"Lady Baltimore"—By Owen Wister. Whether it be in the wild west, in the dear old typical southern town of King's Port, or any other geographical location where Mr. Wister finds his story, he also discovers real people; the people made by environment or inheritance, to inhabit just that place.

"KENNEL'S DESIRE"—By Hugh Corneli. We may argue ourselves ignorant, and certainly unfortunate to confess that the writer of this charming book comes to us unknown, but in compensation for it we are possessed with the assurance that our acquaintance will not be limited to Kennel's Desire, for if the author has done nothing before, the book is pregnant with the promise of much good and interesting work.

"The Cruise of the Conqueror," by G. H. H. Jefferies. To those who good fortune it has been to have read the "Motor Pirate." The Cruise of the Conqueror will come as a pleasant and welcome surprise, for it is a sequel to the author's first novel, "The Conqueror," which is, however, complete in itself, and quite as interesting as though its people were appearing for the first time to the reader who only knows them in this.

"The Motor Pirate," by G. H. H. Jefferies. His Pupils in England, by Selwyn Brinton. Chase, A. W.—Elementary Course in Mechanical Drawing (part 1). Clark, Alexander, ed.—Standard Dialogues.

SOCIETY

The final meeting of Mrs. Walter Reed's Tuesday Afternoon club took place May 29. Rehearsals will be resumed in September.

"Below the Dead Line"—By Scott Campbell. When Inspector Bryson commanded the New York police force he found it necessary to issue an order calling for the instant arrest of every crook found in that part of the metropolis lying south of Fulton street.

The Mendelssohn program to be given this evening at the First Congregational church is as follows: Organ prelude, finale, "Allegro Moderato."

The choir of the Fourth Presbyterian church, assisted by Miss Cornelia Barker, will render the following Handel program this evening.

What the Ministers Said. Portland, June 1.—To the Editor of The Journal—Oregon was founded by men and women who stood side by side.

Ballot Box Without Terrors. Portland, June 1.—To the Editor of The Journal—Oregon was founded by men and women who stood side by side.

What Equal Suffrage Has Done. Portland, June 1.—To the Editor of The Journal—Dear Sir: Oregon is full of churches and schools, yet it has also land frauds, gambling houses and brothels.

May Get Even. From the Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune. Senator Dewey is on record in favor of the expulsion of Senator Smoot.

Mad Plenty. Senator Tillman was not once crossed while relating his experience in the senate, but it was probably due to his having been double-crossed outside.

More Friends of Equal Rights. Among Oregon men who have declared themselves in favor of a square deal for all and the enfranchisement of women are: M. C. George, W. P. Olds, John Gill, E. Egert, A. E. Borthwick, Henry E. Densch, Taylor Woodward, D. S. Collins, R. L. Gillespie, Eugene Wolf, A. C. Rev. L. H. House, Rev. F. Burgett, Short, E. N. Pinescher, Rev. J. M. Muckley, Henry E. McGinn, General T. M. Anderson, Ralph R. Dummey, Rev. T. B. Ford, J. C. Moreland, E. H. Moorhouse, Rev. H. E. Barden, O. P. S. Plummer, E. Les. Paget, J. C. Olds, S. B. Higgins, F. J. Catterlin, J. Hare, and many thousand others.

Women Who Want to Vote. At the time of compiling our page for publication in the daily paper of June 1 we began collecting the names of women who are ready to go on record.

Equal Suffrage

Some Opinions. I believe in the rights of the woman just as much as in those of the man, and, in fact, a little more.

I hope and believe that after June 4 Oregon women will have a vote. JAMES WITHERCOMBE.

I hope that Oregon will give women the ballot, and that every state will do so. GOV. GEORGE H. CHAMBERLAIN.

Under existing conditions I believe it to be less wrong to enfranchise women than to deny them their right of choice. Therefore I shall vote for the amendment. RUFUS MALLORY, Ex-Member of Congress.

Even the women who own no property upon which to be taxed ought to have a vote to protect their lives and honor. DR. STEPHEN S. WISE.

My mother, my grandmother and great grandmother were pioneers of Oregon and crossed the plains with an ox team. I will always defend the honor of women and grant them every privilege that I have, for their own sake as well as for the sake of the country.

I sincerely hope the amendment will win and by a large majority. J. F. CAPLES, Ex-Minister to Chile.

I hope to see the Equal Suffrage Amendment carried by a large majority on June 4th and the Liberty League's neighborhood incorporated in the constitution of the state. WALTER L. TOOZE, Woodburn, Or.

It would be unfair to deprive all women of the right to vote because some women do not want it. Suffrage is a right, and no man should compel any woman to vote. All they ask is the right to vote if they choose. THOS. L. VAN ORSDAL, North Yamhill, Or.

Go into the saloon and find a man talking the "moral" of the liquor traffic and you will find a man that is opposed to the enfranchisement of woman. MILT RICHARDSON, GEO. H. HIMES, Sec. Pioneer Ass'n.

"I was born an equal suffragist." It is simply silly to say only bad and ignorant women wish the vote. Experience shows the best women who have the chance, and it opens their intellectual eyes. C. E. S. WOOD.

Every man honors himself by honoring his mother. Nothing gives me greater pride or pleasure than giving my voice and my vote for the enfranchisement of woman—man's best friend and wisest councillor. W. S. DUNIWAY.

Women are equally responsible with man for the propagation and destiny of the human race. She should be equally responsible with the exercise of all her powers. Her rights in law and society should be equal with his. She ought to vote. Her influence and power are needed in the state as well as home and church. J. WHITCOMB BROUGHTER.

It is just to women citizens who are subject to and who assist in supporting the government, to deny them a voice in that government. In short, it is just that they should be classed with minors, idiots, insane and criminals. AHIA S. WATT.

We will give a tremendous vote for the Equal Suffrage Amendment. The women are at a disadvantage in eastern Oregon. E. S. MCCOMBS, Union, Or.

Women's enfranchisement is the next step toward the fullness of individual liberty—the equality of right and opportunity—toward which the race is moving. JUDGE STEPHEN A. LOWELL, Pendleton.

Women are as much entitled to the ballot as I or my brothers. MAYOR HARRY LANE.

The Socialists have an equal suffrage plank in their platform, and are working for it all over the world. THOMAS BURNS.

The citizens' organization found women the strongest factor in their work for reform, and I think 99 per cent of us are for suffrage. O. P. M. JAMISON.

Equal Suffrage

In favor of a "square deal for all and the enfranchisement of women." But we found, after two days' work along this line, that the list of names would run up into many thousands, for which we had no space. Fill, we compiled, therefore, to give up the idea of publishing all the names, and we now give only a few of the more prominent, begging pardon of the rest. Among them are:

Mrs. Charlotte Moffett Cartwright, Mrs. Elizabeth Lord, Mrs. Mary Barlow, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Wilson, Mrs. Camilla F. Donnell, Mrs. M. E. Cooke, Mrs. H. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Coburn, Mrs. A. B. Dinsley, Mrs. Sarah F. Jack, Mrs. Mary A. Hall, Mrs. H. J. Henderson, Mrs. C. R. Templeton, Mrs. F. Eggert, Mrs. R. H. Hoge, Mrs. Grace Watt Ross, Mrs. Clara Waldo, Mrs. M. C. George, Mrs. A. H. Breyman, Mrs. Rose H. Hoyt, Mrs. Addison C. Gibbs, Mrs. Lucy A. Mallory, Mrs. Jennie Halls, Mrs. Elizabeth Sager Helm, Mrs. H. A. Laughery, Mrs. N. Denny, Mrs. Phemie Strones, Mrs. Inez Croome, Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, Dr. Annie Jeffreys Myers, Dr. Esther C. Pohl and others too numerous to mention.

Insult to Oregon Womanhood. The scurrilous card bearing a picture of a woman's undergarment is a sample of the lowest political scheming that has disgraced the state of Oregon. It is not only an insult to Oregon womanhood, but a reflection on the honor of Oregon manhood as well. The claim of "Albion" that it was the "only way" through which he could secure the vote of the waterfront, and, in his opinion, was necessary to defeat the Equal Suffrage Amendment.

We believe, however, there is sufficient decency among the men of the waterfront to rebuff this gentleman's (?) idea of conducting a campaign. The Oregon Equal Suffrage Association presents its claim to the ballot solely upon the basis of justice and expediency.

We have courted by every means in our power an honorable discussion of our question. Our opponents declined to meet, but instead they sought publicity by ignoble, disreputable means. When the future history of Oregon is written, the struggle for freedom by Oregon's women will be gloriously told with the methods adopted by the defamers of womanhood.

The time has now closed for argument. Our case rests with the men of Oregon. We have confidence that many men, who would have remained absolutely neutral in this campaign, will in common with the believers in equal rights cast their vote for, and resent the insult offered to women by the opponents of Equal Suffrage. OREGON EQUAL-SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION.

Progress of Equal Suffrage. Seventy-five years ago women could not vote in any part of the English-speaking world. In 1835 Kentucky gave school suffrage to women.

In 1850 Ontario gave it to all women. In 1861 Kansas gave it to all women. In 1867 New South Wales gave women school suffrage.

In 1869 England gave municipal suffrage to single women and widows; Victoria gave it to women both married and single, and Wyoming gave full suffrage to all women.

In 1871 West Australia gave women municipal suffrage. In 1875 Michigan and Minnesota gave women school suffrage.

In 1876 Colorado gave school suffrage. In 1877 New Zealand gave school suffrage. In 1878 Oregon and New Hampshire gave school suffrage.

In 1879 Massachusetts gave school suffrage. In 1880 New York and Vermont gave women school suffrage, and South Australia gave them municipal suffrage.

In 1881 municipal suffrage was given to the single women and widows of Scotland. In 1883 Nebraska gave women school suffrage.

In 1884 Tasmania gave them municipal suffrage. In 1886 New Zealand and New Brunswick gave them municipal suffrage.

In 1887 Kansas, Nova Scotia and Manitoba gave women municipal suffrage, North and South Dakota, Montana, Idaho and Wyoming gave full suffrage to all women.

In 1890 county suffrage was given to the women of Scotland, and municipal suffrage to single women and widows in the Province of Quebec. In 1891 Illinois gave school suffrage to all women.

In 1893 Colorado and New Zealand gave women full suffrage, and Connecticut gave them school suffrage. In 1894 Ohio gave women school suffrage, Iowa gave them bond suffrage, and England gave parish and district suffrage to women both married and single.

In 1896 South Australia gave full state suffrage to women both married and single. In 1896 Utah and Idaho gave full suffrage to all women.
