Siwashes Proved to Be Easy Picking for the Wary Leaders.

M'HALE'S BATTING WAS FEATURE OF CONTEST

Welch Pitched Good Ball Until the Eighth Inning When the Locals Found Him for Five Hits and as Many Runs—Story of Game.

Portland 8, Seattle 2.

Batteries—Henderson and Donahue; Welch and Blankenship.

Yesterday's game at Recreation park savored strongly of the mush-and-milk variety. It was one of those semi-interesting affairs while it lasted, but after the fans got outside of the park they would figure out where the interesting work was done.

If anybody wants to know why Seattle loses every day the best way to glean this information is to take a trip to the ball grounds and watch a game or two. Forever afterward this inquisitive mortal will be convinced that the Siwashes are as stale as last season's punk.

Welch, who pitched for the visitors, is a man picked from among the seaweeds on the mud flats of Seattle. He is a hard worker and did his best to win, but after his teammates insisted upon doing nothing but silly stunts the clever young twirler let down and the Giants hammered out five runs in the eighth.

Eddie Householder tried to scoop McCredie's hit in the fourth and the ball got lost in the weeds near the fence, so the handsome and stalwart local mogul was given credit for a home run.

Seattle got busy in the first while Sweeney and Lister were enjoying their siesta, and Van Buren crossed the festive rubber. Sweeney's bungle in the second allowed Croll to register. This ended the scoring for the visitors, as Henderson slid them over in the only way and the efforts of the Siwashes availed them nothing.

The Giants woke up in the second and Smith scored. McCredie's home run was a trifle seedy, but it tied the score in the fourth. In the sixth two hits and a fainting spell by the Indians put Moore over the plate and the locals one to the good. The rest of the game was so easy that Russ Hall left the bench and walked home. Five corking drives and the usual Seattle stupid stupidity gave the Giants five tallies in the eighth.

The feature of the game was the batting and base running of Jimmy McHale, one of the squarest ball players in the league. Jimmy was up four times, hitting safely each time, and did his best to score, but failed every time until the eighth. Each time Bill Sweeney followed McHale with a sacrifice. McHale's work was of a high order. Moore was there also with the timely drives, one of his hits being a beautiful bunt in front of the plate, which the rapid Charlie beat out. Donahue had his batting eye and landed three times safely.

Streib led with the stick for Seattle. Blankenship is as fleet as ever and when he got on the circuit he kept the Giants on the alert. He stole third in fine order and came nearly stealing home but for sharp work by Donahue. Young Isbell played a pretty game at short. The official score:

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Spokane, Wash., July 25.—Eddie E. Quinn, manager of the Spokane Amateur Athletic club, tendered his resignation to the board of directors yesterday. Quinn leaves on September 1. He has several good offers from athletic clubs on the coast and may accept one, although he prefers to remain in Spokane. Quinn is an athlete of exceptional ability, there being no amateur lightweight in the country better with the padded mitts. Ed Wraight, head bookkeeper for the Ryan-Newton company, was elected in Quinn's place.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE

Many people who are neglecting symptoms of kidney trouble, hoping "it will wear away," are drifting towards Bright's Disease, which is kidney trouble in one of its worst forms.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

stops irregularities, strengthens the urinary organs and builds up the worn-out tissues of the kidneys so they will perform their functions properly. Healthy kidneys strain out the impurities from the blood as it passes through them. Diseased kidneys do not, and the poisonous waste matter is carried by the circulation to every part of the body, causing dizziness, backache, stomach trouble, sluggish liver, irregular heart action, etc.

If you have any signs of Kidney or Bladder trouble commence taking FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE at once, as it will cure a slight disorder in a few days and prevent a fatal malady. It is pleasant to take and benefits the whole system.

How to Find Out.

You can easily determine if your kidneys are out of order by setting aside for 24 hours a bottle of the urine passed upon arising. If upon examination it is cloudy or milky or has a brick-dust sediment or small particles float about in it, your kidneys are diseased, and FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE should be taken at once.

G. B. Burbank Testifies After Four Years.

G. B. Burbank of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick-dust sediment and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed, and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble."

TRUNK MAKERS CLAIM THAT CIGAR MEN ARE WEAKENING

The following communication from the manager of the Trunk Makers' ball nine declares that the Schiller nine is beginning to weaken inasmuch as Manager Gardner claims that he will not play the same men as he agreed to when he accepted the challenge of the Trunk Makers to play for a side bet of $100 on August 5. The statement reads:

"Are the Schillers weakening?

"Manager Gardner is not willing to play the Trunk Makers with the same line-up that he accepted the challenge with on July 8, when they defeated the Maroons. The Trunk Makers' challenge as published in The Journal on July 7 was as follows:

"'Notice to Maroons and Schillers—The Portland Trunk company's team challenges the winner of tomorrow's game at Recreation park and has placed with The Journal $100 as a side bet. The game to be played on August 5 at Vaughn street grounds, winner to take all the gate receipts, both teams to play the same lineup as in Sunday's game.'

"The Schillers accepted the above challenge. Now Manager Gardner says the team with which he played the Maroons on July 8 is not strong enough and called on the manager of the Trunk Makers' team to ask permission to strengthen it in the game on August 5 by playing two new men. Now, if Manager Gardner hasn't got a bad case of cold feet he will come out on the field with his regular team—the same as he played on July 8 against the Maroons—and defend the title of championship of the state, which he claims. Furthermore, if the Schillers fail to play the same lineup they will have to forfeit the $100 as per challenge. The Trunk Makers will, however, play them with any lineup they may wish to bring on the field outside of the challenge. The Trunk Makers have defeated the following well-known ball teams: Woodburn, Astoria, Powers, Highland, Vilas, Camas, The Dalles, Chemawa, Fort Stevens twice, Northwest Gun Club two out of three, Vancouver two out of three, losing only to Kelso and to Multnomah. The Trunk Makers play next Sunday at Springfield, Oregon. Harnden, their other cannonball twirler, will officiate in the box, with Antoine behind the bat. The Trunk Company's lineup on July 8 was as follows: 'Antoine, catcher; Taylor, pitcher; Dorner, first base; Brown, second base; Day, third base; McClellan, shortstop; Jameson, right field; Briggs, center field; Van Nortwick, left field. This same lineup will meet the Schillers on August 5.

BRILLIANT TENNIS AT MULTNOMAH

Opening Games in State Tournament Attract the Crack Players.

TURNER DOWNS M'ALPIN IN STRAIGHT SETS

Rohr and Benham Play Fast Tennis and Take the Only Men's Doubles of the Day—Miss Heitshu and Miss Josephi Win.

Tennis enthusiasts crowded the Multnomah club grounds yesterday to watch the opening games in the annual tournament for the championship of the state of Oregon. Many prettily gowned women occupied the temporary grandstand erected for the occasion and liberally applauded the clever work on the courts. Mrs. W. K. Scott acted as patroness of the day and under her directions refreshments were served to both players and spectators.

Play began at 10 o'clock in the morning and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Interest centered about the matches in the preliminary round of the men's singles. Joe Tyler of Seattle, who was looked upon as the possible winner of the men's championship, did not appear and his match went by default to H. B. Webb. With Tyler out of the calculations, Walter A. Goss is generally picked to win the event. An aspirant who will give him a hard run is F. A. Agar, the parson racket-wielder from Montana. Agar is a member of the doubles championship team in Montana. His back court work is of a high class, his side line drives especially being the marvel of the courts.

Visiting Players.

Others who have journeyed to Portland from distant points are James Shivers and E. E. Veness, both of Winlock, Oregon. Shivers was put out in a close match yesterday with R. R. Benham, a clever player, who entered from Tacoma at last year's tournament, but who has moved to Portland and will shortly be counted among the Multnomah club cracks.

There were 39 entries in the men's singles and but two defaults. The day's play eliminated about half of them, most of whom were among the poorer players in the tournament. Most of the matches were one-sided, only one, that between Benham and Shivers, going to three sets. Two good men to go out in the first day's play were Shivers and A. B. McAlpin, the latter bested by J. K. Turner. Floyd Wickersham, an old-time Portland racket-wielder, came up from Grants Pass to take part in the tournament. His match with his brother Brandt showed him to be somewhat out of practice, as he won but three games during the entire match.

One Double Played.

But one match was played in the men's doubles. I. Rohr and R. R. Benham played a very close contest with J. K. Turner and Floyd Wickersham. Neither team had practiced together and the team work was therefore somewhat ragged. Individual play, however, was good and often rose to brilliancy. Turner and Wickersham should have had the first set, as they had the score "point set" a number of times, but they were unable to land the decisive point and their opponents finally won out with a score of 8-6. Turner and Wickersham took the next set easily, but in the third, with the score three all, they weakened and Rohr and Benham took the next three games, set and match.

One match was played in the ladies' doubles, three in the ladies' singles and one in the mixed doubles, some of the fair athletes showing up in fine form.

The schedule for today shows a number of matches that will provoke a lively interest. There will undoubtedly be a number of close matches and some of the most expert players entered must go down to defeat. In the men's singles Agar and Benham meet at 11 a. m. on court 1. At the same hour Veness and Brandt Wickersham meet on court 2. Turner and Goss are scheduled to meet at 4 p. m. on court 1. These three should be the closest of the day.

Yesterday's Events.

Men's Singles—Andrews beat Sawyer, 6-3, 6-1; Andrews beat Finck, 6-1, 6-1; Agar beat Leadbetter, 6-1, 6-1; Benham beat Shives, 6-1, 3-6, 6-4; Brandt Wickersham beat Lloyd Wickersham, 6-2, 6-1; Turner beat McAlpin, 6-4, 6-4; Goss beat Knight, 6-2, 6-1; Leiter beat Webb, 6-3, 6-1; Leiter beat Plummer, 6-2, 6-2; Bellinger beat Anderson, 6-0, 6-4; Rosenfeld beat Dole, 7-5, 6-0; Fenton beat Ladd, 6-3, 6-0.

Men's Doubles — Rohr and Benham beat Turner and L. Wickersham, 3-6, 2-6, 6-3.

Ladies' Singles—Miss Smith beat Miss Frohman, 6-3, 6-0; Miss Josephi won from Mrs. Baldwin by default; Miss Weidler beat Miss Leadbetter, 6-3, 6-2; Miss Robertson beat Mrs. Judge, 6-1, 6-1.

Ladies' Doubles—Miss Heitshu and Miss Josephi beat Mrs. Baldwin and Miss Robertson, 6-3, 6-2.

Mixed Doubles—Miss Weidler and F. Wilder won from Mrs. Baldwin and Weidler by default; Miss Booth and Agar beat Mrs. Judge and Rosenfeld, 6-4, 6-3.

SPORTING GOSSIP.

A Seattle Wail.—"Whenever the incompetent president of the Coast league finds a man who is too lazy to work carrying the hod during the building operations at 'Frisco he hires him as an umpire and sends him to Seattle to practice. The latest imposition is a shrimp named Hodson. If Bull Perrine was a joke—and he was at that—this Hodson is a howling farce." Well said, Seattle.

• •

The Riverside Driving club will hold a regular meeting Friday evening in the office of the Rural Spirit.

• •

Russ Hall's team ought to be sent to some league where the national sport is not played so swiftly as in this league.

• •

Notwithstanding the ten big errors made yesterday, the crowd rather enjoyed the contest.

• •

Pitcher Welch of Seattle is a good man, but it apt to be queered in the company of the Siwashes.

• •

Henderson and McLean witnessed the Gans-Holly fight at Pleasant Beach on Monday night. McLean declares he could wallop both fighters in one ring.

Jack O'Brien didn't make a house and lot out of his last fight, but Berger gave him a nice shanty.

Now come the Trunkmakers, who declare that the Schiller team is impotent players for their match on August 5. How about it, cigarmen? An answer better be forthcoming soon or somebody might get the impression that both teams are not seeking publicity. Any more disputes must be adjudicated when the jury is not present. It's a long campaign until August 5.

• •

Multnomah clubmen are anxiously awaiting tomorrow evening's promenade at the club. This function has been arranged for the members and their friends and the club is very anxious that all the women attend. The work of decorating the club and the field is under way today and the committee promises the event of the season to all who attend.

• •

In their last contest the Pines team defeated the La Waunas 19 to 7.

The A. A. U. representative in Portland will soon institute an investigation to learn how many young men calling themselves amateurs are playing with professional teams in this section. A number of the young men will have a hard time defending their amateur standing.

ARE CLEARING MINE WHICH WAS FLOODED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Grants Pass, Or., July 25.—The big subterranean lake recently struck on a lower level of the Granite Hill mine near here, the tapping of which flooded the property and caused a suspension of operations, has run itself out, after filling the mine almost to the collar of the shaft. Superintendent Wickersham and crew have been busily at work upon it, lifting out the water with double skips. By heroic day and night work, the water is being lowered, and is now down to the 200-foot level. As soon as the pump is uncovered it will be started up and much better progress will be made. It is evident that the inflow has about subsided, and that the draining of the mine is but a question of time. Both Superintendent Wickersham and John Ross Jr. of Sutter Creek, California, are of the belief that the Granite Hill will be a wet mine no longer, once it is cleared of the present flood. The best ore ever milled on the property was that struck in the Granite Hill just a few days before the flood came, and the management is encouraged to clear the property of its surplus water at the earliest possible moment.

INSURANCE REPUDIATED BY PHOENIX ROYAL

(Journal Special Service.)

San Francisco, July 25.—The Phoenix Royal Insurance company of Vienna, which carried about $2,500,100 insurance in this city, has decided not to pay any losses growing out of the conflagration of last April. The company's policies carried an earthquake clause. The following official notice was issued by the delegates sent from the home office and the adjuster:

"To the Claimants of the Austrian Phoenix Imperial Privileged Insurance Company of Vienna, Austria—We wish to convey to you the instructions received from the home office of this company at Vienna, Austria, viz:

"That all claims which have been filed against this company by reason of the earthquake which occurred on the morning of April 18, 1906, are invalid, as all policies of this company became null and void by said earthquake, as the same was wholly responsible for the conflagration that followed.

HORSE STABS ITSELF WITH BIG SPLINTER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Baker City, July 24.—P. J. Ahborn yesterday afternoon lost a valuable young horse in a most peculiar manner. The animal was very spirited and restless, and while running about the yard of Brown's livery stable slipped and fell, striking against a broken and loosened fence board in such a manner that a large splinter penetrated its heart. The horse lunged backward and freed itself of the splinter, but was dead by hemorrhage directly from the heart within five minutes.
