EDUCATIONAL PRIZES

Louise Scott, one of the candidates from the east side, resides in Central addition and is at present a pupil in the ninth grade at the Mount Tabor school, where she will graduate next February. She was born in Pennsylvania 15 years ago and has lived in Portland for the past six years.

The young lady enters the Educational Contest very well recommended by Mrs. Miller Murdock, her teacher, and several others. She is determined to land one of the best scholarships and will devote her spare time during vacation to signing up Journal subscribers all over the city. Her many friends will no doubt help her considerable.

LOUISE SCOTT.

CONDITIONS OF CONTEST.

First choice of scholarships, or grand capital prize, to go to the contestant having the highest score at the close of the contest; second choice to the one having the next highest score, and so on to the end of the list, the number of prizes, however, to be limited to 20 unless a greater number of contestants shall have achieved results justifying a liberal reward.

Contestants will be limited in their choice of scholarships to such as they

CASH PRIZES.

Cash prizes of a total of $750 will be awarded to contestants as follows:

1. A purse of $300 for the general expenses of the winner while attending any public or private institution providing free tuition.

2. A purse of $200 to be used in the same manner as the above.

3. A purse of $100 for incidental expenses to supplement a scholarship selected from the following list.

4. A purse of $75 in addition to one of the following scholarships.

5. A purse of $50 in addition to one of the following scholarships.

6. A purse of $25 in addition to one of the following scholarships.

can make personal use of, the scholarships being non-transferable, except with the consent of the management of the schools.

Any young person of school age who can furnish satisfactory references as to character and worthiness of assistance in the endeavor to secure a good education may enter the contest at any time before the close, September 1.

The business of contestants will be to induce people to subscribe for The Oregon Journal, if they are not already taking the paper, or renew their subscriptions by paying for as long a period in advance as convenient, thereby giving the contestants the benefit of the votes allowed on advance payments.

Votes will be allowed on all advance payments on subscriptions, whether solicited by the contestants themselves or paid or remitted directly to The Journal office, or through any of the regular agents or collectors, but in all cases the money must be in The Journal office before credit will be given for the votes.

MONEY FOR ALL.

A cash commission will be paid contestants on all new subscriptions secured by them personally, or procured directly through their influence. Thus every contestant will have a chance to earn some pocket money, in addition to the opportunity of winning $300 or $200 or a scholarship worth from $100 to $250, supplemented with a purse of $100 for incidental expenses.

Blank voting certificates or ballots will be furnished on request to contestants or others who may have use for them. For each subscription prepaid one of these ballots may be filled out to correspond with the amount and length of time paid for, the number of votes due, the name of the contestant favored, etc., to be voted at the convenience of the subscriber or contestant.

VOTING SCHEDULE.

The voting power of subscriptions will be in accordance with the following schedule:

GIRL SAVES HERSELF FROM ATTACK OF CRIMINAL

Nine-Year-Old Child Beats Off Man Who Makes Attempt to Assault Her.

It was only the pluck of the 9-year-old daughter of L. Howard of 1004 Cleveland avenue that saved her from a horrible fate at the hands of an unknown man last evening at Garfield avenue and Going streets. The child, although suffering fright, was able to give an excellent description of the brute to the police and the detectives on the case expect to effect his capture.

It was just about dusk that little Miss Howard was approached by a middle-aged man carrying a hoe, as she was standing at Cleveland avenue and Going street. The fellow inquired the location of Garfield avenue and in her childish innocence she volunteered to direct him there. Upon arriving at the street named he requested to be conducted to Roselawn avenue. The Howard child refused to go farther on the ground that it was growing late and she should be at home.

It was then that the man grabbed the child in a vise-like grip and attempted to drag her into the brush. Despite her small age and size the girl put up a determined resistance and finally managed to break from the grasp of her assailant. She ran as fast as possible to her home and reported the matter to her parents. Patrolman Adams was notified and began an investigation. No trace of the thug could be found by the policeman.

TODAY'S MARKETS

That It Does Not Pay to Hold Eggs for an Advance in Price Is Shown by the Poor Quality of Late Arrivals — Dealers Say to Ship

POTATOES PACKED IN BOXES

Hood River Inaugurates New System—Sizes and Colors Are About Even.

WHEAT MARKET DROPS ONE CENT A BUSHEL

Loganberries Scarce on Account of Rains—Few Crates of Strawberries Arrive—Salmon Is Lower With Heavier Supplies.

Front Street, June 28.—The principal features of the Portland wholesale markets today are:
Potatoes packed in boxes.
Car cantaloupes from Coachella.
Wheat market 1c lower.
Export flour trade duller.
Loganberries scarce with rains.
Peaches down; supplies heavier.
First Oregon new apples arrive.
Salmon lower with heavier supplies.
Black figs and fair demand.
Bing cherries come from Gresham.
Plums are in larger supply.
Hop contracts being sought.
Poultry holds former prices.
Eggs are firm; receipts fair.
Dressed meats in excellent call.

Potatoes Are Packed in Boxes.

Hood River has given another new wrinkle in the markets. Packing of potatoes in crates has been resorted to on other occasions for government orders for Alaskan shipment, but today is the first time that any potatoes were received here packed in boxes as are fruits. The potatoes from Hood River are nicely packed in rows and are of very fancy quality. Sizes are very even and color is just about the same all through the package. The potatoes are of the Early Rose variety and are among the best received in this market. The boxes contain about 50 pounds of stock and sell along the street at 75c. Bell & Co. received them.

First Oregon Apples Arrive.

Again from The Dalles the first shipment is received. This time it is the new apple. Today Davenport Bros. report the arrival of the first Oregon apples of the season. Stocks were from the place of Fred Cyphers at The Dalles and were in very good shape. Regular size boxes at $2.

The first local Bing cherries came this morning from the Cotton farm at Gresham. Not quite ripe enough but very good. Good-sized shipments expected from local points soon. Royal Anns in very liberal supply with prices easy.

Loganberries Are Scarce.

On account of rains yesterday but few crates of loganberries were picked at local points yesterday and today's supplies are very limited. Price the same.

A few crates of strawberries were received from Clackamas county this morning. Price very firm at $2@2.25 per crate for 24s.

Black figs from California are again in market with demand fair at $1.50@1.75 for small boxes.

Salmon Lower With Heavier Supplies.

Best chinook salmon is quoted easier today at 8c per pound, while steelheads are ruling at 7c; same price for bluebacks. Supplies are much more liberal. Most receipts are from southern Oregon streams. Run on Columbia again improving.

Dressed meats are still in a very firm position along the street. Receipts of veal only fair with demand heavy at 7c for best. Dressed hogs not coming fast enough with prices easily maintained.

Wheat Market a Cent Lower.

A very slow export demand for flour, with practically no coastwise business reported, caused a decline of 1c per bushel in wheat this morning on all grades except valley. The latter is firm with some offers a trifle higher.

Hay continues quite steady with offerings not so liberal nor of such good quality. Prices rule practically unchanged.

Poultry and Eggs Firm.

Both the poultry and egg markets are firm today. Receipts in each line are not over the requirements of the demand and prices are maintained at yesterday's rulings. Best demand in poultry is for old hens and large springs.

Creamery butter is weak along the street today with most of the sales in quality at 19c. Only a few at 20c. Country store firm with demand good at price.

The cheese market continues in a strong position. All new purchases are at the advance quoted by The Journal several days ago, but some dealers are still offering at 11½c.

Minor Notes of the Street.

Peaches in more liberal supply with whites ranging around 90c and best yellows at $1.10.

A carload of cantaloupes from Coachella was unloaded this morning. Prices range between $3.75@4 a crate.

Hop contracts are being sought by buyers. Some reports of a fractional advance in offered prices.

The trade pays the following prices to Front street. Prices paid producers are less regular commissions.

JOURNAL'S DAILY TIPS ON MARKETS

Warning is given those shippers of eggs who still persist in the holding of supplies. During the past few days a considerable number of poor quality eggs have been received in this city. A prominent commission man in talking of the situation says that most of these poor eggs had probably been kept for several weeks by shippers in the hope of an advance in prices. The market did rise but after the poor eggs were taken out the shipper did not receive as much for his eggs as he would have obtained had they been shipped early and taken the lower price per dozen.

Chicago, June 28.—The wheat market held a bearish tone today. Jones' report estimating the winter wheat crop at 420,000,000 bushels, or about 40,000,000 bushels more than a year ago, was the depressing feature. Liverpool came about ½d up at the opening, but closed the same as yesterday. The closing today here shows a loss of ½c to ⅝c a bushel.

Logan & Bryan have the following: "Our Mr. McKinnon, who is in Minneapolis today, wires: 'Some northwestern people are getting bad reports from various sections of North Dakota. Too much rain everywhere and more predicted. It is cloudy here now.'"

The Record-Herald thus sums up the situation: They took a little advantage yesterday to work up a rust scare on wheat. Attention was called to the heavy rains and the predictions of hot and muggy weather to follow. Except for some of the early Durum wheat, which could be attacked and damaged from rust, the plant has not yet developed far enough to be subject to any damage from rust. No talk has yet appeared, and it will be something new of wheat growing if rust should attack at such a stage. The trade has in mind, however, the experience of 1904, when the red rust reports were followed by black rust damage.

FOUND UNCONSCIOUS IN STREET BY POLICEMEN

Gus Hendercob was picked up in an unconscious condition last night by Patrolmen Mallett and Gallbraith. The man was intoxicated and covered with a number of bruises about the head. He claimed to have been assaulted and robbed by two unknown men and the detectives are working on the case.

BURNS MILLS MAKE BIG PRICE INCREASE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Burns, Or., June 28.—The sawmills of Burns and Harney City have started to manufacture lumber and the outlook is good for a big demand for lumber owing to the number of new homeseekers locating in the county. The prices on all grades of lumber have increased 20 per cent over last year.

Wall Street, New York, June 28.—The stock market opened very weak this morning but began to improve a little later. Higher money then sent the list off but it again became strong and during the remainder of the day was very erratic with the closing higher. Money rates were the principal bearish feature, call ruling as high as 4½ per cent on the floor. Coppers were leaders of activity, although Reading, common, pressed in a very close second. The largest individual rise today was in Anaconda, which shows a closing 3¼ a quarter point higher than yesterday. Amalgamated rose 2½ at the close and was quite strong. This was due to the heavy buying of Gates. H. C. Frick is said to have been a good buyer of Union Pacific and United States Steel, preferred. Trading was of a lively character, the transactions to noon amounting to 629,000 shares.
