Portland 6, San Francisco 2. Batteries—Easlick and McLean; O'Brien and Bradbury. Pitcher O'Brien of the San Francisco Seals contributed greatly to the downfall of his team yesterday, and the defeat may be charged up to him. While he pitched a fairly good game, allowing but five hits, his fielding was so poor that it helped the Giants considerably on the bases.

The aquatic meet held last night in the Y. M. C. A. pool was a great success and the competition was so keen in both classes from the start that it was impossible to pick the winners until the last event was finished.

The tug of war was won by the working boys' team, which was the lighter of the two teams. They put up a plucky fight, and although they were steadily losing at first, they kept up a steady stroke that finally won the contest for them after 45 seconds of the hardest kind of swimming.

The junior events were: 20-yard swim—Burdick, first; H. Hale, second; W. Pfander, third; H. Pfander, fourth. Time, 0:12.

The winners in the junior class were as follows: W. Pfander, 17 points, a gold medal; B. Burdick, 16 points, a gold medal; H. Hale, 11 points; E. Panta, 5 points.

The officials were: Referee, C. R. Herlow; Judges, M. M. Ringler, G. A. Forbes, Percy Pie and Louis Perry; timers, A. M. Griley, Ed Shockley and W. Abegg; scorer, W. S. Hale; starter, L. M. Myers; clerk of the course, Frank Guild.

George B. Du Bois Says President Leads His Protectors Long and Weary Chase.

"One half the pleasure President Roosevelt receives from his horseback riding is dodging the detectives who follow him on bicycles," said George B. DuBois, who arrived from Washington Sunday.

"From the time the president leaves the White House until he arrives at the suburban spot where his horse is kept in waiting for him, the detectives have a show to keep up with the strenuous Teddy. But when he is once on his horse the fun begins. They ride miles in the country surrounding Washington and the detectives follow one another in true sportsman-fashion, following pace much in the same manner that the men do in the track events."

"After riding for a long time the party starts on the return trip to the city, making the time as short as possible and generally arriving at the starting point in a happy and perspiring state."

"The entire presidential family has impressed Washingtonians by their simplicity and democratic manner. Young Archie attends one of the public schools and has for his bosom chum a son of the butler of the secretary of state. Mr. DuBois is stopping at the Imperial hotel preparatory to starting out with a surveying party in Oregon."
