

FOR the sake of the society... her daughter, Miss Dorothy, Mrs. W. B. King, Mrs. C. S. Jackson, Chauncey Winslow and W. D. Whelwright, Miss Alice Sibson and Miss Emma Felling, the Tom Kerrs and Mr. Chas. H. Reid, Mr. Webb, Mr. Durfon and Rodney Gilman and a number of others.

such and Miss May Brown as accompanists. About 100 guests were present and they were met at the door by Miss Lillian Kennedy.

Frances Lewis, Miss Caroline Flanders, Miss Louise Flanders, Miss Kathleen Burns, Miss Carolyn Burns, Miss Amy Heitshu, Miss Margaret Walter, Miss Inez Barrett, Miss Emma Felling, Miss Alice Sibson, Miss Liss Wood, Harry Corbett, Chester Murphy, David Honeyman, C. E. E. Webb, Edward Crella, F. B. Gifford, T. S. McBeth, Thales Lithicum, Mr. Peters of Baltimore, Rodney Gilman, Walter Beebe and Bert Mackay.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. M. Jamison on King's Heights was the scene of a merry gathering of friends on Saturday evening a week ago.

Mr. John M. Pipes whose picture is shown on today's society page is well known in Portland and has many admirers both for her charming and piquant personality and her marked musical ability.

Mr. George Walker and Miss Annette Walker left last week for Banff on the Canadian Pacific, where they will spend two months.

Mr. Gus Simon and her daughter, Miss Helen, left yesterday morning for Seattle.

Mr. Philip Johnston, who is the guest of his cousin, Mr. Alvord, spent part of the week at Seaside with the Robert Lewises.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop left yesterday on a trip to Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, who have many friends in the city, are again at the Portland.

Mrs. Pipes is the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Martin K. Pipes of this city and until recent years lived in Portland. Later she went to Eugene and was there in charge of the violin department of the state university.

One of the most unique entertainments was given Thursday evening by Mrs. Cameron in surprise to Judge Cameron. The Judge's Scottish tendencies were emphasized throughout and the guests felt for the moment that they had a real taste of the land of the Heather.

The large veranda was inclosed with British, Scotch, Irish and American flags and lighted with Chinese lanterns. There were about 50 guests who enjoyed a Scotch program of songs, recitations and dancing given by three pipers and six dancers in costume.

A clever plan of entertainment was devised by Miss Nan Wood for last Monday evening when she celebrated her birthday with a progressive supper. Fifteen tables were arranged on the veranda and the terraces and as the guests arrived in restaurant toilettes they were shown at once to their tables by waitresses.

Mrs. John M. Pipes, Violinist.

Dr. Benjamin Moody, a well-known physician, who has been visiting friends on the coast, left Wednesday for their home. Tuesday evening they were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Tranchell, 133 1/2 Pacific street.

Mrs. Frank Riley was at home very informally Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Louise Howland of San Francisco, who has been visiting for some weeks at her sister Mrs. Gunn.

Saturday evenings at the golf links are the principal events for society now and every one looks forward to those evenings when one may see everybody else at dinner.

Miss Alice Von Destinon left yesterday to join her sister, Miss Olga, who has been visiting in Seattle.

A little girl who is attracting much attention among her friends for her childish charm and grace is little Evelyn Magruder, who has quite recently come here from San Francisco with her parents.

The Misses Edna and Grace Amos gave an informal musical Thursday evening in honor of Miss Barstow. There were about 40 guests and an informal program was much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hill, Rev. Mr. Sharp, Mr. Ferguson and the Misses Sterling went along to leave to raise the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopkins and their children have returned to town after three months spent on their farm in southern Oregon.

Miss Susie Smith is Mrs. Wesley Ladd's guest at Long Beach. Mrs. Ladd is occupying the Mackenzie cottage this summer.

Miss Mildred Walrath is the guest of her friend Miss Irene Albe at the H. R. Albe cottage at Long Beach.

Mrs. Ned Ayr and Miss Nellie Williams are greatly enjoying their summer's stay in Victoria, B. C.

Mrs. Sol Blumauer and her daughter, Hazel, left Friday to visit at Hotel Moore at Seaside.

Mrs. E. C. Bowers and Mrs. Allen Wright, with her children are summering at Seaside.

Mrs. F. W. Noon and her daughter, Miss Flora and Miss Alma, are at their cottage at Tioga Beach.

Mrs. E. H. Brooks entertained a small party at dinner at the golf links last night.

The T. T. Davis family are in their cottage at Ocean Park for the season.

The E. E. Lytle family are guests at the Breakers at Seaside.

LADIES OUTFITTERS LEADING FURRIERS. The Woman's Store Fourth and Morrison. Lohmeyer's QUALITY VALUE PERSONAL SERVICE.

Mid-Summer Clearance Sale Specials EVERY ARTICLE REDUCED.

Skirt Special. We have just purchased for spot cash at 50 per cent less than cost a line of Skirts of the largest and most celebrated skirt house in America.

Shirtwaist Special. Lingerie Waists, values up to $2.50. 98¢. Jap Silk Waists, values up to $5.00. $2.98. Fancy Yoke Lace Waists, values up to $3.00. $1.35.

On Sale Tuesday $3.45.

MILLINERY SPECIALS

Duck Hat Special. Duck Hats, values up to $7.00. $4.95. Duck Hats, values up to $3.00. $1.95. Duck Hats, values up to $1.00. 75¢.

Trimmed Hat Special. Hats, values up to $20.00. $3.98. Hats, values up to $12.00. $2.95. Hats, values up to $8.00. $1.95.

Linen Suit Special. This special includes all our finest and most elaborate Summer Dresses together with our most desirable and practical Wash Costumes.

Fur Special. Remodeling, relining and repairing of your furs done up to September 1 at a saving of 25 per cent and stored free of charge.

SEE OUR MORRISON ST. WINDOW.

Allen, Mrs. Sam Vench, Mrs. Stella Nash, Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Robert Chambers, Mrs. W. W. Paterson, Mrs. Willard, Mrs. Martin Shes, Mrs. Letta Smith, Mr. Bennett, Martine Shes, Fred Walters, Elmer McKinney, Miss Julia Bika, Miss Gertrude Marper, Miss Mary Marper, Miss McCarty, Miss Swanson, Miss Ida Shea, Miss Nash, Miss Lillian Vench, Miss Elizabeth Craig, Miss Alice Brewer, Miss Hazel Wieden, Miss Flora Paterson, Martha Allen, Edleen Sprague, Welba Llanellan, Hubert Beattie, Byron Beattie, Dr. Wayne Wieden, Fred Wieden, Raymond Moon and Byron Llanellan.

An al fresco entertainment at the Portland heights park Tuesday evening was largely attended by friends of the cause for which it was given.

L. G. Mayer was host at a delightful surprise party at the Albe cottage Saturday Wednesday evening.

Mrs. George Hayward gave a luncheon Tuesday in honor of her sister, Mrs. M. B. Dalton, who returns today to her home in Denver.

The steamship F. A. Kilburn was the scene of a merry gathering Wednesday evening, when Captain Morrison entertained at dinner.

A very pleasant party assembled at the home of Mrs. M. B. Spaulding, Penitentiary street, Tuesday evening in honor of her daughter, Beulah's seventeenth birthday.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A brilliant lawn fete largely attended was given Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wieden, 225 Cleveland avenue.

A New Furrier. A Reiner, the expert furrier and designer, has recently opened parlors in Lewis building for repairing, remodeling and redyeing fine furs.

Mrs. Will Morton and Mrs. Edward Green entertained a number of their friends with a launching party on the river Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Edna Wilson of Chicago.

WEDDING AND VISITING CARDS. W. G. SMITH & Co. Washington Building.

the hostesses and Miss Wilson there were Miss Faye Orton, Miss Mertie Seldon, Miss Viola Whelan, Mr. Morton, Mr. Green, Tom Robinson, Edwin Gordon, Sheldon Morrison and Milo Edwards.

Miss Edna Wilson was the guest of honor at a small party that spent the afternoon and evening at the Oaks Monday.

Miss Maime L. Jones entertained a number of her young friends in a pleasant manner Thursday evening at her home, 2904 1/2 Fourth street.

Miss Florence Hollister entertained informally at a luncheon on Thursday. The occasion was a farewell luncheon given in honor of Miss Dorothy Newhall, who is soon to leave for Palo Alto, California.

Mrs. George Hayward gave a luncheon Tuesday in honor of her sister, Mrs. M. B. Dalton, who returns today to her home in Denver.

ONLY WEDON GRADUATE ON PACIFIC COAST.

Oriental Beauty Parlor. Tan and Freckles Removed. Quality and without annoyance, and the fact is that these make beautiful of you... A Large Jar of Complexion Cream Free.