WEATHER REPORT.

The barometer is falling in western Oregon and western Washington, and a low area is evidently approaching the north Pacific coast from the ocean. Low pressure areas are also noted over Utah and Saskatchewan. This unsettled condition in the west has resulted in light showers in California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, northern Utah, Montana, the Dakotas and the Mississippi valley. The Atlantic high pressure area has moved south, and it is evidently central this morning near Cape Hatteras. The changes in temperature since yesterday have been small and unimportant. In the western states it is generally cooler than usual, while in the eastern states the temperatures are slightly above normal.

The conditions are favorable for showers in this district tonight and Wednesday, with no marked changes in temperature.

Observations taken at 5 a. m., Pacific time.

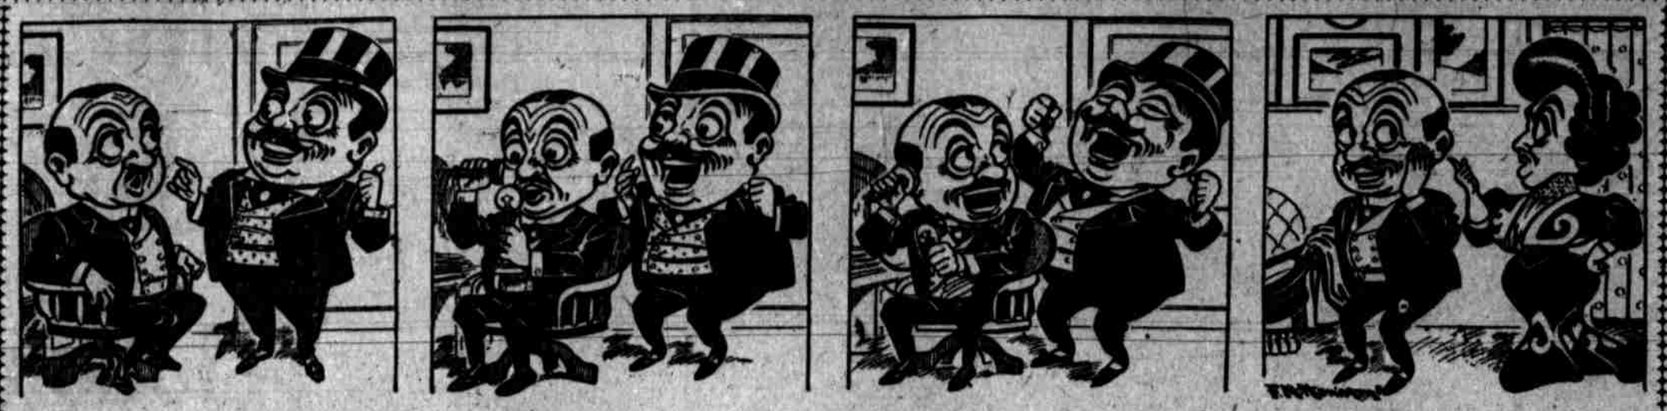
AIN'T MEN THE WRETCHES?

Copyright, 1906, by American-Journal-Examiner.



1.—MR. ROUNDER—Say, old man, we've a great lark on for to-night. Vanderboose has lost a bet of a dinner, with wine, for five. After the dinner we're going to see the Thirtieth Century Maids' Burlesque. Come, get a move on you—you are one of the five.

2.—MR. SNOOKS—Gee whiz! I can't go. My wife expects me home to dinner. But, wait a minute. I'll see what I can do over the 'phone. Is that you, Clara? Clara, five very swell customers have just come in, and I am going to bring them home to dinner.

3.—MRS. SNOOKS'S VOICE OVER THE 'PHONE—John Snooks, are you crazy! What are you thinking of? How do you think I can be prepared for five guests at a moment's notice? You must be insane. Don't bring them home here, as you value your future happiness. TAKE THEM TO A RESTAURANT.

4.—MRS. SNOOKS—John Snooks, I just waited up to-night to see whether you were crazy or not. The very idea of your notifying me you were going to bring five men home to dinner! Don't you ever startle me that way again. Do you understand? Restaurants are the places to take customers to dinner. See?

MR. SNOOKS (meekly)—All right, dear, I'll remember.
