

MR. MAKEPEACE—APPEARANCES ARE AGAINST HIM (ONCE MORE) FOR OTHER RULES ARE NOW OUT

Commuters Were Helpless Before the Deceptive Shoots of Giant Pitcher.

BUT TWO SCRATCH HITS WERE SECURED

The Portlanders Find Little Difficulty in Running Away From the Men Who Work for Van Haltran—Mitchell's Homer Was a Feature.

Portland 6, Oakland 2. Batteries—Cates and Hackett; Henderson and McLean.

It took the Giants but a few minutes yesterday to put the official kibosh on the Commuters, and it was accomplished in the time of 4 to zero. From Oakland's end of the score it is safe to assume that they were treated to a frost.

When it was time for the game to begin no regular umpire had put in an appearance, and after a home plate discussion between Van and Mac, Oscar Graham and Billiam Essick were given authority to indicate the progress and result of the contest.

The game was not as interesting as some that have been seen here. Hackett was away off in his throwing. His bad peg to second in the first inning was directly responsible for two runs. After two were down in the first Mitchell got a pass and stole second and went to third on Hackett's throw.

McCredie drew four balls and Jud Smith singled Mitchell home. The ball overcame the pitcher's shins and Mac skipped to third. Hackett, whose arm was getting stronger every minute, took another throw, and McCredie scored.

In the second inning McLean led off with a single, and Sweeney attempted a sacrifice, but as both men sauntered along the Commuters, through Cates, Franks and Helmtmuller, doubled them up with time to spare.

In the fifth McLean singled and made second while Smith was making the return throw. This work of McLean's was very good. Sweeney fouled out to Hackett. Mike Mitchell hit to Helmtmuller, who in losing the ball to Cates, covering the bag, threw it near the bleachers and James McHale registered.

Cates was pitching splendid ball, but his support was lacking. Five scattered hits were all that the Giants could garner until the eighth, when handsome Michael Mitchell started trouble by driving a corker to the right field fence that dropped through the field fence to connect with the ball to glove. That was in the first inning, and Smith should have got a hit for it.

In the third Smith knocked a slow home run and beat it out. He was the only man to connect safely. The official score:

WHAT CALIFORNIANS THINK OF GIANTS

Los Angeles Examiner Gives a Few Figures That Tell Why Portland Beat Fresno.

Here is what the Los Angeles Examiner has to say about the Giants' work against Fresno last week: 'Portland took five games out of six from Fresno. Some old hard-boiled fan will want to know how it was done. And just to beat him to it, we will give the figures in the case.'

'Figures cannot lie though liars are often handy at figuring, and the batting averages of the Portland boys tell the story. 'Throwing out the pitchers and taking just the regular lineup of the team, excluding Donohue, the change catcher, the general average of the eight men tops up to .298. And any team that can stick .298 has a license to trim anything in this league.'

'Big Nemo McLean led the bunch with an average of .500. On the day that Fresno went into the air Big Nemo tore off five hits out of five times, and this is not the first time this season the long fellow has done this either. Several times he had four hits out of four times up. No wonder Cincinnati would like to lure the giant out of the bushes. 'Little Nemo Mitchell trails in second with an average of .380 for the week's work. Mitchell is right up at the head of the batting list in this league. He is very fast on his feet and beats out many an infield hit on which another man would be thrown out at first.'

'Sweeney is third with .308 and Moore has .292. Only two men on the team batted under .250 last week—McHale and Smith. Sweeney was the low man with .167, and at that the ex-Angel tore off some terrific drives to the outfield. Jud has the flagpole located and all the left fielder has to do is stick around there and wait for Jud to line one into his glove. 'Out of 215 times at bat the Portland team made 58 hits for a general average of .268. Cates, Henderson, Gump, Smith and McHale were the weak stickers last week. 'But the heavy hitters more than made up for the discrepancy as the most of them got their hits at a time when hits meant runs.'

SPORTING GOSSIP. It is rumored that Cincinnati is after McLean and Essick of the Giant bled, but so far as the sale of the men is concerned Manager McCredie has no information. Both are stars and would shine in the fastest company in the country. If they are not drafted it would be well for Portland to hang on to them, as every one knows the great fielder has been experienced by Portland when trying to get good battery men. Keep Larry and Bill.

Mike Mitchell's home run, that dropped between the fences, was a terrific feat. Mike's home runs are getting entirely too frequent for the other fellows. Henderson pitched a remarkable game yesterday. His speed was wonderful. The ball was off his hand and beats out when the batsman was swinging at it.

Smith should have been given credit for two hits yesterday, though they were of the scratch variety. The first hit Henderson jumped for, and only touched with the tip of his glove about which has been recorded as a hit and not as an error for Henderson.

In the second inning, when McLean hit safely and Sweeney attempted to sacrifice, both runnings took things so easy that they were doubled up. They were 'called down' by McCredie.

Tom Hackett felt strong yesterday. He showed his strength by throwing the ball to center field several times. In the third inning Henderson retired the side in strikes. Franks, Cates and Van Haltran going down. Smith managed to sneak in a dinky hit in the meantime but was lost on the circuit.

The greatest pair of umpires that ever officiated in this league were in the limelight yesterday. Essick and Graham were so honest that they SILER MAY REFEREE FIGHT AT GOLDFIELD. Goldfield, Nev., Aug. 16.—The question of a referee for the Nelson-Gans fight is still unsettled, but it looks like Siler. The Colma arena model is not picture and another is being prepared. Progress has been handicapped by the sickness of Tex Rickard. Ticket sales are lively and many women have secured reservations. The betting continues to show that Gans is a slight favorite. Gans weighs today 135 pounds and is training hard. Nelson is taking it easy and starts his regular training tomorrow.

IMP OF INDIGESTION. How to Get the Better of This Cause of Misery. A scientific writer upon stomach troubles says: 'If you have ever suffered from indigestion—and who has not—your imagination has probably pictured a ferocious little imp dancing in the pit of your stomach, causing that organ to neglect all of its duties, with a result that is not only painful but fills you with misery from day to day. This writer certainly had suffered with indigestion, for there is no more disagreeable, nerve-racking and sick-all-over disease than indigestion. A great many people who have been treated for years for diseases of the heart, liver or kidneys, when they used Mions stomach tablets found that not only did Mions cure the stomach disorder, but it made them well all over and the other troubles were also cured. If you suffer with nervousness, sleeplessness, indigestion, sick or nervous headache, pains in the back or sides, get a 50c box of Mions from Woodard, Clarke & Co. and take one of the little tablets before each meal. It will soon be well and free from indigestion, and its symptoms. Woodard, Clarke & Co. have so much faith in this medicine that they give an absolute guarantee with every box. Ask them to show you this guarantee.'

FORWARD PASS IS CAUSE OF DISCUSSION

First Books Containing Changes Are Published in the Windy City.

FORWARD PASS IS CAUSE OF DISCUSSION

One Such Play Is Allowed in Each Scrimmage—Ten-Yard Rule and On-Side Kick Regulations Make the Men Do Some Tall Thinking.

(Journal Special Service.) Chicago, Aug. 16.—Books containing the new football rules were issued in Chicago yesterday to give gridiron fans their first opportunity to study them in an effort to find out what the game cleansers have done. The most radical change is the forward-pass rule, which permits one forward pass of the ball in each scrimmage, provided the passer of the ball is behind the line at the time he lets it fly.

Should the ball fall to the ground during such a pass without touching a player of the other side it goes to the opponents. The chances are that very few forward passes will get away. This clause giving the ball over, however, is retained as its only weakness. It will increase the work of the referee to some extent and gives rise to questions that will hob up at critical points. The fact that the side with the ball must gain 10 yards has been commented on. Football players look rather blue over this rule and await the experimental season with much impatience.

Another odd ruling is the on-side kick. On kicks, except by the center of snapper-back, where the ball strikes the ground, the kicker's side is on-side. A rolling ball, however, cannot be kicked at. Hurdling is forbidden, and tackling below the knees is punishable by the loss of five yards.

MULTNOMAH BEAT APOLLOS ON SKATES

The Multnomah baseball skaters defeated the Apollon aggregation at the Oaks rink last evening by the score of 8 to 2. The features of the match were sliding ones, David Honeyman proving the star. The better battery work was done by Captain Sam. This pair can beat anything in the world on skates. Banks at first also showed his ability in handling a ball in clever fashion while on skates. The one good thing about the Apollons was their splendid looks. The lineup: Multnomah, Apollon. Zan (Capt.)..... Brent Watkins..... Byrnes Banks..... 1b..... Randall W. Honeyman..... 2b..... Van Derhoff Zachrisson..... rs..... Siedell Litt..... ls..... Murphy Brown..... 3b..... Dutcher Knight..... cf..... Johnson (Capt.) Kerrigan..... of..... Clark

The Oregon Sliders defeated the Hard Hitters yesterday 7 to 5. The fact that John I. Sullivan says that the umpire is a brat does not mean that John disapproves of it. Joe Gans realizes the value of a good reputation when he feels it incumbent to post $5,000 as a guarantee that he is going to fight 'on the level.'

TOM JOHNSON STARTS TO PURIFY PARTY. Mayor of Cleveland Will Try to Oust McLean Element. (Journal Special Service.) Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 16.—The Democratic party can never command the confidence of the people with a lot of dirty, low political crooks clinging to it. This is a good time for housecleaning, and all decent Democrats ought to get together to put all the gangsters down and out. So spoke Mayor Tom L. Johnson last night in inaugurating a campaign to oust the McLean element from party control. He plans to 'read out of the party the present leaders, control the state central committee, dictate the state ticket to be nominated next week, have himself elected state campaign manager, as well as delegate-at-large to the national convention, and member of the national committee, membership in which he now holds by appointment. It is also claimed that in the event of Bryan's election to the presidency in 1908, Johnson will be a member of his cabinet.

San Francisco Wants Relief Fund Balances. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Olympia, Wash., Aug. 16.—Governor Mead has received a letter from James D. Phelan, chairman of the San Francisco relief committee, requesting that the governor ask the several local relief committees in the state to furnish the San Francisco committee with a statement of their receipts and forward any balance on hand. 'We would have you point out,' the letter adds, 'that while the fund we have on hand is comparatively large, the work of rehabilitation will necessitate the expenditure of immense sums, and that we are desirous of receiving all outstanding funds in order that we may more definitely ascertain the amount at our disposal and plan accordingly. We shall be glad to hear from you in reply.'

The winter pears—the Buere Easter and the Winter Nellie—are not ready for the market until about October. It is the continuous succession of varieties following through the season which makes the pear industry so attractive in this portion of Oregon, as an efficient force of men, small in numbers, can handle and take care of a large orchard, divided among the different varieties of pears.
