Seattle Race Goers Prayed All Last Week for Cooling Breezes.

MISTY'S PRIDE HAS BEEN RUNNING WELL

On Saturday, the Popular Oregon Bred, Raised and Owned Stepper Equaled Track Record for Five Furlongs-Review of the Racing.

this neek of the woods. Race-goers were praying for old Jupiter Pluvius to take a sneak and "stay snook." but he wouldn't do it until he had given us about three weeks of moisture. Now they are praying for the return of Jupe and the banishment of Sol. "The oldest inhabitant" say that it never was so warm on such a long stretch in years agone. I vow he is correct in his assertion, and will back it up with long laundry lists.

Misty's Pride, bred, raised and owned in Oregon, equaled the track record at five furlongs (0.59%) Baturdsy with 88 pounds up, and the manner in which she did it leads one to believe that 0.59% would not have been beyond her. Misty's Pride is by Handsome from Misty Morn, and was bred by Mr. S. J. Jones of Portland. For Handsome, her sire, Mr. Jones received $2,500 after buying him of Zeke Abrahams for $250, and Dr. Neet, present owner of Handsome, has refused $25,000 for the horse, hence there has been quite a play upon hence there has been quite a play upon "25" since Handsome passed from the race track to the stud. The writer was the one who informed Dr. Nest of Handsome's whereabouts after Cinderella's sons had become so famous. There were Ferrier, Hastings, Plaudit, Handsome and Glenham. Hastings has headed the "winning stallions" list of America. Plaudit sired Bill Curtis, among others. Glenham begot Native Son, unbeaten here up to yesterday. Misty Morn was bred by Robert Bybee, Misty Morn was bred by Robert Bybee, of Fortland, and a very fast mare she was, by St. Paul, and if memory serves he was by Alarm. Jack Brannan of Baker City, owns Misty's Pride, which has been regarded as a speed marvel from a two-year-old up. The same owner's Stilicho found it a different proposition carrying 111 pounds instead of 100 or 106, and wound up fourth in the South Park handicap yesterday.

Dusty Miller's Peat.

Dusty Miller's Peat.

Dusty Miller equaled Stillcho's mile and a quarter mark of 2:05 % yesterday, but had up 105 pounds against 100 for Brannan's horse.

Several big "clean-ups" were made last week, the heaviest being last Monday, when John J. Ellerd captured races with Ralph Young and Harbor. The first named was played down from 10 to 1 to 3% to 1 and won all the way, while Harbor was at 5 to 1. Young was especially well played in the Sausalito and Los Angeles pool-rooms. Ellerd, of the same afternoon at a long price. D.'S. Fountain, the Idaho horseman, "cleaned-up" heavily on Birdle P that afternoon. On Tuesday Joyner and Flaunt were the "good things" that went through, the former being backed from 3 to 1 to 3 to 2. Wednesday E. C. Runte was played being backed from 3 to 1 to 3 to 2. Wednesday E. C. Runte was played from 5 to 2 to 7 to 6 and won; and Rotron, played for a swine-slaughtering in the first race, was beaten a head through meeting with a series of mishaps. Thursday there were large foings on Yellowstone, and he responded gallantly to the backing down from 6 to 1 to 4½ to 1. Titus II was very heavily played on Friday, and won pulled up, but Atkins, Epicure and Hippocrates, supposed sure things and pocrates, supposed sure things and played accordingly, did not treat their he bids fair to do so if his healthy appearance goes for anything, as his Several horsemen, bookmakers and horses arrived at The Meadows on Friday from Denver. Steve Judge brought along the Colorado Derby winner, Theo

A. Case, whom many think will win the Seattle Derby. An official of the club was expressing himself in favor of Theo on Friday, when a little "coon" exercise boy took issue with him, "Don't you said the lump of soot. "Why not?" said the nettled official. "'Kase it don't

Columbus Jones and Frank McAvoy were the bookmakers to comic over from as proprietors of the Saratoga club. Mr.

McAvoy was formerly manager of the callers drew in Saturday in the big ring against eleven on the previous Wednesday. Most of the "layers" are now winners on the Meeting, Joe Harlan probably heading the list, with Engstrom, Soule, Nelson and Jones well up in the running. There are no very heavy steady bettors here, though occasionally some of the Seattleites take a fiyer for a goodly sum. D. S. Fountain, the horseman, and Harry Stover, owner of the Petaluma aviary, are probably of the Petaluma aviary, are protected the best bettors on the grounds. Among the Owners.

J. E. Hoppas is looming up close to the top of the list of owners. On Friday his Dr. Sherman won at odds of 10 to 1. Saturday his Grace St. Clair was added to the list of starters for the Woodlands handleap, for 2-years-olds, and she won it at odds of 30 to 1. Native Son, undefeated here in his four provious recess finished second, heaten previous races, finished second, beaten half a length in 1:00 ½. He carried 122 pounds to the filly's 104.

pounds to the filly's 104.

"Scotty" Ferguson lost his "Sunday horse," Sandstone, Saturday by the claiming route. Sandstone cost the Seattle man $4,500 something like two years ago, and broke several watches in the early hours of the morning, with the result that Ferguson has wagered as much as $10,000 on his chances since his purchase. At $250, his price yesterday to L. C. Davis, Sandstone may prove a good buy, but many will doubt it. As he must have run his mile yesterday better than 1:40 from where he got off, it looks as if the horse ought got off, it looks as if the horse ought to win some sort of a race soon.

Thus far it looks as if Hippocrates was about the best of the older "distance horses," Misty's Pride the speediest of the older sprinters, Kumiss perhaps the best of the 3-year-olds over a route, Native Son undoubtedly the best of the 2-year-olds. McBride heads the jockeys' list. Lawrence, T. Sullivan and Graham have been pressing him closely this week. Ike Tullett has done exceptionally well, too.

ATLANTIC CITY HORSE SHOW BEGINS TODAY

(Journal Special Service.)

Atlantic City, N. J., July 17.—The biggest and beet is the general verdict of the society folk and summer sojourners who thronged Inlet Park today at the opening of the annual exhibition of the Atlantic City Horse Show association. It is the eighth exhibition of the kind held here and as a matter of fact, it eclipses in both number and high class of entries all of the shows that have gone before. In the 60 classes are the prize-winning equines from many of the most famous stables of the east. Judging was begun soon after the opening today and will be continued until the exhibition closes next Saturday. Thousands of dollars will be distributed in prizes.

England has a clean score in dual competition with America this season, having won in rowing and both men's and women's tennis. Hurry up with that challenge, Sir Thomas.

Tim Flood, who eloped from Portland control and went to the outlaw league. Will be back among us very soon. He found the going in the non-union baseball aggregation not as smooth as he thought it would be and hiked out for the most famous stables of the east. Judging was begun soon after the opening today and will be continued until the exhibition closes next Saturday. Thousands of dollars will be distributed in prizes.

Columbus, Ohio, has a chorus girls' baseball team. Let's see—how far is Columbus from here?

Eastern turf critics have adopted a most appropriate term for the sport of horse racing—that of "outing."

Andrew Freedman, who used to own the New York National league team, is credited with being worth $5,000,300. Andy must have been playing the races.

In long-distance slugging Lumley is leading the National league, with Hans Wagner a close second. The former Seattle player has six two-baggers, eleven three-baggers and seven home runs to his credit, making a total of 73 bases. Wagner has 19 two-baggers, nine three-baggers and only one home run. Thus it will be seen that while Lumley falls behind Wagner in two-baggers he outpoints him in three-baggers and home runs.

If Boston could annex Lynn the Beantown fans would then have a team that is putting up a great fight for championship honors.

The Lancaster club of the Tri-State league recently lost a 14-inning game to Williamsport by a score of 3 to 2. And the following day the same club lost a 13-inning game to York, 5 to 2. The Tri-State is certainly the "cookles" for extra-inning games.

The first team from afar to request game with the Multnomah club's football eleven this fall is the strong North Dakota aggregation that is planning trip to the coast to meet the strongest elevens along the Pacific seaboard. The North Dakota team is powerful and would give the clubmen a hard struggle. It is likely that the Dakota bunch will along the University play the University of Washington Seattle Athletic plub, Oregon and sev eral other teams in the northwest. It is not known yet whether arrangements can be made to take on the Dakotans. The University of Idaho eleven want to tackle the "Winged M" men, too, this year. The Idaho lads play a very fast

The Woodburn team Bunday added another scalp to the long string on its belt, by defeating the Northwest Gun club team, in a one-sided contest on the Woodburn diamond, by a score of 17 to 1.
