Daily Average Circulation of THE JOURNAL during May was 25,433. It has a larger paid circulation in Portland and in Oregon than any other Portland newspaper.	If You Have a House for Sale House for rent—want to sell or rent your farm—sell a horse, piano or anything, put a three or four-line small classified ad in The Journal and you will be surprised at the number of replies. Count six words to the line and send five cents for each line, each insertion.	THE JOURNAL REACHES MORE READERS in Oregon than any other daily paper. Its rates for advertising are lower, cost compared to circulation, than any other daily paper. Rate—5c a Line Count 14 lines to an inch, single-column space.
