FRENCH CRITICIZE TOUR OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER

Mrs. Longworth Astonishes Europeans by Her Vigorous "Pump Handle" Shake.

(Journal Special Service.)

Paris, July 7.—The Petit Parisien publishes an editorial severely criticising what it calls the "pomp and pretension" of the Longworth journey to Europe. Says the writer, apropos of the president's daughter and her husband:

"The manner in which their time will be employed is noted in advance with a precision which could be equaled only if it were a sovereign, accompanied by her royal husband, who was engaged in making a tour outside her own states.

"This display seems excessive, and the young woman who lends herself to it with such easy grace does not seem to be overwhelmed with any of the democratic ideas of her nation.

"It is a good deal to be the daughter of a man like Theodore Roosevelt, but it is not enough to warrant this young person receiving any more homage than is due any other equally charming member of her sex.

"Mrs. Longworth would show a nobler sentiment in being merely proud of her father instead of seeking the flattery consequent upon personal grandeur. She seems to forget that in three years her father will return to private life, and will probably end his days in the dignified obscurity which has characterized the declining years of the majority of the American presidents. A wedding journey conducted with less ostentation would have been in better taste."

NATUROPATH

Successful is the word that best describes her career since coming to Portland. Successful in curing diseases, successful in building up what is today the largest office practice of any doctor in the city.

She Cures the Sick

This is why her offices are at all times full, and that people sometimes wait for hours to see her.

If you have any ailment, chronic or acute, such as rheumatism, la grippe, bronchitis, goiter, catarrh, stomach and bowel troubles, nerve troubles, etc., etc., you would do well to consult her. She can cure you.

TESTIMONIALS OF PEOPLE SHE HAS CURED.

Portland, Oct. 17, 1906.

"To Whom It May Concern:

"I suffered a long time with serious stomach trouble, the disease having progressed so far that I was unable to retain my food, and finally found water to cause nausea; in short, my entire system was in a seriously depleted condition. On or about July 15 last I advised with Dr. Nancy J. Fulton, of this city, and was induced to take treatments from her, and after taking the twelfth I was discharged. I can now eat anything I desire, feel perfectly well and am constantly gaining strength. This marvelous change I can truthfully say is due to Dr. Fulton. —CLYDE VAUGHN,

"Home, Jefferson, Or."

Note—Mr. Vaughn can be communicated with at Jefferson, Or., or his father, Eli Vaughn, can be seen at the New Grand Central, corner Third and Flanders, this city.

"October 20, 1906.

"To Whom It May Concern:

"It affords me great pleasure to write a word in praise of Dr. Fulton. I suffered untold agony for one week with pain in my whole body. My husband called in whom we supposed was one of the best physicians in the city. He was not sure, but thought I had neuralgia, or it might prove to be gallstones. left medicine and thought I would be better next day; but I gradually grew worse; got no relief from pain except under opiates. Having heard of Dr. Fulton through friends of ours, we decided to call her in; so my husband went at once and brought her to the house. Upon examination she pronounced it a case of acute gastritis, and after one treatment I was able to get up, dress myself and go about my usual household duties. I have now taken a week's treatment and certainly think her the most wonderful doctor I ever met.

Bad Stomach Makes Bad Blood.

You can not make sweet butter in a foul, unclean churn. The stomach serves as a churn in which to agitate, work up and disintegrate our food as it is being digested. If it be weak, sluggish and foul the result will be torpid, sluggish liver and bad, impure blood.

The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are just such as best serve to correct and cure all such derangements. It is made up without a drop of alcohol in its composition; chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol. Now this glycerine is of itself a valuable medicine, instead of a deleterious agent like alcohol, especially in the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion. Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of it:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. * * * It is one of the best manufactured products of the present times in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs; especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach), it is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric acidity. It is useful in chronic intestinal dyspepsia, especially the flatulent variety, and in certain forms of chronic constipation, stimulating the secretory and excretory functions of the intestinal glands."

When combined, in just the right proportions, with Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Bloodroot and Mandrake root, or the extracts of these, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, there can be no doubt of its great efficacy in the cure of all stomach, liver and intestinal disorders and derangements. These several ingredients have the strongest endorsement in all such cases of such eminent medical leaders as Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hobart A. Hare, M. D., of Medical Department, University of Pa.; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Medical Department, University of New York; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., and Prof. John King, M. D., Authors of the American Dispensatory, and scores of others among the leading medical men of our land.

Who can doubt the curative virtues of a medicine the ingredients of which have such a professional endorsement?

Constipation cured by Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One or two a dose.

QUAKERS IN ANNUAL SESSION AT NEWBERG

Newberg, Or., July 7.—The fourteenth annual session of the Oregon yearly meeting of the Friends church is now in session at Newberg, Oregon. Delegates from other states are in attendance, notably Allan Jay of Richmond, Indiana, one of the best-known ministers in the denomination, and Charles Replogle and wife from Everett, Washington, pioneer workers in that state. From the Boise valley, Idaho, have come representatives and from all the various churches belonging to Friends throughout Oregon. Much enthusiasm prevails and a very deep undercurrent of spiritual life and power has already characterized the opening sessions. A big tent has been erected on the grounds in which daily evangelistic services will be held. The business sessions take place in the large church adjacent, meals being provided in the basement. The conference will continue a full week.
