Rev. Arthur H. Smith, D. D., for many years a missionary of the Congregational church in China, is passing through this city and will deliver an address on his work and experience at the Sunnyside Congregational church, East Taylor and East Thirty-fourth streets, this evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. Smith is at once an acknowledged authority on the Chinese people and a speaker of marvelous cloquence and power.

The local council of the Order of Pendo has elected the following officers: Mrs. A. E. Joplin, past councilor; Mrs. M. E. Drew, councilor; Mrs. J. Johnson, vice-councilor; Mrs. R. L. Moudy, secretary; Edward Kuston, secretary; Mrs. Z. Gregory, chaplain; F. C. Harter, guide; F. Reutheman, sentinel; Mrs. A. Reutheman, musician.

A committee composed of F. A. Goudy, Paul Custer and O. W. Taylor was appointed at a board of trade meeting last evening to make a canvass among business men and ascertain whether they want a big celebration of the Fourth of July in Portland. If a celebration is desired the board will cooperate. It was reported at the meeting that a number of eastern concerns eygaged in manufacturing would locate on this coast, where there are convenient supplies of raw materials, if the federal tax is removed from denaturalised alcohol. The board will ask, senators and congressmen to assist in an effort to remove the tax.

Judge C. H. Carey appeared before the ways and means committee of the council yesterday afternoon in behalf of the Northern Pacific, which has petilloned for the vacation of several streets near the terminal yards. With the exception of Lovejoy, Overton and pettygrove, the alphabetically named streets from Hoyt to Raleigh and from Tenth to Tweifth are wanted by the railway for warehouses purposes, Maps and diagrams were shown the councilmen, the conference being informal, and no recommendations being made.

Plans have been made by the board of governors of the Portland Commercial club to go forward with the building of the club's new $250,000 home at Fifth and Oak streets. At a meeting held yesterday afternoon it was decided that a committee of bondholders, of which F. W. Leadhetter will be president, will construct the building, under a contract with the board of governors, and when completed will be formally turned over to the latter body legally representing the club.

Water through hose for sprinkling yards or eidewalks, or washing porches or windows, must be paid for in advance and used only between the hours of 5 and 8 a. m. and 5 and 9 p. m. It must not be used for sprinkling streets. If used contrary to these rules, or wastefully, it will be shut off.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Relief society was held yesterday in the First Presbyterian church. Reports from the Children's home showed it to be in excellent condition. Nineteen children from the home received $1 each for riding in the "Made in Oregon" parade.

The water department will receive water rates at 528 Umatilia avenue, Seilwood, and 742 Dawson street, University Park, next Wednesday and Thursday, from $130 a. m. to 4:30 p. m., from these who may prefer to pay at those places instead of at the regular water offices.

Fillmore Tyson, chief of the fire de-partment of Louisville, Kentucky, is in Portland accompanied by one of his cap-tains. They are inspecting the appa-ratus in use here, being especially inter-ested in the fireboat.

The ruins of the old Kadderly building on the northeast corner of Grand avenue and East Oak streets was sold today for $15,000. The lot is 100 by 90 and a new building will undoubtedly replace the ruins. The property was owned by Dan J. Malarkey and Roger B. Sinnott and the sale was made by E. J.

NOW FORGET POLITICS

Say, boys, let us pull off our coats and go at it for good. Continuing to build the greatest town that ever stood Upon the broad Pacific shore or in the mighty west. Contented pair when we're reached the fruitful station, "BEST."

When we built up this laundry to its present bigh estate
We spat upon our fingers and we opened wide the gate.
And should that we'd never rest till we stood at the bend—
We're there, but, bless you, often have our calloused fingers bled.

now forget your politics and "let's get in and dig," spleaded, sparkling Portland with its heart so grand and big— city that our brothers and our sisters never rost until they've come it elegance to share.

Every locomotive and car fit to be run is being called out and a number of extra freight trains will be runshed over the lines. A very large amount of passenger and freight business has been diverted to the Northern Pacific during the flood troubles.

Articles of incorporation of the Laurelwood Congregational church of Arleta have been filed in the county clerk's office by S. D. Briggs, Charles G. James and B. B. Kavanaugh. The articles state that the object of the incorporation is the ordinary purpose of a church organization and that the church property is valued at $1. The sources of revenue are collections and subscriptions.

THE COURT AGAINST THEM.

A Decision That Compels Henry Jen-ning & Sons to Secrifice a Large Part of the Firm's Stock of Furniture.

of the Pirm's Stock of Purniture.

A legal tangle over the occupancy of one half of the premises occupied by Henry Jenning & Sons at First and Yamhill, as heretofore stated, has been ended adverse to the Jenning people and one half of the firm's present store must be vacated so that the new tenant may have possession on the morning of June 15. That part of the store to be retained by the firm contains all the furniture it will hold at present, so that the full contents of the part to be abandoned must be gotten rid of without delay. To accomplish this startling reductions are announced in all departments, the idea being to attract immediate response to the advertisements of the house being published now. Persons in need of furniture, carpets, ranges or heating stoves, or any other class of goods sold by furniture establishments, would, it would appear, consult their best interests by supplying their wants while this battle with time is on. There are but eight days more of it. are but eight days more of it.

Who Wants Fine Organs?

When we found, on June 1, that we might retain possessing for a few days longer we consented to sell for customers who bought new pianos of us their fine parlor organs. These people effected a big saving in the purchase price of their pianos, and having no use for the organs, have instructed us to sell them at a price far below their actual value. Burthermore, you can buy them on terms of $5, yes, $4 down, and $5 or even less a month. Fine Kimbails, Esteys, Burdettes, Mason & Hamlins, Taylor & Farleys and others are among them.

Meanwhile we have also a nice stock of new instruments, all of which may be obtained during the closing days of our sale at less than dealers' wholesale prices. Store open evenings, Ellers Plano House, $51 Washington street.

The weekly meeting of Sunday school teachers to be held at the Y. M. C. A next Satupday, 12:15 to 1 p. m., will be of unusual interest and all interested should make an effort to be present. Rev. D. H. Hars will conduct the les-

AT THE THEATRES.

Kendall Musical Company.

The whole town is going to welcome the advent of musical comedy and light opera at the Heilig theatre. It opens with the "The Rounders," produced by the Kendall musical company sunday night, june 10. A chorus of the people, with Lettle Kendall as the star and Bessie Tannehill, the Tivoli prima donna, in the cost as one of the principals, some Post. the cast as one of the principals, some Portland society girls in the chorus, certainly a company to make good and immensely entertain the public is what may be expected. There will be a change of bill each week and popular prices will be the rule. The sale of seats will open Friday moraing at 10 e'clock at the Heilig theatre. Fourteenth and Washington streets. Popular prices will prevail. Evenings. 25, 35, 50 cents; matinees, 15 and 25 cents.

Miss Lawrence as Roma.

Roma, that beautiful and tortured woman of the "The Eternal City," taken so beautifully and artistically by Miss Lillian Lawrence this week at 'he Raker theatre, is a character to remember forever. Held in the wicked tolis of a pittless prime minister, she loves Rossi, the liberator of the Italian people, and she wanta, above all, to save his life. She is decelved, hoodwinked, brought to complete despair. She acknowledges murder in order to save her lover, and still he is allowed to think her faithless. The situations are the strongest possible and the chances fast and furious for Miss Lawrence to show her audiences the strength and facility of her acting. She makes a profound impression on everybody and her exquisite beauty and charm add to her remarkable performance. Owing to the length of the play the evening curtain will rise at $10.

VAUDEVILLE AND STOCK.

At the Lyric.

The melodramatic success, "A Convict's Wife," as its name tadicates, is a story of convict life, carrying with it the vicinsitudes of a man with a past and his noble efforts to live it down, which is rendered most different on account of the acts of designing enemies, who constantly dog his steps. Taking it all in all, the production is one of merit and should be seen to be appreciated. The illustrated songs and moving pictures by Joe Thompson are in line for favorite mention.
