MOORE HITS AND RUNS LIKE AN OLD-TIMER

Oakland Gains Three Runs in Opening Inning, but Giants Make a Sturdy Uphill Fight and Overcome Handicap in the Fifth.

Portland 6, Oakland 3.
Batteries—Califf and Donahue, Smith and T. Hackett.
The Giants took an early engagement from the Commuters yesterday after a hard, uphill fight. It was ladies' day and it was the rarest day in June from the standpoint of fair weather and fair women. The Underhill Califf was designated as official flinger for the great Giants and he became terrified as soon as the ball was set rolling and passed Van Hatten to first. Franks hit safely and Kruger's attempt forced Van at third base. Smith hit safely and T. Hackett struck out. Jud Smith failed to grip his force as Davern's speedy liner and Franks scored. Cates was given a pass and J. Hackett got poked in the ribs. Two more runs were sent across and that ended Oakland's run-getting.

BRITISHERS FEAR MISS SUTTON

English Tennis Players Looking Forward With Interest to Coming Tournament.

MATCHES WILL BEGIN ON JUNE FIFTEENTH

Baseball Has Taken Hold in London and Cecil Rhodes Students Put the English Team to Rout—Gossip of the Game.

By Richard Dahlgren.
(Copyright, 1906, by W. R. Hearst.)
London, June 2.—The British tennis world is awaiting anxiously for a chance to see the American lawn tennis team at work, so that some sort of a line can be gotten on their play. It is seriously feared that some of the championships besides those held by Miss Sutton will go back to the other side with them. Beal C. Wright is the most interesting figure among the American experts. It is generally conceded that if Mr. Wright has held his tongue he will be a most formidable candidate for the single championship. Nice quarters have been secured for the Americans at Albright.
