

SEND IN YOUR COUPONS IF YOU WANT OWL CAR SERVICE

Impending Strike May Delay Matters, but the Subject Will Not Be Allowed to Drop Because of It.

In view of the impending street car strike the Portland Railway, Light & Power company can hardly be expected to take up the owl car proposition for several days.

To the Editor of The Journal: I am in favor of an all night streetcar service for Portland and vicinity.

Name _____ Address _____

GRAND LODGE, DEGREE OF HONOR, IN SESSION IN A. O. U. W. HALL

Credentials of One Hundred Delegates Are Received and Passed Upon.

FOURTEEN PAST GRAND CHIEFS ATTEND SESSION

Delegates Will Not Meet in Evening Sessions, but Will Spend Time in Pleasure Seeking—Committees Are Appointed.

The grand lodge, Degree of Honor, A. O. U. W., held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

These past grand chiefs who have passed through the regular list of officers are: Mary Randall, Portland; Susan Grell, Oakland, California; Kate J. Young, Menlo Park, California; Julia Gwilt, McMinnville; Maggie Houston, Eugene; Carrie M. Holman, Astoria; R. H. B. Sheridan, Astoria; Maud Briggs, White Salmon; Washington; Martha A. Armstrong, Idaho; Maggie A. Barker, Albany; Minnie De Feat, Astoria; Clara Smith, Prineville; Wilda S. Belknap, Prineville; Laura A. Smith, Baker City; Adelle B. Colvig, Jacksonville.

Two Short Addresses. After the grand lodge degree was conferred Margaret E. Herbin was introduced and in opening remarks emphasized the importance of good will and harmony during the session.

Mrs. Sadie E. Moore, Grand Usher. Henrietta Towney, Portland; Fannie Stahlman, Detroit; Pearl Erickson, Bandon; Hattie Bunn, John Day; Ethel Miller, Clackamas; Maud Howell, Waldron; Jennie Hurn, Klamath Falls; Ada M. Kuykendall, Dora, Sovern; Eugene M. Kuykendall, Canby; Bertha Pittsgerald, Minnie Massingill, Lakewood; Lula Lee, Grant; Eva Keene, Macleay; Euretta Hornsey, Culver; Anna Westerfield, Grass Valley; Sarah Donaldson, Salem; Oma Smith, Elgin; Elsie Wells, Elkton; Mary Doane, Sumpter; Sophie Henderson, Scottsburg; Murray Wilsonville; Mary Smith, St. Paul; Carrie A. Benson, Myrtle Point; Elizabeth Elvers, Portland.

NEW MEXICO SHAKEN BY SEVERE SHOCKS. Albuquerque, N. M., July 17.—There was an earthquake here yesterday. No damage is reported. A shock or continuation of shocks have been felt for the past few days at Socorro, San Marcial and other towns south of this city.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH FIRST DEGREE MURDER. Seattle, Wash., July 17.—Ester Mitchell and Mrs. Maud Hurt Crawford were charged in the information filed in the superior court this morning by prosecuting Attorney Mackintosh with murder in the first degree by killing George Mitchell. Both women were charged jointly by the same information, and the prosecution will attempt to try them together. They will not be given separate trials unless they demand them.

UNKNOWN MAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE. A man unknown to the people of the neighborhood attempted suicide this afternoon at front and Mill streets by taking enough strychnine to kill a horse. Dr. Carrico was called in to attend the man and after applying the stomach pump succeeded in saving his life. The police allowed him to go without ascertaining his name.

NEW YORK GRAND JURY PROBING SUGAR TRUST. New York, July 17.—The federal grand jury met today to investigate the sugar rebate scheme. It will probably take up the Standard Oil case within a week.

RUSSIAN POLICEMEN STRIKE FOR REFORMS. St. Petersburg, July 17.—Policemen are waging a strike for reforms. They are waging a strike for reforms. They are waging a strike for reforms.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

OREGON GRAND LODGE CONVENES AND SUPREME MASTER MAKES ADDRESS.

Delegates from almost every lodge in state. Sixty new members admitted to Grand Lodge, the ceremony being performed by Grand Master Berchtold.

DELEGATES FROM ALMOST EVERY LODGE IN STATE

Sixty new members admitted to Grand Lodge, the ceremony being performed by Grand Master Berchtold.

Delegates from nearly every lodge in the state are attending the annual session of the Oregon grand lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, which convenes this morning in Knights of Pythias hall, Eleventh and Alder streets.

The session this morning was devoted largely to organization and hearing the report of the committee on credentials.

The feature of the session was the address of W. M. Narvis of Meucating, Iowa, supreme master of the order. The supreme master congratulated the Oregon jurisdiction on having adopted in ample time adequate rates of insurance so that there need be no further change.

Important matters of business pertaining to the order will be heard Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Among the most important questions to be discussed will be the investment of a $20,000 reserve fund in northwestern securities.

List of Those Present. Following is a list of the grand officers who are present: W. F. Clarke, grand foreman; Philip Gevurtz, grand overseer; Newton Clark, grand recorder; R. L. Durbin, grand receiver; W. H. Warner, grand guide; Samuel Roak, grand inside watchman; George T. Baldwin, grand outside watchman; D. Walker, grand medical examiner.

COURT ORDERS MAYOR LANE TO SIGN WARRANT. Judge Gantenbein this morning directed the clerk of the circuit court to issue a writ of mandamus commanding Mayor Harry Lane to sign a salary warrant for $75 for James McDonald as bailiff of the municipal court.

BERTHA PRECINCT MEN WANT INVESTIGATION. Five out of the six clerks and judges who served in the Bertha precinct, recent the order of the late grand jury in declaring that the mistakes made in the count of the precinct were not the result of fraud, but were owing to the stupidity of the election officers.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY FAILS TO TAKE ACTION IN CLEVELAND. The grand jury in the Chicago district, in its report to the federal grand jury in the Chicago district, reviewed the evidence obtained here, and concluded the testimony fixed the jurisdiction elsewhere.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH FIRST DEGREE MURDER. Seattle, Wash., July 17.—Ester Mitchell and Mrs. Maud Hurt Crawford were charged in the information filed in the superior court this morning by prosecuting Attorney Mackintosh with murder in the first degree by killing George Mitchell.

UNKNOWN MAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE. A man unknown to the people of the neighborhood attempted suicide this afternoon at front and Mill streets by taking enough strychnine to kill a horse.

NEW YORK GRAND JURY PROBING SUGAR TRUST. New York, July 17.—The federal grand jury met today to investigate the sugar rebate scheme.

RUSSIAN POLICEMEN STRIKE FOR REFORMS. St. Petersburg, July 17.—Policemen are waging a strike for reforms.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

TROUBLE BREWING FOR PERSON WHO BROKE UP CHURCH SERVICE

There is trouble brewing for the practical joker who disturbed religious services at Taylor Street Methodist church Sunday night if he fails into the clutches of Dr. E. Burgett Short, pastor of the church, or Dr. Clarence Trust Wilson of Grace Methodist church.

Just before he went to the church he received a telephone call asking him to officiate at a wedding.

PREY BLONDE HIGGS MEN WHO WEAR SOFT FELT HATS. A man wearing a soft felt hat was walking along Burnside street, near Eleventh street, this forenoon, when a patrolman overtook him.

CASES DECIDED BY SUPREME COURT. Demas Subject to Imprisonment Though He Did Not Carry Weapon at Riot.

Supreme Court Denies a Retrial of Celebrated Case for Portland Realty. The decision ends the protracted litigation and gives to the Title Guarantee & Trust company the absolute title to property estimated at nearly $1,000,000.

PORTLAND COUPLE ARE NOT ALLOWED TO MARRY. Vancouver, Wash., July 17.—Yesterday a man and woman appeared at the county auditor's office and applied for a marriage license.

EAST SIDERS TO HOLD INDIGNATION MEETING. An indignation meeting will be held this evening by the people who are protesting against the erection of the east side city barn at East Seventh and Hancock streets.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH FIRST DEGREE MURDER. Seattle, Wash., July 17.—Ester Mitchell and Mrs. Maud Hurt Crawford were charged in the information filed in the superior court this morning by prosecuting Attorney Mackintosh with murder in the first degree by killing George Mitchell.

UNKNOWN MAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE. A man unknown to the people of the neighborhood attempted suicide this afternoon at front and Mill streets by taking enough strychnine to kill a horse.

NEW YORK GRAND JURY PROBING SUGAR TRUST. New York, July 17.—The federal grand jury met today to investigate the sugar rebate scheme.

RUSSIAN POLICEMEN STRIKE FOR REFORMS. St. Petersburg, July 17.—Policemen are waging a strike for reforms.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

OTHER HAWTHORNE SPRINGS, HOWEVER, ARE CONTAMINATED AND SHOULD BE LET ALONE.

Hawthorne Springs, alternately condemned and praised by experts and common critics alike, has been vindicated, this time, it is said, for good.

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE BY HEALTH OFFICER. New Notices Posted in Hawthorne Park Tell Public That Water of Main Spring Is Not Injurious to Those Who Drink It.

When asked for a statement this morning, Dr. Wheeler said: "I have been officially informed by Dr. Ralph W. Matson, state bacteriologist, that the water from the main spring, known as the Rock spring, is absolutely pure, perfectly safe for drinking purposes, and I have posted a notice near this spring, stating this to be a fact.

LIES BESIDE HIS MOTHER. George Mitchell Buried in Cemetery of Friends Church at Newberg.

SIMPLE BUT IMPRESSIVE SERVICES OVER REMAINS. Townpeople Raise Money to Defray Expenses of Burial of Slayer of Holy Roller Apostle Who Was Murdered by His Sister.

Portland, July 17.—Beside his mother, in a quiet cemetery of the Friends church, in this town, George Mitchell lies in the last long rest.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH FIRST DEGREE MURDER. Seattle, Wash., July 17.—Ester Mitchell and Mrs. Maud Hurt Crawford were charged in the information filed in the superior court this morning by prosecuting Attorney Mackintosh with murder in the first degree by killing George Mitchell.

UNKNOWN MAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE. A man unknown to the people of the neighborhood attempted suicide this afternoon at front and Mill streets by taking enough strychnine to kill a horse.

NEW YORK GRAND JURY PROBING SUGAR TRUST. New York, July 17.—The federal grand jury met today to investigate the sugar rebate scheme.

RUSSIAN POLICEMEN STRIKE FOR REFORMS. St. Petersburg, July 17.—Policemen are waging a strike for reforms.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.

Portland, July 17.—The grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. held its first session this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building in the A. O. U. W. hall.