PROOF OF THE PUDDING

In the New York Herald's authentic table of the sales of Motor Vehicles of every make and motive power between January 1 and July 1, 1905, in ten Eastern states, the CADILLAC is shown to have sold 381 cars more than its nearest competitor—1,131 Cadillac in all.

444 of These Were Sold in New York Alone—140 More Than the Nearest Competitor

These ten states are the automobile sales barometer. The Cadillac is ahead in sales west as well as east. This remarkable showing is the result of just one thing—such absolute superior merit in the construction, operation and inexpensive maintenance of Cadillacs. There certainly is no car at or near the price of a CADILLAC the equal of a CADILLAC. Runabout, $650. Light Touring Car, $1,050. We beg to announce that we are constructing a garage at Fifteenth and Washington streets with a capacity of 150 cars. Every modern convenience will be provided. We solicit your storage and assure you that your interest will be conscientiously protected whether you buy your car from us or not.

An American automobile that has gained the reputation of being equal to the best foreign cars. Winner of the famous Glidden touring trophy. One thousand miles, from New York to White mountains and return, without repair or adjustment. 1906 model in stock at the present time. Demonstrations by appointment.

DEMOCRATS DRAW LARGER CROWD

Rival Street Meetings at Oregon
City Show Trend of Public Sentiment.

CANDIDATES SET FINAL
CLAIMS BEFORE VOTERS

Within One Block Nominees of Two Parties Present Issues to Be Decided by Voters at the State and Congressional Election.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Oregon City, June 2.—The city tonight presented the strange spectacle of two open-air political meetings within a single block, and the Democrats had the crowd with them. On a platform at the east end of the suspension bridge, decked with American flags and bunting and pictures of prominent Americans, were the Democratic nominees for county offices, and with them was Charles V. Galloway of McKinville,

Eyeglasses Not Necessary

Nearsight Can Be Strengthened, and Most Forms of Cases Have Been Proven Without Cutting or Drugging.

That the eyes can be strengthened so that eye glasses can be dispensed with in the great majority of cases has been proven beyond a doubt by the testimony of hundreds of people who publicly claim that they have been cured by that wonderful little instrument called "Actina." "Actina" also cures most cases of sore and granulated eye, iritis, etc., also removes Catarrhs and Pterygia, without cutting or drugging. Over 70,000 "Actinas" have been sold, therefore it is not an experiment, but an absolute fact. The following letters are but samples of those that are received daily:

Mrs. M. K. Champney, 542 West 18th St., New York City, writes: "The 'Actina' cured me of iritis, after the doctors said they had no cure outside of an operation. I have been entirely well since I used your 'Actina'." "I can see to read and sew now, and I can honestly recommend 'Actina' for all affections of the eye."

Family Physician, Milwaukee, Wis., writes: "The 'Actina' I purchased from you a year ago saved my brother's eyesight. My brother was nearsighted, wore number five and six glasses, and now he can go to school and do all his work and study without glasses." "I have used your 'Actina' and have cured my eyes so that I can do without glasses. I very seldom have headache now, and can study up to 11 o'clock after a hard day's work at the office." "Actina" can be used by old and young with perfect safety. It is impossible to do harm with one. Every member of the family can use the "Actina" for any form of disease of the eye, ear, throat or head. One will last for years, and is always ready for use. It will be sent on trial, postpaid. If you will send your name and address to the New York & London Electric Association, Department 58 N. 92d Street, Kansas City, Mo., you will receive, absolutely FREE, a valuable book—Professor Wilson's Treatise on Diseases.

One block away the Republicans had a comparatively small audience in front of the courthouse square, where George C. Brownell and other spellbinders talked for a continuation of boss rule and machine government. They had the Milwaukee band. They had the city presented an animated scene. Early in the evening people thronged in from nearby towns, and more than a thousand persons listened to the stirring speeches and music by the Oregon City band, and the Webber quartet from Portland, which was one of the star attractions.

Mr. Galloway, who had just come in from Molalla, where he spoke last afternoon to an audience of 250 people, was in the voice and was given an enthusiastic reception. This young exponent of sterling principles was received with cheers. He delivered a remarkable and eloquent speech and carried the people with him from start to finish.

It is generally conceded on the eve of the campaign that Clackamas county will give substantial pluralities to Galloway and Chamberlain.

J. E. Hodges, nominee for state senator, was one of the prominent figures of the evening. He talked for half an hour and was listened to with close attention. He said nothing mean of his opponent, George C. Brownell, who has been senator from this county for 12 consecutive years, and is asking the people for four years more, even with an indictment for defrauding the federal government hanging over his head. Mr. Hodges asked the people to exercise care in their selection of candidates. He emphatically denied the campaign lies that Brownell has circulated regarding him.

Howard C. Latourette, nominee for county clerk, and O. D. Eby, for representative, made happy speeches that were vote-getters.

Harvey G. Starkweather of Oak Grove made an able speech and was loudly applauded. His opponent, Grant B. Dimick, played into Starkweather's hands tonight by making a bet of $500 that he would carry the county by 1,000 votes over his Democratic rival. This has cost him probably 150 votes in Oregon City alone, for the men who made the pool on the other end are men of no small political ability and will win the money. Mr. Dimick has been playing his cards to land the office of county judge for a long while, but his wager of tonight will gain him no votes.

Speeches were also made tonight by Robert Baker, nominee for treasurer; R. B. Beattie, for sheriff; H. D. Adee, for representative; J. T. Graves, for commissioner, and William Shannon, for recorder.

Mr. W. E. Cecil was chairman of the meeting.

DEATH OF MRS. MELDRUM.

Pioneer of Early Oregon, Native of Kentucky, Was Almost Ninety.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Oregon City, Or., June 2.—Mrs. Susan D. Meldrum, one of the oldest pioneers of Clackamas county, died this afternoon at her home in this city. Mrs. Meldrum was born in Washington county, Kentucky, July 25, 1817, and would have been 90 years of age next July. She is survived by two sons and three daughters. Mrs. Meldrum's maiden name was Susan Depew Cox. Her girlhood was mostly spent in Tennessee, to which state her parents removed during her childhood, afterwards removing to Illinois. On the 11th of December, 1824, at Whitehall, Illinois, she was married to John Meldrum, also a native of Kentucky, born in Shelby county March 8, 1808. During the first years of their marriage they resided in Illinois, where the oldest child, a daughter, Mrs. W. S. Moore, of Portland, was born. In the spring of 1848, feeling the inspiration of the true pioneer, they joined a caravan on the way to "the Oregon country," arriving at Oregon City, the end of their journey, about the middle of October of that year. They brought with them their four children—Margaret O., born in Illinois; Mary K., now Mrs. D. P. Thompson, of Portland; Sarah M., now Mrs. F. O. McCown, of Portland, and a son, John W. Meldrum, all of whom were in attendance at the bedside of their dying mother, as was also the youngest son, Henry Meldrum, the only survivor of the five younger children who were born in Oregon. Being always loyal to her adopted state, she had lived contentedly here during all the 61 years that have passed since her arrival.

Her husband, John Meldrum, died August 2, 1859, in the same house where Mrs. Meldrum's death occurred and which has been the home ever since she had resided for the past 46 years.

Mrs. Meldrum was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and a woman whose fine character and kindly nature endeared her to all who knew her. Young and old vied in making the last years of her life peaceful and happy, for all of which kindness Mrs. Meldrum continually expressed her loving appreciation. She was always interested in the pioneer reunions and readily mentioned that she would not be with her old friends this year.

The funeral service will be held at Mrs. Meldrum's late residence at Oregon City Monday, June 4, at 10 a. m.

Her attorney is Judge Gordon E. Hayes. John B. Fairclough is in from the Ogle mountain mines and will remain over election day.

Josiah Martin arrived here today from Lebanon and will stay to vote.

WE'RE OUSTED BY THE COURT!

We Fought to the Last Ditch to Retain Possession of Our Premises, but the Highest Tribunal Ruled Against Us

We are not going to vacate one half of our storeroom of our own volition. The supreme court of Oregon directs us to get out of that certain part of the building by the evening of June 14, and deliver up possession on June 15, and we shall obey the mandate. How can we do this?

By Reducing Our Stock One-Half

There is no other way. We are crowded now. We have not an inch of room to spare. We have our furniture packed in like sardines in a box. To relinquish, then, half of our floor space we will be compelled to

Sell, Give Away or Otherwise Dispose of One-Half of Everything We Own

In this big building. We shall therefore reserve nothing. EVERYTHING MUST GO. Furniture, carpets, ranges, heating stoves, etc., without discrimination. The sale is absolute. It is without fol-de-rol or frills.

We Are Desperately in Earnest

It is sell the goods or store them somewhere, and the latter is not to be considered.

Public Houses as Well as Private Homes May Benefit by This Sale

Its like will not be experienced again in Portland until some other merchant is "pinched" as we are now by this court decision. This is not likely to ever again happen in the lifetime of the present generation.
