

TRAVEL TO COAST FROM EAST

Two Sixteen-Year-Old Boys Come to Portland and Are Captured by Bruin.

CHIEF GRITZMÄCHER SOON RELEASES THEM

Youngsters Tell Plausible Story and Prove They Are Able to Care for Themselves Without Asking Anyone for Assistance—Told to Work.

Begrimed and travel-stained by their long continental journey in a "box car" Pullman, Nelson, Clark, Worcester, Massachusetts, and Albert Phillips of Detroit, Michigan, two 16-year-old lads with roving proclivities, fell into the clutches of the law as personified by Inspector Bruin, soon after their arrival in this city.

Slung over his shoulder, each boy carried a shoe-shining outfit, and it was the possession of this couple which their unkempt appearance, that prompted Bruin to take them into custody pending an investigation. In an interview with Chief Gritzmaecher, they told of their trip westward and the causes which prompted them to leave home.

FAMILY ARMED WITH GUNS CHASE DUDE THIEF

Swell Residence of Newport Invaded by Robber Attired in Natty Summer Suit.

New York, Aug. 16.—A special to the Journal from Newport says: Burglars invaded "Fairlawn," the palatial home of J. Townsend Burden, early this morning, and furnished more excitement than the "400" had in years. All the Burdens, including Mrs. Burden and Misses Gwendolyn and Evelyn, armed with revolvers, joined in the burglar hunt that followed.

PORTLAND'S NEW DEPARTMENT STORE The GOLDEN EAGLE Entire Corner 34 and Yamhill

COLONEL HOFER THINKS HE SHOULD BE COLLECTOR Salem Editor Demands to Know Why He Isn't Mentioned as Being in the Race.

Business Location A Confectionery Store We have at our disposal a fine location, in good neighborhood, for and branch bakery. There are living rooms in rear, counters and other fixtures; low rent; long lease. Just the thing for the wife to handle while the husband is busy at his trade. Apply at FRONT AND GIBBS STREETS (key at drug store), or to Gevurtz & Sons 173-175 First St.

REED-FRENCH CO PIANO MAKERS The Commonwealth Building on Sixth and Burnside streets, the distributing depot of the Reed-French Piano Manufacturing Co. The peculiar wants of the Reed-French Co. make the Commonwealth building ideally adapted to their purposes. The Portland office of the company have the whole northwest to look after, and shipping conveniences is a first consideration. Plenty of room, excellent light, nearness to depots and within a two minutes' walk to the very center of town makes this location and building just the place for the wholesaling of musical instruments. The warehouses are rapidly filling up. (Mr. Pick has three wagons going). About tomorrow will have lots of pianos to show—fall styles in fine pianos—you know there is an up-to-dateness about pianos the same as in everything else. And when Saturday comes we want you to call (Sixth and Burnside, you know) and see a piano that we're proud of. We don't want to get too extravagant in descriptions, but we're safe in this case. We will put in your house the sweetest, the most up-to-date, the most liberally guaranteed piano ever shown in this town for $217 (pay as you like). This price is at least a hundred dollars less than retailers must ask for the same thing. If you don't mind looking around a disordered store come in before Saturday. The Reed-French Piano Mfg. Co. FROM MAKER TO PLAYER.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of J. C. HITCHCOCK In Use For Over Thirty Years CASTORIA

Instead of resorting to such time-worn artifices as the professional job-chaser, Editor Hofer has preferred to rely upon his distinguished and disinterested services to the state. Eight development conventions have been held by him during the past year and are president of the Willamette Valley Development League he has labored without reward—though evidently not without hope of one. With rare modesty Mr. Hofer adds:

"As a result of my labors, and Tom Richardson's, we have the state crisscrossed with railroad surveys, several transcontinental lines are being built, and electric lines are being projected in every direction. At least $100,000,000 is to be expended in Oregon if your paper tells the truth, as the result of this development campaign.

Through an oversight the list of his achievements for Oregon the construction of the Columbia river jetty, the Cello canal and the portage railway. In spite, however, of his pre-eminence claims for the office, none of the other candidates is reported as having withdrawn.

in a position to interfere with the movement of Harriman traffic at the crossing. The Portland & Seattle has also acquired sufficient ground, and with desirable proximity to the present union station, to make it practicable for that company to erect its own passenger station should favorable terms or concessions be refused by the Harriman majority management of the present union station. Altogether the stakes make it worth while for the big company to fight it out for possession of the row of blocks that are now the dividing line between their terminal grounds.

TO PLACE ESPEE STOCK ON DIVIDEND PAYING BASIS Reported in Wall Street That Harriman Will Announce Four Per Cent Profit.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Aug. 16.—Unless the wise ones of Wall street are mistaken Harriman and his associates in the Southern Pacific are determined to put the stock of the road on a 4 per cent dividend basis. On the strength of this general belief the stock has risen to a record price, touching 31 1/4 in very active dealings. The best previous record was 21 1/4, made in 1902. The Southern Pacific stockholders have been waiting for a dividend for more than 20 years. In this some of the stockholders have manifested an aggressive impatience. It was C. P. Huntington's policy not to pay dividends until the property should be able to continue payments. By adhering to this policy in the face of much criticism, he prevented the road from going into receivership hands when nearly all of the big western railroad companies were in financial difficulties. Railroad experts agree that the system is in such good condition that its traffic is bound to increase and justify dividends now for an indefinite period.

AT THE THEATRES. At the Lyric. It would be quite difficult to find a better play than the four-act military drama, "The Marching Regiment," which is the attraction at the Lyric for the current week. The parts are well assigned and are being enacted in a highly efficient manner. This production should be seen by all.

Pantages. An excellent program is that of Pantages this week. It is headed by Harry McCray and his troupe in "The Old Guard." Those who have seen this say that it is worth many times the price of admission. Other features are Merritt Sisters, artistic singers and graceful dancers; the Great Melodite, who with his dainty wardrobe impersonates the gentle sex; a lively little comedy skit, "Wanted: A Nurse," by Mr. and Mrs. George Morrell, and many other entertaining acts.

At the Star. "Caught in the Web" is to be the opening production of the Allen stock company, which opens at the Star theater as a dramatic stock house next Monday evening. The policy of the management will be to furnish Portland with a season of society entertainments.

At the Grand. Those who enjoy a vaudeville entertainment where all the acts are of high standard will find what they seek at the Grand this week. The bill appears particularly good on account of the bright and fresh appearance of the house, as it has been completely renovated. Edward Kettle, the humorist, is the top-liner.

Geanned Rhubarb. Fannie Merritt Farmer in Woman's Home Companion. Pare the rhubarb and cut into one-inch pieces, using a silver knife. Pack solidly into a jar, put under the cold-water faucet and let the water run for 20 minutes; then adjust the cover. I have asked many chemists why rhubarb could be preserved in this manner, but have never received a satisfactory reply. As a matter of fact, I have known rhubarb so treated to keep from one rhubarb season to the next.

AMERICA TAKES HAND IN DOMINGAN WAR Washington, Aug. 16.—The situation in Santo Domingo is far from satisfactory. Orders have been for Southernland, the senior American naval officer in those waters, to prevent the landing of any hostile force that may have been organized in Porto Rico and American territory. There is revolutionary sentiment in the island, and the United States has been organized in Porto Rico and American territory.
