

FIGHTING MEN IN THE METROPOLIS

New York Sports Enjoying Novelty of Pulling Off Real Prize Fights.

M'GOVERN'S SHOWING SURPRISED MR. BRITT

Splendid Showing of Cornell's Athletes Calls for Congratulations for the Men From Ithaca—Columbia May Play Football This Season.

By Manhattan. (Special Service.)

New York, June 8.—The fighting name is certainly in our midst. With the Terry McGovern-Jimmy Britt and the Gus Rubin-Sandy Ferguson goes the first night, followed by Young Corbett's fight the next night, to say nothing of the daily goes at the various "clubs," we are ahead of San Francisco in the prizefight days of fighting.

W may expect before long to have regular 20-round bouts between all the top-notchers unless the courts are called in and decide the whole business a violation of the law and stop it. It will depend in a large measure on the conduct of the fighters and fight promoters whether or not this is done. There is in New York a vast population which would like to see first-class fights conducted in a proper manner. The showing made by Terry McGovern against Britt was a surprise to everybody here. I had never seen Britt in the ring, and confess that he was a disappointment. McGovern is not within 50 per cent of his old-time form. Had he been, the Californian would not have lasted half a dozen rounds.

I see Gus Rubin has taken on new front since he bested Ferguson and is insistent in his desire to meet any of the many heavyweight near-champions. It's a great pity some of the claimants to the title do not get together. Gus is probably as good as any of them, and that is not saying a great deal.

Feeling for Bob. I must confess to a warm feeling for old Bob Fitzsimmons, and he has my good wishes whenever he goes into the ring. He is a fighter from the tap of the tongue. The old man is getting a little in years, full 10 years past the usual retiring age in the ring, but any man who gets into the ring with the Cornishman knows he had been to the wars, and this applies to all of them from Jeffries down.

Cornell probably still is at the old stand at Ithaca, but it would be justified if it was not. When the track team of a college takes the intercollegiate championship by a long margin and the crew beats out Harvard with ease, there is justification for almost anything. Cornell has always taken a higher place in athletics of all kinds than her position as compared with the other big universities would justify. The probable explanation of it is that the great body of Cornell undergraduates are of the class who go to college for a definite purpose. They mean business and they carry the habit into their sports as well as their studies. It must be galling to Harvard and Yale that they finished third and fourth, while the feelings of the sons of old Niagara when Princeton finished way down among the also rans may be better imagined than put on paper.

Harvard Has Hopes. Harvard hopes to get even in some measure by beating out Yale in the boat race on June 18. While beaten by Cornell by the Harvard crew shows indications of being the best the Cambridgeites have had in several years.

This week, and probably most of next, the Harvard crew will work on the Charles. The last of next week they will go to Red Top for their final preparations for the race. It is customary for the crew to spend about three weeks there, putting on the finishing touches and getting the men acclimated, so that they will be in good trim for the race.

All of the men are in the best of condition, and the progress of the crew toward winning form in the race with Yale should be steady. From now on they will begin to take longer rows daily. The last week and a half has been spent in training them for short distance, and they have not gone the full course distance in two weeks. With the second crew, the variety will row over the longer course on the Charles, so that the men will be in trim for the hard four-mile pull on the Thames.

There is a chance that Columbia may have football after all. The three committees appointed by President Butler to investigate the athletic situation at the university are busy discussing the question of the resumption of the game and it is not unlikely that football will be favorably reported on.

The student committee, which represents the general body of undergraduates, is strongly for the reinstatement of the game next fall. The faculty committee is at the other extreme, fighting to kill the game entirely. Half way between the two the graduates propose a compromise advocating the resumption of the game in 1927.

The students expect that the suggestions will be anothered, and in order to accomplish anything they will do the next best thing and swing over to the side of the graduates.

Should the joint committee report in favor of restoring football in 1927, the report will go to President Butler. According to the action taken by the university council last fall, the president has final say as to what will be done. Although it is known that he is against the game, the students believe he will not go against the graduates on that score, particularly as there are many influential men, graduates of Columbia, on the committee.

SPORTING GOSSIP.

That Polish girl who is in a trance ought to get a job with Jimmy Collins' Boston Americans.

Muggsy McGraw was arrested in Pittsburg for assaulting a boy. If they should ever get out an injunction to prevent his making any kind of trouble it would deprive Muggsy of his occupation.

Isbell of Chicago stole third twice and home once in a game against the Highlanders. Isbell takes all he can get. He is a plumbler by trade, you know.

Rube Waddell doesn't propose that the Liberty Bell shall have anything on him. To combine all the attractions has put a crack in his thumb.

The breed of thoroughbreds in the Argentine Republic are sure to be heard from. They are searching the world for the best sires, and the matter of coat cuts no figure when they make up their mind they want a horse. The recent purchase of Diamond Jubilee from the king's stud for $120,000 has been followed by the purchase of the great Flying Fox colt Jardy from M. Edmond Blan, paying the enormous price of $150,000.

Some interesting facts have just been made public concerning the amount spent by the various foreign governments on the breeding of horses.

In France the amount is $1,640,000; Germany, $850,000; Austria, $700,000; and Italy, $520,000. Russia spends an enormous sum, but the figures are not obtainable. The same is true of Turkey. The Sultan has four large state studs. The tendency is to increase the appropriations for this purpose. The various governments regard it as a good investment from an economic standpoint. It improves the breed of native horses and makes the procuring of cavalry reinforcements easier.

W. W. W. is now at the head of the list of winning jockeys in Germany, with O'Connor, the American, in third place.

Danny Maher does not appear to be riding up to his usual form this season. He stands fifth in the list on winning mounts and third in percentage of wins.

W. K. Vanderbilt continues his winning career on the French turf. In France he has one of the very best horses of the year in France, and there are other grand horses in his string which will keep him well to the front of the season's winners. An accident to Rausch, his premier jockey, which will keep him out of the saddle for a couple of weeks, has handicapped the stable somewhat, but he is still winning races.

Pianolas Must Go Too. Why don't you secure a Pianola—either a slightly used one or one of the very latest Metrostyle? Everything must go at once. Payments as you choose. Eilers Piano House, 351 Washington street.

ENTRIES FOR HUNT CLUB RACES

Riders Are Busy Getting Into Form for Saturday's Race Meeting.

WILL BE BIGGEST CARD EVER RUN BY CLUB

If Weather Conditions Are Favorable Irvington Will See the Largest Crowd in the History of Local Organization.

The only matter that has been definitely arranged for Saturday's Hunt club meet is the weather. This morning President Downing received word from the weather bureau that rain would cease falling by Thursday noon and that Saturday would be the finest day of the entire month. This news is very welcome to the Hunt club riders, who have been in constant training for the meet, and most of them require a dry day in order to do their best jockeying. A wet and heavy track will have its drawbacks and as there will be some rapid time made in the racing it is to be hoped that the track will be fast.

The relay riders have been at work for some time getting accustomed to the tricks and turns that will ensue during their race, and today Captains Leadbetter and Tanner announced that each rider has been thoroughly drilled and that the teams are complete and ready to start. The chief difficulty in this race will be the work required in getting the horses stopped within the required space and returning them to the original starting place. Several of the horses are hard to manage and it will give the riders all that they can do to get their animals stopped and turned in time.

On account of a number of the members entering more than one horse in two events it will require some time before the official list is made up for publication. As near as can be learned the following riders and horses will start:

Three eighths dash, 150 pounds—J. C. Muehs on Bedad, C. H. Leadbetter on Barnato, Scott Brooks on Joe Jewett, Henry Metzger on Cricket, James Alexander on Ladies L, Dr. Chapman on Queen. Bonita is also entered in this race.

Five eighths run, 160 pounds—C. H. Leadbetter on Slimy, J. C. Muehs on Tom Fox, E. B. Tongue on John Boggs, Thomas Tongue on Mike Wisdom. Call Bond is also entered.

Seven eighths run, 160 pounds—Ralph Jenkins on Will Wehrung, E. B. Tongue on Our Choice, E. M. Lasarus on Paul Jones, W. G. McRae on Oregon Sun.

Two mile race, 165 pounds—C. H. Leadbetter on J. H. Bennett, E. M. Lasarus on Morengo, E. B. Tongue on Oregon Kid, F. W. Leadbetter on Raefco, C. H. Muehs on Vines, D. L. Leadbetter on Bob Crawford.

One quarter mile dash, each to weigh at least 200 pounds and to carry no weight—Dr. Emmet Drake on Delmonico, W. M. Davis on Waldorf Cavalry, D. A. Pattullo on Rev. Raven Splinta, J. A. Horan on Irish Lad.

The odds that prevailed on Tuesday did not change over night and the chances are that they will be post prices.

WOLFEY CURE

Cures Kidney and Bladder Diseases in Every Form—Many People Have Kidney Trouble and Do Not Know It.

HOW TO FIND OUT. It is the function of the kidneys to filter and purify the blood which is constantly passing through them.

When the kidneys are out of order the other organs are affected immediately and you may have symptoms of heart trouble, stomach and liver trouble, and other ailments, which are all owing to the kidneys being weak and out of order.

If you are sick Wolfey's Kidney Cure will strengthen and build up the worn out tissues of the kidneys so they will act properly and the symptoms of weakness, heart, stomach and liver trouble will disappear and you will be restored to perfect health.

HOW TO FIND OUT. You can easily determine if your kidneys are out of order by setting aside for 24 hours a bottle of the urine passed upon arising. If upon examination it is cloudy or milky or has a brick-dust sediment or small particles float about in it, your kidneys are diseased and Wolfey's Kidney Cure should be taken at once.

Wolfey's Kidney Cure is pleasant to take and acts directly upon the parts affected and you begin to feel better at once. It corrects slight disorders in a few days and it has cured many obstinate cases after other treatment had failed.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live. Peter Frey, of Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month, as there was no cure for me. Wolfey's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it and after taking three bottles I began to get better and continued to improve until I was entirely well."

OLDEST JOCKEY GOES INTO RETIREMENT

(Special Service.) White River Junction, Vt., June 8.—After holding the ribbons over some of the bestest steppers in the country for about 25 years, or since he was 4 years old, "Uncle Charlie" Taylor, the oldest horse jockey in the world, has retired from the track and will not enter another race. The centenarian horseman, who is easily the most remarkable physical specimen of old age alive today, declares he is not an old man in the strict meaning of the word, and the only thing that aches is his sensitive. While it may be almost impossible to credit it, the old man can hurdle a fence five feet in height, kick a hat from the head of a six-footer, run a clip which would distance many men 50 years younger than he is, do a hard day's work, jump across a brook and perform many stunts which would put young men to shame.

BOSTON CATCHER IS A MORPHINE FIEND

(Special Service.) Boston, June 8.—Tired looking and emaciated, Lou Criger, the Boston American league catcher, arrived in this city to undergo a special course of treatment. Criger traveled alone, and it was a severe test to his worn and pain-racked body, being 24 hours on the road. Regarding Criger's condition, Dr. Christian said: "He is a very sick man and all run down. The pains which continually rack his body caused him to resort to the use of morphine, which in turn, has completed the work started by the disease, thereby ravaging his former excellent physique."

RAIN PREVENTS GAME AT RECREATION PARK

Rain prevented another game at Recreation Park yesterday. Manager Dillon and his men are here ready to take a crack at the Giants, but the weather will not permit. The local diamond is a mass of mud and the chances for a game today are very small.

QUEENS OLD SORE.

Westmoreland, Kan., May 5, 1922.—Railroad Snow Lintment Company—Your Snow Lintment cured an old sore on the side of my chin that was supposed to be cancer. The sore was stubborn and would not yield to treatment, until I tried Snow Lintment, which did the work in short order. My sister, Mrs. Sophie J. Carson, Allensville, Mifflin county, Pennsylvania, has a sore and mistreated that it is cancer. Please send her a 5-cent bottle. Sold by Woodward, Clark & Co.

ALL TRAINS RUN REGULARLY

Traffic Resumed on Lines Into Pendleton, All Evidence of the Flood Gone.

MERCHANTS LOSE MUCH STOCK IN BASEMENTS

Every Available Force Employed by Railroads in Removing Traces of Highest Water Ever Experienced in the History of Umatilla County.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Pendleton, Or., June 8.—This city has been almost isolated from communication with the outside world by the flood of Tuesday, May 23. Though the property loss was heavy for a number of people in the district affected, the loss is not great considering the depth of water in places and the amount of territory the flood covered.

The water was higher in the Umatilla river than ever before in its history, but the flood could have been prevented had there been floodgates placed, as most of the water came from the river at the end of the Byers mill tailrace. This water prevented the western part of the city from being flooded, also the sections of the principal part of the city that were affected.

All precautions are being taken to prevent sickness which might result from pools of water remaining in parts of the city.

Basements Cleared. Nearly all basements have been cleaned out. Merchants will suffer considerably, as all had goods stored in basements in the course of the year. The city will again be in its normal order.

Eastern Oregon was praying for rain and most of the higher sections have been benefited. Wheat is reported in excellent condition. Only parts of Umatilla county were affected, the lower places along the Umatilla river, Pendleton, the Milton-Fraswater creek, along the Walla Walla river, and Winton were somewhat affected, the latter by Wild Horse creek overflowing.

Trains Running. Trains are again running on all lines and the traveler would never know that a flood had visited this section. This is the quickest resumption of business after such a destructive flood in the history of railroading in the west.

All available forces of the system have been at work on repairs in this county. Strains as it may seem there was absolutely no damage on tracks east of Kamela, as the water was as heavy on the east side of the mountains as on the west, apparently, but the streams on the east side were not swollen perceptibly.

WILLAMETTE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION CONVENES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) McMinnville, Or., June 8.—The fifth annual meeting of the West Willamette Baptist association convened in the First Baptist church Monday evening and will continue until this evening. Rev. H. Douglas, of Independence, is moderator. The principal feature of the opening session was a sermon by Rev. W. B. Pope, general missionary of Oregon.

Yesterday's session began at 9 o'clock with devotional service led by Rev. S. C. Nielsen, Danish Baptist church, McMinnville. Letters from the churches of the association were read. The principal topic of the morning was "The Joyous Meeting," a discussion being led by Rev. J. W. Stockton of Amity.

The afternoon was taken up with the women's and young people's sessions. The former was addressed by Rev. A. W. Rice, of Oakland, California, and Dr. Emma Park, a former missionary in Burma. The young people's session was addressed by Pastor Orr of Yamhill and Pastor C. H. Hewitt of Dayton.

In the evening, J. A. Clark, editor of the Pacific Baptist, addressed the young people.

Delegates are present from the following churches: Newberg, Dayton, Carlton, Amity, Independence, Corvallis and Yamhill. Quite a number of visitors are attending.

SPOKANE ORGANIZATION FAVORS OWNERSHIP

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Spokane, Wash., June 8.—Municipal ownership of an electric light plant for Spokane is the object which the recently organized Referendum league will soon set about to accomplish. The executive committee has been considering means for accomplishing this purpose and several city councilmen have been approached on the subject. It is said they are in favor of the work. The committee is preparing an ordinance providing for municipal ownership of the electric light plant. The city council will be called upon to vote on it. If the city fathers balk the league will demand that the question be referred to the people at a special election.

The league has recruited about 2,500 members, the list containing names of many prominent business men who are in favor of the measures adopted by the league.
