

THE week has been a busy one. With the Lewis-Honeyman wedding being all in importance, the production Friday night of "The Foresters," the Sitton and Cotton...

One of the most elaborate functions of the summer season was the reception given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. W. Cotton and her mother, Mrs. William Collingwood of Pittsburg, in honor of Mrs. Luther Fouk Steel. About 200 guests called and the evening was exceedingly handsome.

In the dining-room Mrs. S. R. Johnston, Mrs. J. F. Dixon, Mrs. Louis H. Tarpley and Mrs. Thomas O'Day poured, and assisting in serving were Miss Grace Towale, Miss Inez Barrett and Miss Helen Eastman, Mrs. B. Campbell of St. Paul and Miss Josephine Yaliss, Mrs. Cotton's guest from Spokane, presided at the punch bowl.

The women pouring and serving in the dining-room carried out the color plan and wore white. Mrs. Gleay was in tan crepe with lace trimmings and received many compliments after her recent long absence in California.

Miss Alice Killingsworth has been the bride-elect of this week who has received the lion's share of attention. Miss Killingsworth is an Omega Nu, and very popular among her young friends, who have been doing all in their power to show their friendship.

dining table was extremely beautiful with La France roses everywhere. A pretty cook book of choice recipes was made up for the new bride, each matron adding one that she had tried and proved. The guests were Mrs. Charles Patton, Mrs. Caroline Potter, Mrs. Harry Cornell, Mrs. Frank Sherry, Mrs. Frank Strebbig, Mrs. Jessie Depenning, Mrs. W. Depenning, Mrs. A. P. Fiegel, Mrs. Harry Harrington, Mrs. M. Barker, Mrs. J. D. Duback, Mrs. W. M. Killingsworth, Mrs. W. F. Cuppler, Mrs. Rupert, Mrs. J. Bullivant Jr., Mrs. F. Patton, Mrs. James Alexander, Mrs. W. H. Moore, Mrs. John Jarvis, Miss Fay Killingsworth and Miss Shorno.

Mrs. Walter F. Burrell.

plate shower for Miss Killingsworth at the home of Mrs. I. V. Peters Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were beautiful with bride roses in compliment to the coming bride. In the dining room a huge bouquet of them was on the table and tall candles gave a pretty light.

The annual Patton home tea is always an event of much social interest, as many of the prominent charity workers of the city are connected with the institution and many consider it one of the best and most general charitable undertakings in the city.

the eye rested. Mrs. George Chamberlain headed the receiving line in a handsome gown of black lace over silk. The others in line were Mrs. Charles W. King in lavender silk, Mrs. J. W. Watson in white silk, Mrs. Adolph Harr in black silk, Mrs. L. A. Brown in white cloth, Mrs. A. Shannon in white silk, and Mrs. W. L. Straugh in white. A pretty tea table was arranged with a huge basket of Caroline Testout roses.

Mrs. Walter F. Burrell gave a charming dinner in honor of Admiral Goodrich Thursday evening. The table decorations were of crimson ramblers very beautiful. From the center-piece of bright roses strayed green tendrils over the cloth, and the subdued light of the green candles gave a peculiar softness to the scene.

Lucy Nicolai, Mrs. John Burgard and Mrs. Robert Lutke. A delightful feature was the candy table presided over by three young women who offered their services and made and sold the candy with pleasing results to the home funds.

Mrs. C. A. Dolph's dinner and bridge Monday evening for Admiral Goodrich was one of the most charming events of last week. The dinner table was decorated with red Jacqueminot roses and scarlet ramblers, and the place cards were dainty boxes, in compliment to the Admiral. The guests were Judge and Mrs. C. E. Wolverton, Colonel and Mrs. George Davis, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Miss Fanning, Miss Hoyt, W. D. Wheelwright and W. B. Ayer.

The table was converted into a charming tea table, with nautical decorations in red and white, and eagles and ships and flags were in evidence in unique sponge sugar figures. Mrs. Walter Burrell and Mrs. Walter Smith were at one end and Mrs. Wesley Ladd and Mrs. John K. Kollock, Miss Montgomery, Miss Flanders, Miss Louise Flanders, Miss Frances Lewis, Miss May Fanning, Richard Nixon, Harry Montgomery and several of the Chicago officers.

One of the pretty teas of the week was given by Mrs. Robert Birdsall at her home, 703 Northrup street, Wednesday afternoon. The home was beautifully decorated with Caroline Testout roses which gave a pretty pink touch to all corners of the rooms. Live Indian baskets of the flowers were hung in the doorway. In the dining room there were hand-painted glass centerpieces with pink candles and shades to light the darkened room and the pink roses in masses on the sideboard and table. The den was in red with red roses. The large veranda was inclosed with screens and draped with flags. There Mrs. Frank Thomas in pink silk and Miss Marian Ramsey in pale blue silk served punch to the guests. Indoors Mrs. Birdsall received with her niece, Miss Marie Smith, assisting. Mrs. Birdsall wore a delicate violet net ornamented with exquisite lace of the same shade. Miss Smith was in pink chiffon. In the dining room Mrs. George Fuller, Mrs. Allen M. Ellsworth and Mrs. William H. Marshall poured tea. Mrs. E. S. Edwards and Mrs. Samuel H. Gruber assisted in entertaining the guests. The color plan was very elaborately gowned and the hostesses' assistants wore particularly charming frocks.

Mrs. Walter F. Burrell gave a charming dinner in honor of Admiral Goodrich Thursday evening. The table decorations were of crimson ramblers very beautiful. From the center-piece of bright roses strayed green tendrils over the cloth, and the subdued light of the green candles gave a peculiar softness to the scene.

Mrs. Burrell was given the place of honor at a dinner given Friday evening on the Chicago by Paymaster Hicks. Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. Wesley Ladd and Mrs. Schwan were among the guests, with some of the officers. Friday evening Mr. Hicks gave another dinner, entertaining, besides the officers, Captain and Mrs. Marshall, and Mrs. Marshall's sister, Mrs. Helen Dolph, and Miss Montgomery. A unique feature was the bouquets of American Beauty roses, tied with the ship bands, for the women of the party.

The entertainment by the crew of the U. S. S. Princeton to be given at the Empire theatre tomorrow evening will prove a leading society event. The patronesses number some of the most prominent matrons who have interested themselves in the missionary work for sailors. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the Seaman's Institute, and Mrs. E. T. C. Stevens and others connected with the work are making personal solicitations for the sale of tickets among their friends.

Dr. John R. Barber entertained a few of his musical friends Saturday evening, a week ago, at 505 Yamhill street in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Sears of Wallace, Idaho, who were spending a few days at the Portland on their wedding trip. Dr. Sears, whose home has been in Chicago, has a charming contralto voice and sang to the delight of her hearers. There were several other prominent local singers and the evening was one of musical enjoyment.

The Bridge Whist Study club was entertained Wednesday by Mrs. P. A. Rees, 652 Clackamas street. Mrs. Rees' beautiful home was decorated with many rarest specimens of the La France, Caroline Testout and Wagner roses. The center ornament of the dining table was a large Indian basket filled with about 50 large La France roses.

Mrs. F. J. Cronin gave a tea Wednesday afternoon for the members and friends of the Cathedral Aid society and there were about 60 guests present. Mrs. Cronin and her daughter, Miss Katherine Cronin, received. The dining room was very pretty with sweet scented red clover mingling with the crimson ramblers all over the room. The hall looked like a miniature forest with many of the guests in the dining room were marguerites. Mrs. A. M. Cronin poured tea and Miss Walls, Mrs. Hubert Parsons, Miss Armstrong and Miss Mamie Cronin served. There were tables for a hundred and the tables were won by Miss McKay and Mrs. J. E. Cronin.

Mrs. Richard MacDonald of Seattle was the honor guest Monday at a luncheon given by her hostesses Mrs. Thomas V. Robinson, at her east side home. Covers were laid for eight and at each place was a favor of a small potted asparagus fern in a Japanese jardiniere. The color plan was green and white throughout and a large potted midwinter fern formed a beautiful centerpiece. The trailing ends of feather fern were interlaced upon the cloth. The place cards were encased in green enamel holders. Ferns and potted plants decorated the dining-room, which is done in green and black.

A pretty shower was that given by the Misses McConnell Saturday night a week ago for Miss Florence Walton. The unique feature was the presentation to the bride-elect of a miscellaneous shower of gifts on a wheelbarrow highly decorated with ribbons and flowers and wheeled in by two little girls in white.

and Mrs. Sitton's daughters, Mrs. George E. Wentworth and Miss Sitton, received with her. The house was beautifully decorated with splendid roses, the color being red in the library, white in the dining room, yellow in the parlor and pink in the reception room. Mrs. W. P. Oida, Mrs. W. P. Woodward, Mrs. James D. Hart and Mrs. James Dunlap poured, and assisting in serving were Mrs. Lloyd Wentworth, Mrs. Wentworth, Mrs. Carlotta Parker and Miss Elizabeth Sears.

Mrs. John E. Povey entertained the Theodora club at her home, 544 Yamhill street, Monday. The pretty rooms were artistically decorated with choice roses. All the members were present and a pleasant afternoon was spent in playing five hundred, after which the hostess served a dainty luncheon at the card tables. She was assisted by her daughter, Miss Dorais, and little Miss Mildred King, late of San Francisco. Both girls were dainty in pretty white gowns. Mrs. Will Stevens will entertain the club June 15.

Miss Mabel Ransom is the guest of her brother, Frank Ransom, on Petty-grove street. She has just returned from a trip abroad where she spent some time in London and Berlin with friends. Her stay was shortened by the California disaster and she returned to America immediately. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Ransom, came up from Oakland, California, to meet her and contemplate making their home on the east side. Miss Ransom will be with Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Ransom indefinitely.

Mrs. Holt C. Wilson gave a luncheon for eight at the links Thursday in honor of Mrs. Niblack, whose husband is on the Chicago. Mrs. Niblack is remembered by a number of her friends as Miss Huntington, who visited her some years ago. The table was spread in the gallery of the club house, and was dainty with the old-fashioned pink fox-glove. The other guests were Mrs. Charles F. Beebe, Mrs. Ernest Tucker, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Miss Hoyt, Miss Lewis and Miss Wilson.

Miss Marie E. Rau and her sister, Miss Millie Raab, left last night for Oakland, California, to meet her and her parents to William Lewis of New York will be celebrated Wednesday. The bride and groom will travel through California for several months before going to New York to make their home, but Miss Raab will go there at once to live.

Mr. and Mrs. Pink Charles Patterson returned Monday evening from their honeymoon trip, which they spent at Seaside. They are at home with friends. Their father, B. F. Oltner, at 636 Everett and will be there till the completion of their new home at 771 Everett street, about the middle of July.

A number of society people went out in response to invitations to the opening of the Ross Island Country club, Wednesday, after the Honeyman wedding. This promises to be a popular place, where arrangements will be open to the members at all times.

Captain and Mrs. George Conway celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary last Saturday. Many flowers and gifts were sent to them and in the evening a number of their friends called at the Carleton with their good wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Goldsmith recently entertained about 40 of their daughter Elsie's friends at Laroux, B. F. Oltner, at 636 Everett and will be there till the completion of their new home at 771 Everett street, about the middle of July.

Dr. John R. Barber entertained a few of his musical friends Saturday evening, a week ago, at 505 Yamhill street in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Sears of Wallace, Idaho, who were spending a few days at the Portland on their wedding trip.

The Bridge Whist Study club was entertained Wednesday by Mrs. P. A. Rees, 652 Clackamas street. Mrs. Rees' beautiful home was decorated with many rarest specimens of the La France, Caroline Testout and Wagner roses.

Mrs. F. J. Cronin gave a tea Wednesday afternoon for the members and friends of the Cathedral Aid society and there were about 60 guests present.

Mrs. Richard MacDonald of Seattle was the honor guest Monday at a luncheon given by her hostesses Mrs. Thomas V. Robinson, at her east side home.

Mrs. Charles E. Sitton gave another large tea Friday afternoon, entertaining about 250 of her calling list. Miss Helen Spalding was hostess with her

Silverfield's QUALITY-STYLE-ECONOMY The Woman's Store Fourth and Morrison Leading Outfitters Leading Furriers

SPECIALS IN THE Millinery Dept. All $18.00 and $20.00 Hats... $12.00 All $12.50 and $15.00 Hats... $ 8.00 All $ 8.00 and $10.00 Hats... $ 5.00 All $ 5.50 and $ 7.50 Hats... $ 3.50 All $ 3.00 and $ 5.00 Hats... $ 1.95

Summer Dresses This display is particularly noteworthy on account of the wide variety of the new styles shown. Pretty Silk Lawn, in plain and point d'esprit sheer dresses— $16.50 up to $30 New, light and airy lingerie dresses at $3.50 to $11.50

SPECIALS IN THE Suit Department All $16.50 and $18.00 Suits... $12.95 All $20.00 and $22.50 Suits... $14.00 All $25.00 and $30.00 Suits... $16.85 All $35.00 and $40.00 Suits... $21.75 All $45.00 and $60.00 Suits... $32.65

Ladies' Skirts Imported French Voiles, etc. We offer them at less than manufacturer's cost, $32.00 down to... $17.50

FURS STORED FOR THE SUMMER AT VERY SMALL EXPENSE.

H. B. Litt Fourth and Washington REMOVAL SALE We have to vacate our present quarters and are offering our entire stock at Exceedingly Low Prices MONDAY WE WILL OFFER Suits Values to $37.50 for . . $9.50 $50.00 Suits for . . . $19.75

Our Summer Sale of Oriental Rugs and Carpets In Full Blast Now Largest Importers and Exclusive Dealers in Northwest Every Piece a Work of Art! Every one a perfect gem. Largest Stock and Lowest Prices on the Pacific Coast We are our own importers, and permanently located here 411 Washington Street ATIYEH BROTHERS

Sale! Sale! Sale! Retiring from business. Tuesday at 9 a. m. we begin to close out our stock at greatly reduced prices. Must be sold at once. Store will be closed Monday. Beck's 272 Washington Street