RYAN STOLE HIS IDEA BUT DID NOT PAY FOR IT

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal)
New York, Aug. 11.—That an idea, even if worth millions, is not property and that an equity court cannot compel the specific performance of an agreement to make an accounting was the decision today of Vice Chancellor Shreve in the suit brought in Trenton, New Jersey, by H. C. Haskins against Thomas F. Ryan, to compel the latter to make an accounting of the alleged enormous profits of the lead trust and to pay Haskins a share.
