

JOURNAL SCHOLARSHIP CONTEST

The Candidates Are Hard at Work—Places Are Changing With Each Count.

At least 10 of the 23 candidates entered in the Journal contest are hard at work and earnestly striving to lead in the race for an education. Places are changing at each count and dark horses are making large gains each day. No candidate should allow any of the precious time to slip by, but should get to work today. Friends of candidates ought to intervention may enter the contest at any time before the close, September 1. The business of contestants will be to induce people to subscribe for The Oregon Journal, if they are not already taking the paper, or renew their subscriptions by paying for as long a period in advance as convenient, thereby giving the contestants the benefit of the votes allowed on advance payments. Votes will be allowed on all advance payments on subscriptions, whether solicited by the contestants themselves or paid or remitted directly to The Journal office, or through any of the regular agents or collectors, but in all cases the money must be in The Journal office before credit will be given for the votes.

Carl Shelton. set themselves at once and send in their subscriptions to help swell the vote of their favorites. We herewith present the photograph of Carl Shelton—of East Forty-eighth street, Mt. Tabor, who entered the contest at the very first, but states that he has not made much of a showing yet.

HOW TO VOTE.

A cash commission will be paid contestants on all new subscriptions secured by them personally, or procured directly through their influence. Thus every contestant will have a chance to earn some pocket money, in addition to the opportunity of winning $300 or $500 or a scholarship worth from $100 to $250, supplemented with a purse of $100 for incidental expenses.

CASH PRIZES.

Cash prizes of a total of $750 will be awarded to contestants as follows:

1. A purse of $300 for the general expenses of the winner while attending any public or private institution providing free tuition.
2. A purse of $200 to be used in the same manner as the above.
3. A purse of $100 for incidental expenses to supplement a scholarship selected from the following list.
4. A purse of $75 in addition to one of the following scholarships.
5. A purse of $50 in addition to one of the following scholarships.
6. A purse of $25 in addition to one of the following scholarships.

Blank voting certificates or ballots will be furnished on request to contestants or others who may have use for them. For each subscription prepaid one of these ballots may be filled owing to his school examinations which interfered with any other work. He was born in Dallas, Oregon, fifteen years ago, and moved to Portland five years ago. He has just successfully finished the eighth grade in the Mt. Tabor school and Master Shelton will get to work at once, with a determination to land one of the scholarships offered by the Behlke-Walker Business college. As nearly all of his spare time during vacation will be devoted to the educational contest, no doubt we shall hear from young Shelton, and he will not be last in this race for ballots and an education.

CONDITIONS OF CONTEST.

First choice of scholarships, or grand capital prize, to go to the contestant having the highest score at the close of the contest; second choice to the one having the next highest score, and so on to the end of the list, the number of prizes, however, to be limited to 20 unless a greater number of contestants shall have achieved results justifying a liberal award. Contestants will be limited in their choice of scholarships to such as they can make personal use of, the scholarships being non-transferable, except with the consent of the management of the school. Any young person of school age who can furnish satisfactory references as to character and worthiness of assistance in the endeavor to secure a good put to correspond with the amount and length of the paid for, the number of votes due, the name of the contestant favored, etc., to be voted at the convenience of the subscriber or contestant.

COLLS INSURANCE FIRMS THIEVES

that he might comply with the law, he was told that all these documents had been destroyed in the fire, but that more had been ordered from Indianapolis and were coming out by freight. He was also told that if he did not have the proof of loss filed within 60 days after April 18 his policy would be invalidated. Do you blame them for beginning to be irritated?

"Finally, when all the technicalities had been complied with, came the shaving of the policies. Some companies, I understand, flatly state that they will pay but 75 cents of the face value of the policies. Others say they are adjusting the losses on an equitable basis, but so the policy holders tell me, are paying only 75 cents on the dollar. All these things, combined with the bullying and insults of clerks and adjusters, to say nothing of the intimation that San Francisco is peopled with scoundrels, have aroused the policy-holders in the six-bit companies to a point where they will make a bitter fight for their rights.

Small Discount Legitimate.

There are two sides to all things, of course. That many persons have overestimated their losses, and in that manner have vitiated their proofs of loss is unquestionably true. There has been some attempt to swindle the companies. But, notwithstanding this, the fact remains that San Francisco was under-insured, that the property destroyed was far in excess of the insurance carried.

A small discount between one and three per cent for loss by earthquake would have been legitimate. A 25 per cent cut is little short of theft. The companies should have taken the people into their confidence and acted like reputable business men. It would have paid in the long run.

Wolf is a big man, physically and mentally, and is putting all his strength into his fight for what he believes to be the rights of the people. He is, he declared today, going to advertise every company that shades its losses. He is going to make the names of all the six-bit concerns known from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Maine to Mexico. Mr. Wolf said that he understood that some companies commonly placed on the six-bit list are attempting to adjust their losses honestly, while others, reputed to be paying dollar for dollar, are shaving the policies. According to statements made by policy-holders, the following concerns are paying 75 cents on the dollar:

- ### Six-Bit Companies.
- Northwestern National, North German of New York, Security of Baltimore, Insurance Company of North America, Alliance of Philadelphia; Aachen and Munich, Hanover, Germany; Milwaukee Mechanics, Agricultural, Spring Garden, Delaware, Globe and Rutgers, American of Philadelphia, Svea of Sweden; Law, Union and Crown; Union Assurance of London, Victoria of New York, Caledonian, Rochester German, Scotch Underwriters, Providence Washington, Royal Exchange, Austrian Phoenix, Concordia, National of Hartford, Trans-Atlantic, Federal, German of Peoria, Equitable, Queen City, Traders of Chicago, American of Newark, Franklin of Philadelphia, Fire Association of Philadelphia, Philadelphia Underwriters, United Firemen, Michigan, Hamburg Bremen, Home Fire and Marine, Niagara, Prussian National, Pacific Underwriters, Colonial Underwriters, British America, British-American, Western of Toronto, National Union, Eagle, Phoenix of Brooklyn, Pennsylvania, Union of Philadelphia, Glens Falls, Westchester, Security of New Haven, Camden, Buffalo German, American of Boston, Dutchess, Girard, New York of New York, North River, New Brunswick, Nassau of Brooklyn, Scottish Union and National, Western Underwriters, German of Freeport, German National, Calumet, Atlantic Birmingham and Austin of Texas.

Earthquake Companies.

Following is a list of the earthquake companies: Norwich Union, Indemnity, German-American of America, German Alliance of New York, Protector Underwriters of Hartford, Phoenix of Hartford, Commercial Union of London, Commercial Union of New York, Palatine of London, Alliance of London, Williamsburg City, Providence, Washington, Rhine-Moselle and North German of Hamburg. It is known that of these 14 companies at least six will pay dollar for dollar whatever liabilities they acknowledge or are held responsible for. Under no circumstances will the Norwich Union or the Indemnity or the Commercial Union of London, or the Commercial Union of New York, or the Palatine or the Alliance of London be found in the list of 75-centers.

The following companies have declared their intention of paying their losses in full:

Dollar Companies.

- Aetna Insurance company, California, Mercantile of Boston, American Central of St. Louis, St. Paul, Manchester, Atlas of London, Kings County, Springfield of Massachusetts, New Zealand, North British and Mercantile, Liverpool, London and Globe, Sun of London, Northern Assurance of London, Phoenix of London, Pelican of New York, Continental of New York, London Assurance, New York Underwriters, Teutonia, London and Lancashire, English-American Underwriters, Orient of Hartford, State of Liverpool, Hartford of Hartford, Citizens of St. Louis, Home of New York, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Queen of New York, Royal of Liverpool, Industrial Underwriters.

Let's Get Down to Figures

A suit with an extra pair of trousers amounts to two suits. A coat tailored the "Nicoll's Way" will hold its shape during the life of two pairs of trousers.

But that isn't all—Your choice of any suit in the house and an extra pair of trousers—at the price of the suit. We make this offer because we have too many light-weight fabrics—and our best tailors must be kept busy during the fall season.

No reason now why you shouldn't dress cool and comfortable—and still save money. Of course these suits will be tailored the "Nicoll's Way"—it's our very best tailors that we want to keep busy.

WORSTED CRACKERS, KIDGEE, FRATHER-WINGET HOSIERY and FLANNELS.

Some of the fabrics have just reached us—delayed in shipping. Some of the patterns have just enough cloth to make a suit and an extra pair of trousers. Might be just the patterns you would want.

Don't you see the wisdom of coming in now? Satisfaction guaranteed in all cases. Garments to order in a day if required. Full dress and Tuxedo suits a specialty.

they are equally depraved; and when swift and sudden vengeance falls upon them and they are murdered, the least of all their crimes has been added to their list—they have "created their own executioners" and the beginning of their punishment is in violent and shameful death. After death comes re-education and remorse—the remorse which means hell.

Girls Blinded by Vanity.

Young girls who are lured into the sumptuous dens of such men as Stanford White and his confederates are blinded by vanity and ignorance when they take the first step. They imagine it is their own peculiar charm which attracts the man of the world and by that charm they can hold his roving heart. Only when it is too late do they understand that the man long since ceased to possess a heart, and that the only woman such a man remembers is the woman who resisted and refused his overtures.

an old vacant frame house on South Tacoma avenue by two boys. The bones were taken to the police station and an investigation is being made. Coroner Stewart says they are those of a person who has been dead at least 20 years, being in a decayed state. Owing to the shape of the skull, high cheek bones and pointed chin, the coroner believes the skeleton that of a squaw.

Carefully examining the skull, the coroner has found a hole which he declares was made by a bullet, and he is inclined to believe a murder has been committed.

FEDERAL ATTORNEY TAKES OFFICIAL OATH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, June 30.—Potter Charles Sullivan qualified and took the oath of office as United States district attorney before Judge Harford this morning, his assistant, Walter Christian, going through a similar form at the same time. The new district attorney, who succeeds Jesse A. Frye, will legally assume the duties of the office tomorrow and tonight will take over the records and documents of the office. For the past two weeks the retiring official has been busily engaged in cleaning up all old matters and putting the pending cases into such shape as to be easily taken up by District Attorney Sullivan.

Down, But Not Out.

Representative John M. Bankhead of Alabama, who was recently defeated for re-nomination by Captain Hobson, has announced his candidacy for alternate United States senator to succeed either John T. Morgan or E. W. Pettus. The primary will be held in August.

STREET RAILWAY MEN ARBITRATE STRIKE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Tacoma, June 30.—The strike declared by 300 laborers of the Tacoma Street Railway company and the paving companies of the city was again declared off last night, and the men are working today, having accepted the offer of the company of $2.25 a day with transportation to and from work.

WORSE MUDDLE THAN EVER

Now that we have moved everything from 172 First street to No. 174, we find that we are in a worse fix than before

We have crowded furniture, bedding, desks, iron bedsteads, ranges, cooking and heating stoves and all other things into No. 174, with the result that we scarcely have room to "bow our Good Mornings" to one another. WE ARE IN A PREDICAMENT AND MUST GET OUT OF IT SOMEHOW, so we have concluded to continue our Supreme Court Get-Out-of-That Sale!

We Must Have Room

We cannot do business in these hampered quarters, so THE SLAUGHTER WILL CONTINUE. Come along, therefore, pick out anything you want, lug it away or have us deliver it, and we will make a price to you that will cause you to kindly remember us for many moons to come.
