

Town Topics

General subscription on the Journal is paid at $1.00 per annum in advance.

SUMMER RESORTS.

Several subscribers on the Journal are planning to go to the coast for the summer. A regular service delivery will be maintained.

TONIGHT'S AMUSEMENTS.

Lyric....."Jack, the Gambler"
The Nickelodeon....."The Great Escape"
The Star....."The Great Escape"

The Southern Pacific company is to try another gasoline car on suburban runs with heavy grades around Portland.

A complete record of the annual meeting and supper of the Portland chamber of commerce at the Oaks is given in the August number of the Chamber of Commerce Bulletin.

Lewis K. Blind of Los Angeles has written the local police asking assistance in locating his father, Philip Blind, 59 years of age, who is believed to have come to Portland after the San Francisco disaster.

Bull for $12. The price of a patent dishwasher has been fixed against D. M. Watson, formerly proprietor of Watson's restaurant, by the Fearless Dishwasher company of New York.

County Judge Webster has ordered that the Willamette Iron & Steel works be allowed to compromise the claim against them for the death of Fred Rube $600.

The Portland General Electric company's bulletin for August, just at hand, is an unusually attractive advertising publication.

J. A. Newell, Mayor Lane's secretary, leaves tomorrow for Minneapolis to attend the grand encampment of the G. A. R. Mr. Newell was an officer in a New York regiment and saw some hard service during the war.

Begin Now

You can open a Savings account with us for One Dollar. You can make additions to this from time to time to suit your convenience.

WE 4 PER PAY 4 CENT
Interest on Savings Deposits
Banking hours, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Saturdays, 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.

The Citizens Bank
150 GRAND AVENUE.
J. H. LAMBERT, President
A. W. LAMBERT, Cashier

CO. MILLER'S GUN COMPANY, PORTLAND, OREGON, HAS A PLAN OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC'S PLAN

Majority of Them Profess to Know Nothing Regarding Company's Intention to Relinquish Voluntarily Their Tracks on Fourth Street.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

CO. MILLER'S GUN COMPANY, PORTLAND, OREGON, HAS A PLAN OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC'S PLAN

Majority of Them Profess to Know Nothing Regarding Company's Intention to Relinquish Voluntarily Their Tracks on Fourth Street.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

CO. MILLER'S GUN COMPANY, PORTLAND, OREGON, HAS A PLAN OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC'S PLAN

Majority of Them Profess to Know Nothing Regarding Company's Intention to Relinquish Voluntarily Their Tracks on Fourth Street.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific is still out of town. The question as to whether or not the railroad company intends to give up voluntarily its franchise on Fourth street and seek another route for its west side road to the union depot over some other street remains somewhat of a mystery.

You Can't Afford to Overlook This Sale of ALFRED BENJAMIN & CO.
"Correct Clothes" for men at One-Fourth Off Regular Price

Man can't make or money can't buy better ready-to-wear clothing than the Benjamin line.
ALL PANAMA & STRAW HATS AT HALF PRICE

THE STAR
Vandavilla for One Week Only.
THE GREAT THEATRE
"Jack, the Gambler"
IN FOUR ACTS.

LIKE A GLIMPSE OF THE SEA?
THE K LURLINE
LINE We sail every day but Sunday from the foot of Taylor street and call at all way points.
EN ROUTE TO ASTORIA
It is a daylight ride all the way to the brink of the merry ocean, on a splendidly equipped stambout politely officered and with food upon the table like your mother used to make.

The BREAKERS HOTEL
AMERICAN PLAN.
LEADING SUMMER RESORT OF THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST.
Electric Light, Steam, Hot and Cold Bath Water in Every Tub. Buy Tickets to Seaside, Pacific County, Wash. Postoffice Address, Breakers, Wash.

Cloud Cap Inn
Oregon's famous mountain resort at snow line on Mount Hood
Away from the heat of the city. The most delightful resting place in the northwest. Full information at the north-west. O. R. & N.

Hotel Moore
OPEN ALL THE YEAR.
Clatsop Beach, Seaside, Oregon
"THE CLIFF HOUSE OF OREGON"
Directly on the beach, overlooking the ocean. Hot salt baths and curd bathing. Recreation pier for fishing. Sun parlors, electric lights, fireplace and furnace heat. Fine walks and drives. Sea foods a specialty.

Hotel Eaton
COR. MORRISON AND WEST PARK STS. NEW
Handsomely furnished, elegantly equipped, breezy, fire situated with front porch, shopping and business district, all large, airy, outside rooms, steam heated, electric lights, telephone in each apartment. Large office, lounge, smoking, writing, ladies' reception parlors. Rooms reserved by mail or telephone. Private amusements, trains and steamers. Rooms $1.00 to $5.00 a Day. Special Rates to Commercial Travellers. (Formerly of Hotel Edgemoor, Spokane.)

The Portland
PORTLAND, OREGON.
EUROPEAN PLAN ONLY.
HEADQUARTERS FOR TOURISTS AND COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS.
Everything to eat and drink, and it costs no more in the Portland Hotel than elsewhere in the city.
weekday night from 9:00 to 11:00.
E. C. POWELL, Mgr.

DEATH COMES IN HORRIBLE FORM
William Wilhelm Mangled in the Eastern & Western Mill—Dies Almost Instantly.
A. K. HOLMES HAS HIS LEG SAWED OFF
Struck by Conveyor in Same Mill and Thrown Against Big Saw, Which Amputates One Leg and Mangles the Other—May Not Survive.

Will Have Five at Seagirt
Personnel of Team to Enter National Shoot in New Jersey About Decided.
ROSEBURG ALSO WILL SEND FIVE MARKSMEN
Sergeant A. A. Schwarz of Company K, Who Won Individual Medal at State Shoot, Heads Delegation of Portland Lads—Expected to Score.

Two accidents of a particularly horrible nature, resulting fatally for one man and causing injuries which will probably result in the death of another occurred at the mills of the Eastern & Western Lumber company this morning. Shortly after 5 o'clock, William Wilhelm, head night millwright at the establishment, was struck by a conveyor and so seriously injured that death ensued. The unfortunate man was being lifted out of the ambulance at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Portland will have five men on the rifle team that will represent Oregon at the national rifle shoot at Seagirt, New Jersey, August 27 to September 6. While no order has been issued announcing the personnel of the team, it is pretty well understood that the following men have been selected: A. A. Schwarz, company K; Arthur J. Royle of the N. C. staff; Third Infantry; Private W. H. company M; Corporal J. S. Rider, company M; Lieutenant E. P. Denny, company F; Sergeant V. S. Howard, N. C. staff; Private G. E. Upton, company K; Private B. Beard, company F.

Portland will have five men on the rifle team that will represent Oregon at the national rifle shoot at Seagirt, New Jersey, August 27 to September 6. While no order has been issued announcing the personnel of the team, it is pretty well understood that the following men have been selected: A. A. Schwarz, company K; Arthur J. Royle of the N. C. staff; Third Infantry; Private W. H. company M; Corporal J. S. Rider, company M; Lieutenant E. P. Denny, company F; Sergeant V. S. Howard, N. C. staff; Private G. E. Upton, company K; Private B. Beard, company F.

Portland will have five men on the rifle team that will represent Oregon at the national rifle shoot at Seagirt, New Jersey, August 27 to September 6. While no order has been issued announcing the personnel of the team, it is pretty well understood that the following men have been selected: A. A. Schwarz, company K; Arthur J. Royle of the N. C. staff; Third Infantry; Private W. H. company M; Corporal J. S. Rider, company M; Lieutenant E. P. Denny, company F; Sergeant V. S. Howard, N. C. staff; Private G. E. Upton, company K; Private B. Beard, company F.

Portland will have five men on the rifle team that will represent Oregon at the national rifle shoot at Seagirt, New Jersey, August 27 to September 6. While no order has been issued announcing the personnel of the team, it is pretty well understood that the following men have been selected: A. A. Schwarz, company K; Arthur J. Royle of the N. C. staff; Third Infantry; Private W. H. company M; Corporal J. S. Rider, company M; Lieutenant E. P. Denny, company F; Sergeant V. S. Howard, N. C. staff; Private G. E. Upton, company K; Private B. Beard, company F.

Portland will have five men on the rifle team that will represent Oregon at the national rifle shoot at Seagirt, New Jersey, August 27 to September 6. While no order has been issued announcing the personnel of the team, it is pretty well understood that the following men have been selected: A. A. Schwarz, company K; Arthur J. Royle of the N. C. staff; Third Infantry; Private W. H. company M; Corporal J. S. Rider, company M; Lieutenant E. P. Denny, company F; Sergeant V. S. Howard, N. C. staff; Private G. E. Upton, company K; Private B. Beard, company F.

Bankrupt Sale
Of the $8,000 Stock
L. MING & CO., 86 6th St.
Ladies' and Gents' Furnishing Goods of all kinds at HALF PRICE.

CUT RATES
For 30 Days Only
$2.00 Gold Crowns.....$5.00
$3.00 Gold Crowns.....$3.50
$10.00 Plates.....$5.00
$15.00 Plates.....$7.50
Fillings, up from.....$3.00
Work Guaranteed.

Boston Dental Parlors
251 1/2 Morrison St., Opp. P. O. and Hotel B.
North Pacific College of Dentistry
One of the largest and best equipped institutions of its kind in the entire West. No dental school can boast of a better force of specially trained teachers, who devote their entire time to the instruction of the students.

PORTLAND ACADEMY
Portland Oregon
18th Year Will Open Sept. 17.
Fits boys and girls for Eastern and Western colleges.
Includes a primary and grammar school.
Boarding hall for girls affording the comforts and care of a refined home.
Office hours during the summer from 9 a. m. to 12 m.
For catalogue write to the address given above.

Medical Department
OF THE University of Oregon
20th Annual Session Begins Sept. 17, 1906.
Address: E. E. Campbell, Director, 610 DuRoi St., Portland.

SEASIDE HOUSE
SEASIDE, OREGON.
F. Z. DAGGETT, Manager, Seaside, Or.
Under new management, remodeled and newly furnished, electric lights, fresh and salt water bathing, fishing, fresh milk and cream, from our own dairy, fresh vegetables from our own garden. Rates $2.50 to $5.00 per day. Special rates by the week or month. Free bus.

WISER BROS. DENTISTS
PAINTERS & RESTORERS
"Do I look like a dead one? Well, I should hope not. I refuse to admit that I committed suicide, and the floral offerings my friends are preparing for my funeral will have to be kept in cold storage for some time to come," J. Hopp said. H. C. Zinser, an employee of the Trey laundry, this morning, Mr. Zinser's troubles arose from the fact that he was acquainted with John G.

WISER BROS. DENTISTS
PAINTERS & RESTORERS
"Do I look like a dead one? Well, I should hope not. I refuse to admit that I committed suicide, and the floral offerings my friends are preparing for my funeral will have to be kept in cold storage for some time to come," J. Hopp said. H. C. Zinser, an employee of the Trey laundry, this morning, Mr. Zinser's troubles arose from the fact that he was acquainted with John G.