

CLASSES ORGANIZE AT CHAUTAUQUA

Attendance at Gladstone Park Sessions is Increasing Every Day of Meeting.

DAILY ROUTINE WORK HAS BEEN PREPARED NOW

Sports as Well as Mental Labor Occupy the Attention of Assembled Through Which Takes Great Interest in Events.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Oregon City, July 11.—Cooler weather marked the second day of the Chautauqua assembly at Gladstone Park and the attendance was better than that of the opening day. The classes have been fully organized, with the following daily routine: 9 to 10—Junior Bible study, Rev. Howard N. Smith. 10 to 11—Physical culture, Professor A. M. Grillley, old Auditorium. 11 to 12—English literature, Professor R. J. Headley. 12 to 13—Methers class in child study, Mrs. A. H. Burkholder. 1:30 to 2—Kindergarten class, Mrs. A. H. Burkholder. 2 to 3—Elocution, Professor Mark B. Seal, Auditorium. 3 to 4—United States history, Professor W. C. Hawley, under the trees. 4 to 5—Musical department, Mr. W. Gifford Nash, Auditorium.

GEORGE MITCHELL IS ACQUITTED

Slayer of Franz Edmund Creffield, Holy Roller Apostle, is Freed by Jury.

CROWD ROARS APPLAUSE DESPITE COURT'S ORDER

Defendant Will Return to Portland Tonight and Resume His Former Position in Lash Mill Belonging to Peter View.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, July 11.—Less than two hours' deliberation was required by the jury last evening in the case of George H. Mitchell, to decide that the defendant was innocent of murder for killing Franz Edmund Creffield, the holy roller apostle, on the streets of this city May 7. After being out about an hour and a half the jury returned with the verdict of "not guilty," which they presented to the court.

The verdict of the jury was received by a thunderous outburst of applause which it was impossible for the court officials to suppress, although Judge Frater had warned the crowd that no demonstration would be permitted, whatever the verdict might be, before the jury came in.

Remanded to Sheriff.

In order that he might get rid of the boisterous crowd, he explained afterward, Judge Frater ordered the prisoner remanded into the custody of the sheriff. Mitchell's attorneys realizing the import of this order immediately objected, threatening habeas corpus

Intelligence of Community Reads Journal

Roberts Bros. recently wanted salespeople and naturally, as other well-posted business men do who want quick returns, they inserted the accompanying ad in the "Want" columns of The Journal. The results were greater and quicker than they expected, as the letter below indicates:

Gentlemen: Please kill our classified advertisement under heading of Help Wanted, as its publication has thronged our office all day with applicants, male and female, for clerical positions in the store. In fact the returns from this advertisement have been greater than we have ever had before from any similar announcement in any newspaper, and the class of respondents have been, intellectually and in appearance, greatly superior to those ordinarily answering our classified ads. This we esteem convincing evidence that The Journal is carefully read by the intelligence of the community. We are greatly pleased with the results we have received from The Journal. Yours very truly, ROBERTS BROS.

The Journal is constantly in receipt of communications from individuals who have secured help or positions through The Journal. Lost articles are quickly found; Real Estate finds ready sales and numerous other little wants are daily satisfied through the Classified Columns of this newspaper. The rate is but 5 cents per line each insertion. If you cannot come to the office phone Main 500.

A Tent Home Under the Trees at Gladstone Park.

11 to 12—Domestic science, Miss Lillian Tingle, tent. 9 to 12—Art class, Miss Louise Conant, Auditorium. 11 to 12—Round table, Auditorium.

Yesterday afternoon's program was especially enjoyable, opening with a reading by Professor Mark B. Seal, the Chautauqua elocutionist. The White Temple quartet, Miss Ethel Lytia, Miss Ethel Shea, J. W. Belcher and Carl Robinson, with Miss Grace Kemp accompanied, sang "My Old Kentucky Home" and "Sometimes" and was warmly applauded.

Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, Portland's well-known pulpist orator, lectured yesterday afternoon, taking for his subject, "What's Under Your Hat?" He gave a splendid address and said that high ideals and principles were necessary to modern success. He advised people to select something for a vocation in harmony with individual talent and then to push forward with tireless energy, developing both the mind and body.

The Multnomah Amateur Athletic club team was defeated at baseball by the Northwest Gun & Bicycle company team, the score being 17 to 8. The game was an average exhibition of amateur baseball. The Chemawa and Vancouver teams play this afternoon.

Rosani, the manipulator and balancer, held a large audience last night with his feats of legerdemain and will appear for the last time tonight.

Round Table. At the round table this morning Miss Louise Conant lectured on "Art." Miss Conant comes from the Rockford college of Illinois, and her talks are very interesting.

Miss Mary Adell Case sang D'Hardelot's "Because," and Chaminade's "On the Shore" this afternoon, and Mrs. Gielow's delightful afternoon from "Old Plantation Days" was enjoyed by a large crowd. The W. C. T. U. held a round table in the Auditorium this afternoon with studies in food problems.

The speakers were Mrs. Sarah Evans and Mrs. Ella Hines. The program for tomorrow follows: 8 to 12—Summer school. 1—Music, Parsons' orchestra, one hour. 2—Reading, Professor Mark B. Seal; solo, Mrs. Imogen Harding Brodie; an afternoon with Mrs. Gielow in her songs and stories of the old south.

2:30—Baseball, Portland Trunk company vs. Northwest Gun & Bicycle company. 3—Parsons' orchestra, one hour. 4—Solo, Miss Ethel Shea; lecture, "Lincoln on the Scorn of Consequences," Rabbi Stephen S. Wise of Portland.

Next Friday will be Woman's Suffrage day at the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association assembly at Gladstone Park. Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe of Portland, president of the Oregon Equal Suffrage association, will fill in the hour's program between 11 and 12 o'clock with the past, present and future phases of suffrage in this state. The speakers will be Colonel Robert A. Miller, B. E. Gillespie, Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway, Dr. Annie Jeffrey Myers, Mrs. Clara Colby, Mrs. Eva Emery Dye and Mrs. Clara H. Waldo.

Tonic After Typhoid Mrs. Evelyn B. Barnard, Station B, Kingston, N. Y., writes: "I regard Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a life-saver for me. I had been down nine weeks in the City Hospital with the terrible typhoid fever. When I was discharged of course I was very weak and could hardly stand on my feet. I had read so much of your medicine and its cures that I resolved to give it a fair trial. I took three bottles on the first day and in two weeks was able to walk half a mile without tiring, and I can really and truly say it saved me from relapse. I still keep it in the bottle, as it is the only good medicine to have around as a preventive in any kind of sickness. I hope you will publish this, that others may know where to find a medicine that really has such merit." Doctors of all schools say that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is a great preventive. It acts as a great preventive. It stimulates circulation and gives vigor to the whole body. It is a positive cure for typhoid, cramps, dysentery, sunstroke, cholera morbus and chills. It is the only whiskey recognized as a medicine. This is a guarantee. It is absolutely pure and contains no fusel oil. Thousands of leading doctors prescribe it and prominent hospitals use and endorse it exclusively. All druggists and grocers, or direct, 11 bottles, Medical booklet free. UPHILL WORK FOR ROOSEVELT

Bryan Discusses Political Situation in America and Change in Ideals.

TEDDY'S REFORMS NOT SUPPORTED BY PARTY

Platform on Which President Was Elected Gave Him No Mandate—People Beginning to Learn That There Is Something Beside Money.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, July 11.—A special to the Times from London states: "It is true," I asked Bryan yesterday, "that President Roosevelt caught you in swimming and stole your clothes? Over in America they say that is what has happened."

"He did not get all my clothes," Mr. Bryan answered laughingly, and quickly added: "I doubt whether what he did get fit him very well."

Mr. Bryan went on: "It is hard, uphill work for Mr. Roosevelt to make his administration respond to the country's evident demand for reforms, for the country gave him no mandate. The platform on which he was elected does not declare that our laws and our government should aim at the welfare of the whole people, but, if a Democratic president is chosen in 1908, he will undoubtedly represent a party committed to this reform idea and will be in quite a different situation."

Change Over Country. "There is no doubt about the people's wish in this respect. Views that were considered revolutionary a few years ago are now accepted as sane and necessary. A change has come over the country. An American asked me today: 'Mr. Bryan, how do you explain the change that has come over some of our rich men in respect to their attitude toward Democratic principles?' I replied: 'The explanation is very easy. People who live in a valley watch the dams above them and if a flood is threatened, they know that the higher the dam, the greater the danger, and some of them have made up their minds that they cannot afford to dam public sentiment any longer.'

The Ethical Movement. "There is another thing to be considered," said Mr. Bryan after a pause, "namely, the ethical movement. A great many men are beginning to learn that there is something in the world more valuable than money, and it has gratified me to hear of numbers of cases where men have taken a larger view of their relations to their fellow and of their responsibilities. This introspection is making some of them ashamed of the questionable methods which they have resorted to in the past."

"Mr. and Mrs. Bryan have temporarily abandoned their planned continental tour, and have decided to remain in Great Britain until after the conference of the later parliamentary union, which will open here July 22. They will spend some time in Scotland, and he and Mrs. Bryan are kept busy keeping engagements."

INJURED SWITCHMAN MUCH BETTER TODAY The condition of Walter N. Guy, the O. R. & N. switchman whose broken back was mended at St. Vincent's hospital last Monday, took a surprising turn for the better today. Yesterday for the condition of the young man was critical. Today he is much stronger and the attending physician now hopeful of his recovery.

TAKE POWER FROM GOVERNOR

Scheme to Have Legislature Elect Board to Make Appointments to Institutions.

RUMORED VAN DUSEN WILL GO OUT OF OFFICE

Changes in Other Appointive Positions Are Improbable After Good Records Made by the Present Incumbents.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, July 11.—Occasional visitors to the capital city from the sagebrush plains, from the mountains and from the seashore, who have axes to grind for themselves or their friends, and who claim to have done valiant service to their respective parties in time of dire distress, are the only evidences that any political troubles are brewing.

A story is current that the next legislature will be asked to frame a law to place all the state institutions under one governing board and to have that board elected by the legislature. The avowed object of this, it seems, is to take all possible appointive power from the hands of the governor. Some of the legislators are said to be opposed to this plan and say that it would be the irony of fate to enact this law and let it be followed by the election of a Democratic legislature and a Republican governor.

The tenure of office of H. G. Van Dusen, master fish warden, will expire the first of the year. His successor will be appointed by the state fish commission, composed of the governor, the secretary of state and state treasurer. It is said on the streets and in political circles that Van Dusen will not succeed himself. It is also rumored that the new secretary of state, Mr. Benson, and the new state treasurer, Mr. Steele, each have a candidate for this place and that these officials represent different wings of the Republican party as widely divergent as the poles and that they cannot agree on a man. It is also said that the governor has no personal candidate and only is concerned that the appointees shall be competent. The story goes that Mr. Steele is anxious to have his brother appointed to the job, but that Mr. Benson refuses to stand for it. Mr. Steele is a "Masama," and it has been suggested that a compromise may be effected by having him appointed a forest ranger so that he may climb mountains at will and leave the fish job for one of Mr. Benson's friends.

The same governing board appoints the superintendents of the State Reform school and the State Insane asylum, and so far as can be ascertained, there are no very active candidates for these places except the present incumbents. The Deaf Mute school and the School for the blind are managed by a board composed of the governor, the secretary of state and the superintendent of public instruction. As two of these officials, the governor and the superintendent of public instruction, hold over four more years, no changes in officials in these institutions are likely to occur.

The state land agent, the superintendent of the penitentiary and the state engineer are appointees of the governor. All these officials have made such good records that any changes in these places are improbable.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF STAR COURSE MADE Announcement was made yesterday by the Y. M. C. A. of the program for the Y. M. C. A. star course for the coming season. The list of names includes some of the most prominent men in the county. Jacob A. Rife, John Kendrick Bangs and Newell Dwight Hillis are among the best known who will appear in Portland.

In addition to the regular course, arrangements have just been completed with Senator Robert M. La Follette and William Jennings Bryan, who were to have appeared in this city last season, to speak next fall. Both men were unable to all their engagements and Secretary Stone said today that those holding course tickets for last season would be allowed to attend the speeches of the politicians when they appeared in the fall.
