WATERSON COMES OUT ADVOCATING NOMINATION OF NEBRASKAN FOR PRESIDENCY

Waterston Comes Out Advocating Nomination of Nebraskan for Presidency.

DEMOCRATS STAMPEDE TO GREAT COMMONER

All Eyes Fixed on Statesman Now in Europe as Successor to Roosevelt in Fight Being Waged Against Graft and Corruption.

(Special Special Service.) Louisville, Ky., June 4.—Under the caption "Hurrah for Bryan" Henry Waterston comes out for the Nebraskan in today's Courier-Journal, urging his nomination for the presidency in 1908. Waterston says in part:

All Unite on Bryan. There is good reason for the belief that long before the assembling of the national Democratic convention of 1908 William Jennings Bryan will have been put in nomination by states enough in their separate and several conventions to leave to the larger body only the business of confirming an already agreed candidate, the selecting of his vote-mate and the building of a platform. The Nebraskan is at the head of his powers. If the party cannot be united upon him, upon whom else?

These Democrats refuse to take two bites at a cherry. Mr. Bryan is as good as he will be two years hence. They intend to say so. They do not intend to wait. What he will most need will be moral support, and this they mean to heap up in sufficient measure and in advance. As a consequence, each state, at least in the west and south, which meets in convention for any purpose from now onward, will follow the lead of Missouri, Arkansas and Indiana, naming him as the standard-bearer for 1908.

Republican Party a Trust. The Republican party is a mammoth trust. It is the greatest of all syndicates; it could not, if it would, mend any of its abuses which have grown up under its ministrations and which appear in every department of the political, commercial and economic arena. It is responsible for the building of the public highways to private uses, for the diversion of the taxes from purposes of revenue to purposes of electioneering, for the consolidation of all official power in a few hands, the concentration of all financial power to a few hands in a few money centers, for the elimination of the spirit and sense of accountability from the party fabric, for the corruption of the sources of the legal fabric in the legislatures and the electorate from one end of the land to the other.

Stampede to Bryan. Mr. Bryan has served his probation and earned his reward. That in his person stands an actual and visible, all-around all that is wicked and criminal in our politics, that with increasing years and study and travel has come increasing wisdom, that, in short, he can be trusted to take the helm of our government away from the breakers of gang and graft politics, having its headquarters in the Republican steering committee of the senate and in the Republican speaker and his legislative committee in the house—such is the meaning and portent of the Bryan boom and movement, which upon the return of the native, will at once receive an impetus and acceleration great enough to melt all doubt of its spontaneous and popular character.

YAMHILL PIONEERS IN REUNION AT DAYTON

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Dayton, Or., June 4.—The fourteenth annual reunion of the Yamhill County Pioneer association was held here Wednesday. The morning was occupied by a business meeting, prayer by Rev. I. L. Jones, a vocal solo by Miss Clara Bradley, address of welcome by R. L. Harris, Dayton's mayor; response by Rev. A. J. Hunaker, annual address by Judge George H. Burnett and music by the orchestra. A banquet was then served.

An interesting game of ball was played by the Dayton and Dayton High school teams, Dayton being the winner. The next annual meeting is to be held at Lafayette.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Baker City, Or., June 4.—The standard gauge electric road which is being built from the Grand Ronde valley to the Indiana mines and Medical Springs will likely be extended to Baker City, as Chief Engineer Cook and a party of 11 surveyors have run the grade to the summit about six miles above the resort and are running the line on down to
