CENTRALIA HAVING WEEK'S CELEBRATION

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Centralia, Wash., July 5.—Centralia's Fourth celebration commenced Monday and continues into Saturday night, a week of carnival. The largest crowd was in attendance yesterday of any celebration ever given here.

OFFICER DOFFS STAR AND WHIPS OBJECTOR

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Junction City, Or., July 5.—Because Jesse Darnelle did not like the action of Deputy Marshal Herbert in closing a "blind pig" which was opened here yesterday, the officer took the objection to the outskirts of the city and laying aside his star proceeded to administer him a drubbing. Darnelle started the affair by inviting the officer to participate in an encounter. By the time he was through with the engagement he was willing to admit that "blind pigs" were objectionable features in a "dry" community.

HOME TALENT DRAMA FEATURE OF FOURTH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Silverton, Or., July 5.—The greatest celebration ever known in the history of Silverton was enjoyed yesterday and it is estimated that 4,000 people were in attendance. Hon. Walter L. Toomey of Woodburn delivered the oration and another interesting feature of the day was a closely contested ball game between the home team and Woodburn.
