their opinion of the "red ticket" methods employed by the liquor dealers in their desperate attempt to defeat a faithful official.

BRITISH PRESS URGES AN INDUSTRIAL WAR

(Journal Special Service.) London, June 2.—The British press is devoting much space to the revelations in the American meat packers' cases. Appeals are made to support home industry, and to stop the sale of American goods. Orders for large consignments of American canned meats have been either cancelled or reduced. The Times made a bitter attack on the Yankee "meat houses."

MAYOR DUNNE ASKS INSPECTION COMMISSION

(Journal Special Service.) Chicago, June 2.—Mayor Dunne today telegraphed to Secretary Wilson of the agricultural department, urging the appointment of a commission of pathologists and sanitary experts to investigate the stockyards and packing-houses and report what safety measures should be adopted.

EXPECT REPORT ON RATE BILL TODAY

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, June 2.—The Senate conference report on the rate bill today. Senator Ferguson expects a report will be presented to the Senate by the conference committee.

Put this card in your pocket until you vote. THEN VOTE FOR THESE NUMBERS ON BALLOT: 120, 303, 304, 323. Facsimile of the Liquor Dealers' Instructions to Voters.
