King Edward Still Enjoys Jovial Companions and Queen Has Lost None of Her Spunk—Result: Discord

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) Windsor, Eng., June 7.—Despite recent domestic broils, Queen Alexandra has not lost her spunk and does not fear to lecture her royal husband upon his lapses from his civic and other duties. The royal party was due to arrive at Windsor castle early this afternoon to spend White-tide. Not arriving on time, it was learned that there had been a scene in Buckingham palace between the king and queen. For a long time the queen refused to accompany the king. Shortly after 5 o'clock she was fairly hustled into an automobile and the royal journey Windsorward began.

Tonight it was stated that the queen was angry with the king because Saturday morning shortly after 2 o'clock his majesty left Buckingham palace and drove to the house of one of his friends at Portman square. His majesty did not return to Buckingham palace until late Saturday morning, when a scene ensued between their majesties, concluding with the queen's declaration that she would not go to Windsor. The queen's absence from Windsor castle would have caused awkward gossip, which the king always seeks to avoid.

FIRE BELL TO CALL SELLWOOD TO SEEK LOST BESSIE BAUER

Unless Bessie Bauer is found by the searchers before 9 o'clock this morning the Sellwood fire bell will be rung, the population of the town will be summoned together and sent out en masse to spend the entire day scouring the woods south of Riverview cemetery in search of the missing girl.

who was in charge of the party, stationed them at vantage points along the riverside drive, through the woods at points where she might be expected to seek shelter or water and along the edge of the foothills. The searchers lay in hiding all night, where they could command a view of the surrounding country yet not be seen. Detective Hartman acted upon the theory that the young woman, if made to believe that the search had been abandoned, would work her way out into the open and might be caught.

NO GAMBLING GAMES CAN BE STARTED IN BILLINGS, MONTANA

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Billings, Mont., June 7.—People of this town are determined to squelch the gambling fraternity so effectually that they will not dare to lift their heads in the community again.

The Citizens' league has adopted resolutions pledging itself to vigorously prosecute any one who may try to conduct a gambling game or slot machine for every separate offense. Public-spirited citizens declare that Billings will not tolerate gambling any more, especially during the presence of the expected visitors, being determined to make the best impression possible upon prospective settlers to induce them to come to this locality.

DEEDS SENT PUTER WERE TO SCHOOL LANDS

But Finley Morrison Says He is Willing to Show All the Records.

The deeds which were sent by Finley Morrison to S. A. D. Puter in the registered envelope which followed the fugitive through the middle west at the time of his first flight in May, 1883, and now in the possession of United States District Attorney Bristol, were deeds for school lands. They were for the west one-half of the east one-half of section 16, range 22 south, 12 east, and south one-half of southeast one-fourth of section 28, range 22 south, 10 east. They had been executed by William B. Thorsen of Tuolumne, California, and were in payment of a debt to Puter.

SURVEY IS ORDERED ON LINE TO SKEENA RIVER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Victoria, B. C., June 7.—A survey party of 18 has gone to Prince Rupert, the Pacific terminus of the Grand Trunk Pacific, to survey a route eastward from the transcontinental railway. They will locate a line on Kalien Island on which Prince Rupert is located, and continue it on the mainland to Skeena river. It is believed the line may cross the Skeena river at Kitlaas canyon and continue on the south side of the river to Hazelton.

MINERS' EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETS MONDAY

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) Indianapolis, Ind., June 7.—The national executive board of the miners' union in the anthracite field is summoned to meet here Monday. The reason is unknown, but the rumor that John Mitchell is to resign is scouted.

Say "Butter-Nut" To Your Grocer

And get good bread. Those who are tired of ordinary bakers' bread will appreciate the kind we bake. We have studied the bread question thoroughly, and are satisfied that the product of the Butter-Nut Bread Co.'s bakery is as near perfection as it's possible to make it. A loaf will show you the difference. The bread's unusually good flavor will linger in your memory, and you will undoubtedly specify it again when ordering.

Remember that there are imitations of Butter-Nut Bread—that's because it's so good—and to be sure to get the genuine article buy none without this label printed in blue.

MRS. LONGWORTH IN GOOD HUMOR

"ON OUR HONEYMOON AT LAST" SAYS NICHOLAS

Congressman Declares Trip Has No Significance Other Than Continuation of Wedding Tour Which Has Extended Over World.

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) New York, June 7.—"Well, at last we are on our honeymoon," said Nicholas Longworth to an American reporter after he had given a dozen or more newspaper and "kodak" men on the upper deck of the St. Louis a half hour before she left the dock of the American line this morning. Longworth entered into a compact to pose for the photographers and induced Mrs. Longworth to face the brigade. She skipped lightly upon the deck, bowed smilingly right and left and consented cheerfully to face the cameras. "Now, wasn't I good?" Mrs. Longworth asked when the last "click" had clicked.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth had spent the night prior to the ship's departure on board. They had been the guests of the Cornelius Vanderbilts at the New York theatre to see "His Honor the Mayor," and after a supper they had been driven to the steamer by the Vanderbilts. No personal friends visited the steamer as she went off, but a quantity of flowers arrived for them.

The suite the Longworths are occupying numbers 20 and 22, and is on the starboard side aft. A wedding trip. "Really this trip has no significance at all," said Mr. Longworth, "other than a wedding journey. In London we will be entertained by Ambassador and Mrs. Reid and a number of dinners and receptions will be given us. Whether we will meet the king I cannot say. "Does not the thought of meeting the king of England and the emperor of Germany impress you a bit?" "Why, not at all," said Mrs. Longworth, "I am an American, and I am not in the least impressed by the king of England or the emperor of Germany. "Our London visit," he continued, "will last two weeks, after which we will leave for Paris where we will be the guests of my sister and her husband, the Countess and Count de Chambun. As the count has a touring car we will pass a good deal of the time on little trips near Paris, going to see the Riviera, and of course to Monte Carlo." It is said that during their Berlin visit the Longworths will be received by Emperor William and that Mrs. Longworth will thank him personally for the beautiful jeweled bracelet which he sent her as a wedding gift.

Will Not Visit Russia. "We will not visit Russia," Mr. Longworth said emphatically. The decision not to include Russia in the wedding tour rests with the intimate friends between Mr. Longworth, Miss Roosevelt and the Countess Cassini, who was reported at one time engaged to Mr. Longworth and who became estranged from the two after the engagement of the young congressman to the President's daughter was announced.

Concerning politics, Mr. Longworth said: "I expect to run for congress again after the expiration of my term next year. I will be back for the congressional convention of my district, which will be held during the first part of September. Theodore Roosevelt is in the field against me, and I am behind B. Cox behind him. He is a jolly good fellow, but I am still in the running." "Do you intend to remain in politics to make your career for good and all?" Mr. Longworth replied: "I am in politics as a matter of course, but I am never sure of their next year's nest. I like politics immensely, but have no doubts of a career. I am still young enough to let the future take care of itself. When we return we will go to Cincinnati, where we will make our home."

The Longworths will return on August 2. An alleged friend of an Italian anarchist to blow up the steamship St. Louis and incidentally the Longworths brought to the pier a half score of policemen who made a vain search for the would-be bomb thrower. So far as known no big claims on buildings carrying risks in several companies have been settled. These are awaiting what the underwriters vaguely term "adjustments." Nor have the companies yet touched brick buildings or structures known to have been destroyed by dynamite. There are questions of law affecting such claims which it is expected will be made the subject of test cases.

SUFFRAGISTS TO HOLD FINAL MEETING TODAY

A meeting in the interest of equal suffrage will be held in the Marquam theatre this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. An interesting program has been arranged for the occasion. Addresses will be delivered by a number of prominent speakers, including Rev. Anna M. Shaw, Mrs. J. H. Jones, Judge Rufus Mallory and others. There will be no admission and everyone is invited to attend.

UNION MEETING VOTES IN FAVOR OF WORD

At a large union meeting of Republicans and Democrats at Sylvan last night the spirit was overwhelmingly in favor of Tom Word for reelection to the office of sheriff. Speeches were made by Senator C. W. Nottingham, Bruce Wolverton and John Bain, secretary of the Municipal association of Portland. The audience was enthusiastic and cheered every time the name of Word was mentioned.

Had Been Before the Judge. "We all have our burdens to bear," remarked the minister. "Life at best is but a series of trials." "I don't mind the trials, parson," said Senator Smoot. "It's the conviction that hurts."

INSURANCE PAYMENTS IN AIR

Uncertainty Prevails Both on the Part of Companies and Insured—Some Concerns Offering to Settle at Discount

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) San Francisco, June 7.—Six weeks have rolled by since the devastated district of this city was devastated by fire and the insurance situation is still in the air. Until the insurance companies say the word no man knows where he stands.

A few losses have been paid. Some of the wealthy corporations, eastern and foreign, have settled individual losses, dollar for dollar, but these involved only one company each and were upon frame buildings that withstood the earthquake and succumbed only to the spreading conflagration. So far as known no big claims on buildings carrying risks in several companies have been settled. These are awaiting what the underwriters vaguely term "adjustments." Nor have the companies yet touched brick buildings or structures known to have been destroyed by dynamite. There are questions of law affecting such claims which it is expected will be made the subject of test cases.

The insurance men themselves have no data from which to estimate their liabilities. They contend that a certain amount of damage was done by the earthquake and they propose, if they can, to make deductions for this. It has been hard to obtain evidence and the insurance men are reminded that they will not be permitted to make deductions where the damage not caused by fire did not reduce the value of the building to an amount below the face of the policy.

A fire underwriters' adjusting bureau has been established here and in Oakland, and its hundred and odd members are discussing the earthquake proposition daily. It has been suggested to make an estimate of earthquake damage by striking an average, say, for example, 15 per cent, and treat all alike.

THE VELVET SECRET IS FREE TO YOU

THE LONGER THE LESSER—A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY After many years of study and practice a prominent Virginia physician has discovered the cure for all forms of Constipation. It is called Chase's Constipation Tablet. It does not mean, said the Virginia Doctor to several of his colleagues announcing his success—that this is a fake cure-all, guaranteed to cure every thing from pimples to paralysis, neither do I mean just another pill which breeds a new appetite for breakers and one thing—specific which never fails. By gently toning the digestive organs so that they perform their natural functions. It restores them all to health and strength, relieves immediately and in a short time cures Constipation.

THE MORE THE LESS

The more you take the less you need until you need none. For you are cured. My effort all along was to avoid the evil of the ordinary remedy which pumps organs already weak and so makes the patient a slave to the pill. Remember—Nature expects every organ to do its duty. Physicians have long recognized the fact that constipation is at the bottom of nearly every disease. It seeps all seery, and makes life a burden; it opens the doors to all evil germs and makes the body too weak to resist them.

THE VELVET WORKER

Don't shuffle along with this great burden! Be healthy, be strong, be happy. This new discovery is in small tablets, easily taken, and they are packed in watch-shape bottles which fit the vest pocket. The tablet is mild, all vegetable, never irritates or injures the most delicate organs. But it does the work! So naturally and soothingly they stimulate and regulate and strengthen that they have been nicknamed "The Little Velvet Workers."

LIFE WORTH LIVING

When a man's liver is working properly, the bowels are regular and the kidneys are active and healthy, what a joy it is to live. You get up in the morning feeling rested and bright after a good night's sleep, with a keen appetite for breakfast and healthy relief for each mouthful, and when you go out the air smells good and you fill your lungs with pleasure; the sun shines, the birds sing, your every sense is acute and appreciative, the blood bounds through your veins, carrying life and activity to every minute cell and tissue, your hopes are high, your mind clear, your spirits high, you step buoyant, and you ask God that everything is so beautiful and that it is so good to live, that everything is so beautiful and that it is so good to live, that everything is so beautiful and that it is so good to live, that everything is so beautiful and that it is so good to live.

FREE TRIAL OFFER

To any reader who sends us his or her name and address with five stamps to cover postage expenses, we will at once mail a full size 2-cent bottle of Chase's Constipation Tablets, the velvet worker that saves. Not a sample, mind, but a full-size 2-cent bottle. Let us prove it to you. Write today, addressing CHASE MFG. CO., 323 Third Ave., Brooklyn, New York.
