MAROONS WILL TACKLE THE WOODBURN TEAM

The Brainerd Maroons leave tomorrow morning for Woodburn, Oregon, to play the fast amateur team of that place. The Woodburn team have lost no games this season and the Maroons have lost one out of 15 played. The party will be in charge of Captain Campbell and will line up about as follows: Pender or Reed, pitcher; King, catcher; Townbridge, first base; Campbell, second base; Gray, shortstop; Angold, third base; Smith, right field; Henkle, left field; Gaines, center field.

An Alarming Situation

Frequently results from neglect of clogging bowels and torpid liver, until constipation becomes chronic. This condition is unknown to those who use Dr. King's New Life Pills, the best and gentlest regulators of stomach and bowels. Guaranteed by Skidmore Drug Co., Price 25c.

Fourteen Killed by Storm

Castle of Harvard pitched one of the greatest games in the history of the Cambridge university against Brown. He shut them out, 3 to 0, without a hit or a pass to first, besides making the only two hits and one run scored by the Crimson line.

The University of Wisconsin expects to send a strong crew in Foughtkeeper this month. Coach O'Dea is anxious to make a good showing as it is his last year at the Badger institution.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY'S BASEBALL NINE.

Reading from left to right, back row, the players are: Cary, first base; Coleman, shortstop; Metcalf, manager; Long, center field. Lower row: Nace, third base (captain); Rhodes, catcher; Rader, left field; Jerman, coach and pitcher; Grannis, substitute left field; Matthews, right field; Simpson, pitcher.

PORTLAND GRAYS WILL PLAY POWERS BLUES

The match game of ball to be played at The Dalles Sunday between the Wasco Milling company and East Portland Grays has been postponed until next month, and instead the Grays will play a return game with the Powers Blues on the grounds at Eighth and Hawthorne. Game called at 10 o'clock. The teams will line up about as follows: Blues. Kotterman, pitcher; Henkle, catcher; Kotterman, first base; Hurlbert, second base; Graham, shortstop; Gartin, center field; Anderson, left field; P. Myers, right field. Grays. Kotterman, pitcher; Henkle, catcher; Kotterman, first base; Hurlbert, second base; Graham, shortstop; Gartin, center field; Anderson, left field; P. Myers, right field.

ALLAN WRIGHT'S PLAYING FEATURE OF TOURNEY

In the Competition Yesterday Splendid Scores Were Made by Several Players. Allan Wright's playing in the golf tournament yesterday was the feature of the day. He made the best score of the tournament and incidentally the best score on the Waverly links this year. He went out in 44 and made the return in 25 strokes, a record that will stand for a long time. Mr. Wright's success is due to his remarkable steadiness and accuracy. He plays a rather fast game, but in the most difficult position, he is as cool as a June cucumber, and as steady as the Rocky mountains.

SPORTING GOSSIP.

On account of the Multnomah field being too wet, the grammar school track meet which was scheduled for this morning has been postponed. The Multnomah-Willamette baseball game which was scheduled for this afternoon, has been called off on account of wet grounds. Rain prevented yesterday's game between Portland and Fresno at Recreation park. Chemaws defeated The Dalles Tribunes yesterday 4 to 0. The Chicago Nationals are sure enough "Giant Killers." Nineteen to 0 against the world's champions is going some. With Beaumont back in the game Pittsburg should give the leaders a hot argument for the pennant. The Dover-Holligoland yacht race for the international cup, presented by Emperor William, is scheduled to start Sunday. The entry, which is unusually small, of the seven entries, four are British and three German yachts. The great Brooklyn derby is on today. The Red Jacket Athletic association of Calumet, Michigan, has matched Bing Casey of Grand Rapids and Ole Nelson of Calumet for a 10-round bout next Tuesday night. Tommy Prendergast of Saginaw will meet either Willie Fitzgerald or "Kid" Herman in Grand Rapids on June 28. Charles F. Sanders, one of the best-known drivers in the United States, has been committed to an insane hospital in California. Sanders is a brother of Millard Sanders, also a prominent handler of harness horses and one of the trainers of Lou Dillon. Chester Taft of Boston has been chosen captain of next year's baseball team of the University of Michigan. Taft has been playing first base. Lou Criger, the great catcher of the Boston Americans, is improving in health rapidly, but the chances are that he will not be able to play this season. The New York Americans traded Harry Howell for Jack Powell and they gave Jack back to St. Louis gratta Cincinnati traded Peltz to Pittsburgh for Phelps, then shipped Phelps back to smoke-toss free of charge. Appears to be a plain case of "heads, I win, tails you lose." A new course will be required for the Vanderbilt international automobile cup race this year, as a trolley company has begun laying tracks that will spoil the old course on Long Island. A Chicago pugilistic critic says that without doubt Noah Brusso is the most unpopular champion the ring ever saw. He spends his time strutting about the streets telling everyone he is the greatest of heavyweight champions. Back to the ark for Noah. The prediction was freely made this spring that the Philadelphia Athletics would be "in it" this season on account of the trouncing administered by the Giants in the world's championship series last fall. But at the present time the Giants look to be worse off than the Athletics. Castle of Harvard pitched one of the greatest games in the history of the Cambridge university against Brown. He shut them out, 3 to 0, without a hit or a pass to first, besides making the only two hits and one run scored by the Crimson line. The University of Wisconsin expects to send a strong crew in Foughtkeeper this month. Coach O'Dea is anxious to make a good showing as it is his last year at the Badger institution.

MEADOWS RACING BEGINS TODAY

Largest String of Horses in the History of Seattle Ready for the Opening.

BEARCATCHER FAVORITE IN OPENING HANDICAP

Track Is in Fairly Good Condition for Today's Races and Thousands of Popular Game Are Anxiously Awaiting the Barrier to Spring.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, Wash., June 16.—The few hours of sunshine yesterday put the track at the Meadows in good shape and everything is in excellent condition for the opening of the racing season this afternoon. Indications are that the lovers of the racing game will have not only more but better sport than the city has ever seen before. Sixty-three days of racing with the horses that are stabled at the Meadows is enough to make the lovers of theseport dance with joy. The string of horses is better than in the past. Besides the fact that there are more and better horses here than ever before, the fact that this year an open betting ring will be maintained will popularize the game much. In the past the syndicate book has been a source of annoyance to the patrons of the track. Tomorrow some dozen well-known bookmakers will be in the boxes. Any reputable bookmaker can get into the game. This fact alone makes the odds better than they have been in the past.

RACING BEGINS ON THE OVERLAND TRACK

(Journal Special Service.) Denver, Colo., June 16.—What promises to be the greatest race meeting ever held at Overland park opened today. It will continue 13 days. Never before has there been such an abundance of high-class horses on hand, and the jockey talent is of the very best. A dozen or more good stakes are to be run during the meeting. As usual the Colorado derby is the event of the opening day.

THREE LANE PRECINCTS ARE DECLARED DRY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Eugene, Or., June 16.—The Lane county court yesterday made an order declaring prohibition to exist in North and South Junction and Camp Creek precincts. The injunction restraining the court from declaring prohibition in Eugene and in the county as a whole does not affect these precincts, as the question was voted upon in these precincts as separate subdivisions and prohibition carried in each.

LANE COUNTY MEDICS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Eugene, Or., June 16.—At the annual meeting of the Lane County Medical society last night Dr. T. W. Harris was elected president and Dr. F. J. Bartie secretary and treasurer. After the meeting the members enjoyed a banquet. The next meeting will be held June 23, at which time the new president will banquet the members.
