

PORTLAND LEADS THE LEAGUE

Yesterday's Victory Over Seattle Puts Giants in First Place.

RUBE VICKERS PITCHES BRILLIANT CONTEST

Hansen's Two Errors Behind the Bat and Sivasas' Poor Base-running Costs Puget Sound Nine Another Game.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, Wash., July 20.—The Giants refused to be stopped on their great march to the pennant pole. Yesterday the victors made it nine straight victories from the Sierras and local fans are wondering now whether the five out of seven games that Seattle took from Portland two weeks ago were not really presented to Russ Hall's aggregation.

Jack Chesbro, New York Americans' Great Pitcher.

The locals rushed Van Buren across the plate in the first inning on Henderson's wildness and Sweeney's bad throw. In every inning afterward they connected for either one or two hits, but fast fielding at critical times kept the men on the circuit, 14 being left on base.
