Yesterday afternoon the office employees of the passenger department of the Harriman lines presented their chief, A. L. Craig with a handsome $100 gold watch. The employees gathered in Mr. Craig's office in the Worcester building, where the presentation speech was made by A. C. Martin, chief clerk.

William M. Ralston, an Oregon pioneer of 1847, died last Saturday at his home in Albany. The remains were interred on Monday at Lebanon. For years Mr. Ralston was one of the best-known residents of Albany. He helped to promote the Willamette Valley & Cascade Mountain road and was also one of the founders of the Oregon Savings Bank of Portland. He was a prominent member of St. Johns Lodge No. 17, A. F. and M., Bayley chapter No. 1, E. A. M., and Temple commandery No. 3, Knights Templar. Deceased was born in Rockville, Indiana, 22 years ago.

Collins Hot Mineral Springs hotel, most beautifully situated on the north bank of the Columbia river, is open for guests the whole year. The mineral water is especially good for rheumatism, stomach, kidney and liver troubles. Will guarantee good accommodations. Easy of access either by rail or boat. All boats stop at Collins Hot Springs. O. R. & N. local leaves Portland at 8:16 a. m., arrives at Collins at 10:08 a. m.; only two hours' ride on train. Steamer Spencer and Regulator line of steamers leave Portland at 10:00 daily. C. T. Bolcher, proprietor, will welcome you all.

Plans for the annual climb, which this year is to be on Mount Baker, will be laid by the Mazamas this afternoon and evening. At 2:30 the outing usually held before the climb takes place will commence with the trip along the sky line trail from Madsen park to Inspiration point, where at 9 o'clock the Mazamas and their friends will gather around a huge bonfire. Mayor Lane and other officials have accepted invitations to preside at the informal meeting to do honor to the memory of Colonel L. L. Hawkins, one of the founders and most enthusiastic members of the "mountain goats."

Merritt Lindsay, who died yesterday of heart trouble at his home, 472 Going street, was for 18 years connected with the railroad, making the journey to his city. For the last eight years of his life he was city passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway. Prior to that time he held similar positions with the Union Pacific and with the Northwesters. He was a native of Flushing, Ohio, and was 51 years of age. He is survived by a widow, a son, two daughters, a sister residing in Ohio and a brother, Joseph A. Lindsay of Portland.

Mrs. Lydia Buckman died at her home, 208 East Eleventh street, yesterday morning, at the age of 94 years. Mrs. Buckman was born in Ohio February 13, 1812, and came to Portland with her husband in 1872. The latter died in 1882. Deceased was the mother of nine children, those still living being Thomas Buckman of Ashland, Isaiah Buckman of Portland, Theodore Buckman of Vancouver, Washington; Mrs. Lydia A. Carter and Mrs. Mary A. Johnson, both of Seattle, and Mrs. Margaret and Angie B. Richardson, all of Portland.

Frank A. Moore, son of ex-governor Miles C. Moore of Walla Walla, arrived in Portland Wednesday evening from Tia Juana, Mexico, having made the trip in an automobile. Mr. Moore was accompanied by J. B. Neville Jr. of Denver, Colorado, making the journey from San Francisco, which was accomplished in 13 days. Mr. Moore left San Francisco in February and traveled leisurely through southern California, viewing the country and taking in many of the side trips, traveling in all 4,219 miles.

The members of the Young Women's Christian association and their friends are anticipating a pleasant Sunday afternoon at Miss Gassner's, 524 Salmon street, July 1, from 4:30 to 6 o'clock. The entertainment will be given on the beautiful lawn, where all can enjoy "God's out-of-doors." The program is as follows: Unhilarious quartet, selected music; Mrs. Moore, cornet solo; Mrs. Frank Bailey, vocal solo; Miss Alice Pickforth, reading, "Morning in Birdland"; Frau Bekker, vocal solo; Miss MacCorkle, drama, "Life."

The folk-song recital given last night at the First Congregational church was one of the musical events of the season. Miss Viola Whitney White of Boston was the singer and she prefaced each song with a graphic description of its origin and significance. The audience was of a high class and was delighted with the element of the unique about the performance. The recital was given under the direction of Mrs. W. H. White, Thomas and Miss White were accompanied by Miss Josephine Lange.

Suppose a rich government offered a fair price to steamship companies to carry mail to towns so far away from civilization that the aurora borealis dims the glory of Standard Oil? Suppose those steamship companies, soulless corporations that they are, should spurn the proffered gold and offer to carry the aforesaid mail thousands of miles free, gratis and for nothing? Wouldn't that jar you?
