

SWANLON IS NOT GREEN ISL

(Continued from Page One.) Puter believes that he may yet escape final punishment for his crimes. It is his purpose, he says, to set himself right before the people of Portland and of Oregon if it is possible to do so. He expresses regret that his friends in Portland should read so much about him as a criminal and a fugitive from justice.

"This is a deplorable condition for a man, but it is not my endeavor to fix it up the best I can," he said. Puter was convicted of conspiring to defraud the United States of public lands in December, 1924. At the same time McKinley, Mrs. Elizabeth Watson, Dan Tarpley and Frank Wagoner were also convicted of the same charge.

Sentence was postponed and Puter became an important witness for the government in a number of land fraud cases. He was placed under bonds of $4,000, but was later permitted to substitute for the bond another with two residents of California as bondsmen. The documents were never filed in this city. It was largely through Puter's testimony that the late Senator Mitchell was convicted.

Shortly after the trial of Senator Mitchell, Puter went east and did not return until today. Some eight or nine months ago rumors were circulated of wholesale frauds in state school land certificates and investigation traced the operations to McKinley, Puter and confederates. Puter and McKinley are said to have realized over $100,000 in a few months by means of forged and counterfeit land certificates.

According to United States District Attorney Bristol, Puter will be brought before the court for sentence at once.

AD MEN'S LEAGUE PRAISED BY MANUFACTURERS

Communication Expressing Appreciation of Made in Oregon Fair Sent to Dasent.

Thirty members of the Ad Men's league met last night in the Chamber of Commerce to sign in the affairs of the "Made in Oregon" exposition, which was held under the league's patronage. The following letter was read at the meeting:

"Mr. Bury I. Dasent, President Portland Ad Men's League, Portland, Oregon—Dear Sir—At a meeting of the directors of this association held on the 6th inst. the undersigned was instructed to address to you a communication expressing our appreciation of the effective work of the Portland Ad Men's League in co-operating and carrying out the recent 'Made in Oregon' movement.

Realizing as we do the great value of a movement of this kind to the entire community, as also directly to our manufacturers, we feel called upon to express our appreciation in the strongest terms, and we sincerely trust that there may accrue to your league, as also individually to its members, some measure of benefit as a result of the splendid work undertaken and consummated by you very truly,

COLE H. MCISAAC, Secretary. The league will co-operate heartily in any preparation for a big celebration of the Fourth of July. Some matters still to be attended to in connection with the recent fair will be discussed of soon and the league then will hold a smoker and congratulatory party.

ST. HELEN'S HALL GRADUATES CLASS THIS WEEK

Fourteen Young Women to Receive Diplomas Upon Concluding Course of Study.

Announcements are out for the thirty-seventh annual commencement at St. Helen's hall, next week. The first feature of the exercises was the studio reception and exhibition of drawings this afternoon, which continued from 3 to 5 o'clock Monday afternoon an opera, "The Three Crows" will be given by the intermediate and primary departments, which promises to be a quiet and amusing feature of commencement week. Tuesday is music day, and in the afternoon there will be a pupils' musical recital and in the evening the commencement concert. Wednesday evening will come the commencement exercises and awarding of diplomas.

The hall is this year graduating a class of 14. From the regular academic course are the eight following: Miss Janet Gray, Miss Genevieve Bengtson, Miss Elizabeth Armstrong, Miss Kathleen Armstrong, Miss Gertrude Jones, Miss Isabel Hughes, Miss Helena Hughes and Miss Arline Davies. From the kindergarten training course will be graduates: Marie Bernice Harris, Miss Sara Leadbetter, Miss Rachel Smith, Miss Gertrude Gill, Miss Katherine Gilbert and Miss Elsie Jackson.

FINE FEATURES IN THE SUNDAY JOURNAL

A page of pretty babies will be among the many fine features in The Sunday Journal. These handsome children come from many points in Oregon and Washington, and are entered in the contest for the beautiful prize. The entertainment of the youthful readers of The Sunday Journal, Happy Moolligan, Liu and Leander, Little Jimmy and Old Bachelor do funny things and here is a full page of short stories, puzzles and tricks for the youngsters, too.

The women will find some capital hints on what to wear in summer on the fashion page, and there is a fine article on how to be beautiful that every girl and woman should read. An illustrated story tells what clever American girls are doing in Paris.

Among the other features that are sure to be interesting are "Measures for Coast Protection," "Workers With Hand and Brain," "Around the World With W. J. Bryan," story of the earthquake at Del Monte by a well known Portlander, illustrated story of the oldest white man born west of the Rocky mountains.
