

WILLIE WESTINGHOUSE MAKES LIFE PLEASANT IN THE COUNTRY

Dear Mamma: Tompy and I went blackberrying the other day and found all the biggest berries were in middle of the thickets.

Then we got busy and built a swinging platform from which to pick the berries in safety.

Uncle Tom thought it such a good scheme that he insisted on trying it.

But it was built only for boys, and broke under his weight—

And let him down into the brambles.

When we got him out he threatened to send me home.
Yours lovingly, Willie.
