British Syndicate to Rebuild Ruined Brewery New Method of Identification Resorted to by in San Francisco and Invade Northern Cities for Business

San Francisco, Aug. 16. — Fourteen rears ago a British syndicate bought up at an expense of $10,000,000 the leading breweries of San Francisco. In the late fire the syndicate lost its plants. Yesterday London representatives of this syndicate wired local agents that the syndicate wired local agents that the syndicate wired local agents that the syndicate people after a careful resums of the San Francisco situation, had decided to spend $2,000,000 in erecting a modern eight-story brewery building on Second street, near Howard.

It appears that the British syndicate before the fire owned seven breweries. Since the fire owned seven breweries. Since the fire owned seven breweries. Since the fire for the same rate to the northern country that the northern breweries are getting down here.

In other words, the syndicate propose to put up a plant here by means of which it will try and control the majority of the San Francisco trade and establish agencies in the north to counteract the invasion of Portland, Tacoma and Seattle in this city.

Assured of Cooperation of President in Securing an Increase of Pensions to Twelve Dollars a Month for Old Soldiers.

Minneapolis, Aug. 16.—The continuour round of pleasure that the G. A. R. veterans have enjoyed since their arrival in the city gave way this morning to a season of work. Promptly at 10 to a season of work. Promptly at 10 o'clock the fortieth annual encampment of the organization was called to order in the Auditorium by the retiring commander-in-chief, James Tanner of Washington, D. C. The Auditorium had been elaborately decorated for the occasion by the ladies of Minneapolis, the decorations including flags and banners and large portraits of Lincoln, Grant and large portraits of Lincoln, Grant and other leaders.

The opening hour was devoted to ad-dresses by representatives of the state, the city and the local veterans and appropriate responses were made by Com mander Tanner and other of the dele gates. As soon as the preliminary pro-gram was over Commander Tanner dias it was to be an executive session. Commander Tanner, in his annual ad-dress, touched upon many subjects of interest to the veterans, among them pensions, the canteen at soldiers homes, the observance of Decoration day, etc. The report of Adjutant-General John Tweedle showed the number of Grand demanded by Mr. Gompers. The pow Army posts now exceeds 5,000. More of the courts to issue writs of injus-than 10,000 veterans passed away dur-tion to prevent irreparable injury ing the year, the loss exceeding 4 per cent of the membership.

"I am assured of the cooperation to all possible extent of the cooperation to all possible extent of the president in securing $12 monthly pension for all veterans and $12 for all widows, although it will take $24,000,000 from the treasury at the start."

The commander referred to the automobile accident in which his wife was killed at Helens, and paid her a touching tribute. He said that nothing in life ever crushed him so, not even the loss at Bull Run.

The G. A. R. will elect a commander and select the next encampment city gram was over Commander Tanner di-rected all persons not members of the Grand Army to withdraw from the hall. next chaplain-in-chief.

Increased Membership. In his address Corporal Tanner said: "Despite 9,000 deaths, which led me to expect that a decrease was inevitable, the G. A. B. inst year increased its membership 3,500. During the last year, while the public conscience was outraged by the exposure of corruption in high places, the minutest investiga-tion reveals the fact tha not one veteran of the civil war was among the fallen

War Department-Photos of Soldiers Supplant Card Measurements

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—Pursuant to orders issued by the war department, which go into effect December 1, all entisted men in the United States army will be subjected to a new method of identification. Heretofore soldiers have all been accurately described by means of the "outline figure card," and although this method has served to some advantage, the new system will undoubtedly insure a more perfect identification.

Is popular with the French government. Each member of this commission will be can instruct others who are to be in charge of the system.

Each post of any prominence will be equipped with the paraphernalia for recording the identifications and soldiers arriving at posts lacking these facilities will be sent to the nearest identification.

All descriptions are to be kept in the war department, the government hoping in this way to check the tendency

The couple are spending their, honeymoon in Holland. Miss Duncan has been conducting a dancing scademy here and among her patrons were a number of women of Berlin's most exclusive set. It was known that most exclusive set. It was known that Craig was exceedingly attentive, but no intimation of an engagement was given out. The marriage was conducted with such secrecy that even the closest friends knew nothing of it until several days after it occurred.

She startled the Greeks by giving classic Grecian dances in the Acropolis and after coming here was ordered by the police to desist from dancing in public in bare feet.

LOS ANGELES THREATENED WITH BUILDING STRIKE

Carpenters Adopt Resolution Not to Work Beside Non-Union Workmen.

Los Angeles, Aug. 16.—This city and vicinity is threatened with a building strike which will check the heavy demand for lumber. Resolutions have been adopted by the carpenters union providing that no member of the Brotherhood of Carpenters will work on a job with nonunion carpenters. If the demands be not granted the leaders of the union declare there will be a general strike here in the building trades.

The disposition of the contractors who employ large numbers of men is to resist the demands. The employers, almost to a man, assert that they will let the men strike hefore they will grant any concession.

among the ranks of union labor generally it is believed that the demands will be greatly modified before the time announced for them to go into effect. The first modification was made by the carpenters last night, who decided to make the change apply only to house carpenters and not to mill workers.

LONDON SYNDICATE GETS OREGON COPPER MINES

Ashland, Or., Aug. 16.—The Oregon Copper company has been incorporated by C. W. Evans, a mining engineer of Ashland, for a syndicate of London capitalists. The company has secured one of the best of copper claims in southern Oregon. The group contains large bodies of high-grade copper ores with many thousand tons in sight ready to be extracted and treated. The ore will be treated by the non-acid leaching process of Los Angeles. A quantity of the ore has been treated by this process at the works in Los Angeles and the tests have been very satisfactory. By this process copper can be produced from the raw ore at a cost of $4.45 per ton. The refuse of one class of the ore, after being ground finer, is saleable as a by-product in Los Angeles at $10 per ton as a high-grade mineral paint.

The company is capitalized at $1.500.
